

OREGON SENTINEL.

JACKSONVILLE

SATURDAY, APRIL 21, 1883.

NOTICE.

Land Office at Roseburg, Ore., June 30, 1880. Notice is hereby given that I have designated the Oregon Sentinel as the paper in which I shall hereafter publish all pre-emptions, homesteads and applications for mining patents for lands lying near Jacksonville, Jackson county, Oregon.

CHALLENGE.—We, the Jacksonville Base Ball Club, do hereby challenge the First Nine of Ashland to play a game of base ball at Jacksonville on May 11, 1883.

GOOD CHANCE.—A young man in this county aged twenty-seven years, desires to correspond with some lady between the age of nineteen and twenty-two years—object marriage. Address J. W. H., in care of this office.

MINERS.—Wanted a large quantity of the black iron sand accompanying the gold deposits in hydraulic mines. Good price paid for same. State quantity on hand and send average sample in a small glass bottle to the office of this paper.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BENEFIT.—A social for the benefit of the M. E. Sunday School will be given by the teachers of the school on next Wednesday evening at the M. E. Parsonage. A voluntary contribution at the door, and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

A CARD.—About two weeks since I traveled on the stage from Jacksonville to Coles station, paying the agent here the fare—$4.50. Upon returning this week the agent at Ashland charged me $5 for the same distance. What causes the difference in the charges? J. W. HURD.

CONTRACT LET.—The contract for furnishing the brick for the Court House building was this week awarded to Mr. Vaughn of Ashland. The contract price, delivered, is $8.12 per thousand. Work has already been commenced and the contractor promises to have them ready as soon as required.

RETURNED.—Henry Weydeman who has been absent on a ten month's visit to Europe and the Eastern States, came back in person this week to deny the report that he had been wrecked while crossing the Atlantic. He says he had a pleasant trip but is glad to get home. He came from San Francisco by way of Crescent City and speaks well of the new wagon road.

FINE HORSE.—M. Colwell this week purchased a fine young stallion from E. Grainger of Applegate paying a neat round sum. The horse was sired by White Prince and his grand dam was of the celebrated Pegasus stock of racers. Mr. Colwell will keep him at his livery stable here this season and it is conceded that he got a bargain when he purchased this horse.

CARP CULTURE.—Mrs. J. C. Tolman has embarked in the fish raising business. She has one German carp which represents an outlay of $32. Some time since she sent to Eugene for twenty dollars worth of carp, having a nice pond for their occupation, on the Judge's farm above Ashland. The expense on the fish amounted to $12 and only one of the whole lot survived the transportation. Thirty two dollars for one fish is a price which beats the charges for fancy chicken eggs. The one fish was doing well at last report, barring his "lonesomeness." Whether he will "increase and multiply" or not we leave to the future to determine.—"Tidings."

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. B. J. Sharp will preach at Phoenix next Sunday morning and at Ashland in the evening. On the following Sunday, April 29, he will preach the funeral sermon of Thomas Curry's child at the Antioch school-house, at 11 o'clock A. M. Elder M. BIBLICAL LECTURES.

The lectures delivered by the Rev. R. J. Sharp during the past week, though they have drawn fair audiences, have not received the attention which they deserved. The importance of the subjects discussed, and the broad, forcible, and effective manner in which they were presented, should have secured the attendance of every person desirous of mental improvement and moral elevation. The subjects embraced in these lectures comprised mainly, the relation of the Bible to science. The speaker sought to show that, instead of scientific researches overthrowing or undermining the teachings of Scripture, they have uniformly resulted in producing additional evidences of their truth. The perfect harmony, he insisted, which exists between the results of scientific investigation and the revelations of the Bible is indisputable evidence of its inspiration. How well he succeeded in establishing the truth of the propositions which he presented, those only who heard him can judge. But whatever opinion one may hold on these subjects, or whatever one's impression of the arguments presented by Mr. Sharp may be, no one could listen to these lectures without being deeply impressed with the exceeding earnestness and enthusiasm of the speaker. Every atom of his nature is enlisted in his subject, and you cannot but feel, that a good, pure, earnest man is talking to you from the very depths of his inmost soul. No one could have listened to these lectures without having been made, to some extent at least, better and wiser, and everybody should have heard them. There is a class of people who delight to call themselves "Liberals" and yet who are unwilling to listen to anything which does not promise in advance to antagonize the Christian Religion. Such people are as much dwarfed and mentally cramped as is the religious bigot, whom they so strenuously oppose. Let all sides be fairly heard and impartially considered. No one knows or ever can know, all of the truth there is in this world; and no one, who desires to move onward and upward with the current of mental and moral progression, can afford to lose an opportunity to add to his information or develop his moral nature. It is unfortunate that these lectures were not more widely advertised. They should have been delivered in Holt's Hall and should, and no doubt would, have been heard by large audiences. It is to be hoped that Mr. Sharp may be prevailed upon to repeat these lectures or a part of them at least, and that this hall may be placed at his disposal.

