

PROFITS ON FRUIT.

Our friend Mr. W. H. Jessup, the well known and successful fruit grower, of Hayward, California, writes us a valuable and interesting paper concerning the profit of fruit culture, that we shall publish next week.

We call attention to the value that pertains to different kinds of fruit after it is dried, as follows:

Apples turn off 5 to 5 1/2 lbs of dried fruit to a bushel of 50 lbs weight, so that they hardly yield more than ten per cent. of dried product.

Pears turn off about 7 lbs. per bushel as near as we can estimate, and will sell as well as apples, and perhaps better.

Plums yield from 20 to 25 lbs to the bushel of 50 lbs. We noticed that Peach plums, Columbias, Coe's Golden Drops, Yellow Egg plums, grow in an orchard, turned off 25 per cent of dried product, say 12 1/2 lbs. to the bushel, and as we sold extra choice fruit for 16 cents, well packed, that was $2 per bushel.

The Chinese are preparing for their New Year, and chickens are in demand. As there are no hen roosts near, they are willing to pay from $9 to $12 per dozen, and find difficult work to obtain them at these prices.

We have a China wash house here, with a sign attached reading as follows: "Ah Tack, Laundry & Co., Washing, Sin." Who the sign artist is I cannot say, but it signifies that washing can be done at one bit per piece, allee samee white woman.

We have accidents occasionally, but so far they have not been serious on this end of the line. A few lives have been lost below here, which must be expected where several thousand persons are working.

Pay day has passed and tangle has had full sway for some time among those who fill themselves with it. From the looks of several, they present the appearance of having been stepped on by an elephant. Gambling runs high, and sports are numerous in following up the pay wagon to reap their share of the harvest.

We have no sympathy with the sensational figures put forth by over sanguine persons. It is true, that same fruit may sell for fancy prices, but we must count on seeing an immense product of canned and dried fruits on this coast, and calculate that prices will drop with production on a large scale.

The Boston "Post" is informed that Ben Butler has said to be a friend that the portion of his inaugural address in which he disclaimed any intention of being a candidate for reelection next year was good faith, but that he was a candidate for the Presidential nomination in 1884, to which end he looked for the support of the Malone crowd in Virginia and the followers of Conkling and Arthur in New York.

The question of the color of writing paper to be used in schools in France has been discussed. Some time ago white-brown paper was ordered, as being far less injurious to the eyes than ordinary white paper. It has lately been recommended that all school paper should have a yellowish tint, but white paper is not absolutely proscribed.

The election of Henry Villard and Frederick Billings of the Northern Pacific as directors of the New York, Lake Shore and Buffalo railroad company lend additional strength to the general opinion that the latter road will form the eastern end of a trans continental line leading from Portland to New York City.

FROM THE RAILROAD.

A correspondent at Cow Creek, Oregon, writes the Yreka "Journal" as follows from Montgomery station, in Josephine county, under the date of Jan. 25th:

Cow Creek still exists, (as does your correspondent,) but instead of being turbulent as when I last wrote, it has settled down to a fourth class brook, and can be crossed anywhere without more danger than an Oregon foot bath, and for a few days has been frozen to bear up a venturesome pedestrian.

Along the line the work is progressing rapidly, and if the weather continues as at present, it will be but a short time before Yreka will be 16 miles nearer a railroad than ever before.

Tunnel No 2 has been open for two weeks, and the track is laid quite a distance this side, with more being built every day, and prospects of making the terminus at Tunnel No. 3 in a few days. This tunnel will be finished about the 10th of February, and is the only obstacle in the way for several miles. The big tunnel at Cow Creek is in several hundred feet on the north side and about 900 feet on the south side, the Burle drills doing good execution. A wagon road is being surveyed over the Cow Creek hill, and will make a connection with the main stage road, as soon as the cars are run to the tunnel. This will cut off several miles of a road leading by the way of Redfield's and give the country a better opportunity of supplying the front at Wolf Creek Mill, Miller & Co. are framing timber for the trestle work between Wolf Creek and Grave Creek, some portions of which will be 100 feet high. At Montgomery station, ground is being cleared for a depot, and it is expected by some of the knowing ones that a great city will be one of the coming events.

The Chinese are preparing for their New Year, and chickens are in demand. As there are no hen roosts near, they are willing to pay from $9 to $12 per dozen, and find difficult work to obtain them at these prices.