RAILROAD ITEMS.

The railroad company expect to make Julia their southern terminus about May 1st, where close connection will be made with the overland stages. The time between Julia and Redding will then be made in forty-two hours.

Gen. Cadwalader informs the Red Bluff "Cause" that there are about 1,000 men employed in the various branches of railroad work on the extension north of Redding. The force will be increased in a few days to 2,000 men of whom will be employed in grading. Track laying will commence in a few days and the work will be pushed ahead as fast as the graders get out of the way. In this way all the material, men, tools and supplies will be forwarded to the front.

We received a pleasant call this week from S. L. Dolson, the genial chief of the railroad surveying party now working in the valley, who informed us that the road was definitely located to Chavner's bridge, where it will cross Rogue River. The party is camped at the latter place and the work of surveying through the valley is now progressing. The road will run on the south side of Rogue river from where it crosses that stream and in passing through the valley will miss Jacksonville between three and four miles. The route has not been definitely decided upon as yet, however, and it is possible that some changes may be made before the work of locating commences.

A Redding correspondent of the Etna "Post" says the Chinese are strong out for half a mile, all at work sinking holes about three feet square, on the surveyed line of the road. These holes are sunk wherever cuts or grading is necessary, a distance of six to ten feet apart, and whatever depth required; a box of giant powder, 50 pounds, is put in each, and the ground is loosened by the explosion more effectively and much faster and cheaper than by picks. This force of men are from the Mojave branch of the Southern Pacific, and more are expected until the working force is at least 3,000 men. Material of all kinds is arriving daily. Probably the above statement of 50 pounds of giant powder, six or ten feet apart, may not be an exaggeration, but it looks to us like it.—"Journal."

SCHMIDTLING.—At Dayton, W. T., April 10, 1883, to Mr. and Mrs. Augustine Schmidling, a daughter.

MUCHLY MARRIED.—A correspondent from Grant's Pass sends us the following: That young and bashful youth, Finley Knapp, who was in your office about the first of February telegraphing here for the age of a certain widowed lady so as to procure license to marry her has proved to be a first class bigamist he having a young wife at this time living in Phoenix, and only separated from her a few weeks. He even went and visited her while up after his license. The above facts reached his second wife here after a week or two of married bliss, and there was a family scene, and it terminated by Finley Knapp leaving between two days. He was last seen in Canyonville traveling north in great haste, probably on his way to Grand Ronde valley in Eastern Oregon—the home of his parents—where no doubt this young and ardent lover will try and win another wife. Eastern Oregon papers should advertise him to save the innocent and unsuspecting from falling victims to this muchly married youth.

FOR SALE.—Contemplating removal from Jacksonville, L. Solomon offers his residence on California St., an excellent piece of property, for sale cheap; also a good assortment of household and kitchen furniture. Give him an early call.

REPORTS OF GOVERNMENT CHEMISTS

As to Purity and Wholesomeness of the Royal Baking Powder. "I have tested a package of Royal Baking Powder, which I purchased by the open market, and find it composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder of a high degree of merit, and does not contain either alum or phosphates, or other injurious substances." "E. G. LOVE, Ph.D."

"June 23, 1882.—We have made a careful analytical test of Royal Baking Powder, purchased by ourselves in the open market here, and in the original package. We find it to be a cream of tartar powder of the highest degree of strength, containing nothing but pure, wholesome, and useful ingredients." "JUAN H. WRIGHT, M.D., Analytical Chemist, St. Louis."

"The Royal Baking Powder received the highest award over all competitors at the Vienna World's Exposition, 1873; at the Centennial, Philadelphia, 1876; at the American Institute, and at State Fairs throughout the country."

No other article of human food has ever received such high, emphatic, and universal endorsement from eminent chemists, physicians, scientists, and Boards of Health all over the world."

NOTE.—The above DIAGRAM illustrates the comparative worth of various Baking Powders, as shown by Chemical Analysis and experiments made by Prof. Scheidler. A one pound can of each powder was taken, the total leavening power or volume in each can calculated, the result being as indicated. This practical test for worth by Prof. Scheidler only proves what every observant consumer of the Royal Baking Powder knows by practical experience, that while it costs a few cents per pound more than the ordinary kinds, it is far more economical, and, besides, affords the advantage of better work. A single trial of the Royal Baking Powder will convince any fair minded person of these facts.

While the diagram shows some of the alum powders to be of a higher degree of strength than other powders ranked below them, it is not to be taken as indicating that they have any value. All alum powders, no matter how high their strength, are to be avoided as dangerous."
