

NOTICE.

Land Office at Roseburg, Ore., June 30, 1880. To all whom it may concern: Notice is hereby given that I have designated the OREGON SENTINEL as the paper in which I shall hereafter publish all pre-emptions, homestead and applications for mining patents for lands lying near Jacksonville, Jackson county, Oregon.

THE WYMAN.—The Wyman comedy company will be here again on the 17th, 18th and 19th of this month when they will present some new plays. Their reputation insures them good houses.

CAVALRY HORSES WANTED.—There is a board of officers now in session at Fort Klamath, Or., and will continue in session for some time to purchase fifteen cavalry horses from fifteen to sixteen hands high and from five to nine years old, well broken and sound. They must be geldings of hardy color.

RED MEN'S BALL.—This party takes place at the hall on Friday next and every arrangement has been completed to make it a success, as it always is the case when this society gives a party. Everybody is invited when all who attend are assured of a good time while the lucky ones will profit by the prizes offered.

DOWELL'S HARVEST.—The Applegate property was sold Thursday, 26th, by Wm. B. Gilbert, as was advertised. B. F. Dowell being the highest bidder, the property was sold to him. The price paid was $7,400, and it is thought quite a bargain at that. This ends a long and complicated suit. Dowell now smiles the smile of the victor, after wearing a troubled look for many long months.—"Paindealer."

GOVERNMENT CONTRACTS.—By yesterday's mail we heard of the following contracts were awarded for supplies at Fort Klamath: Worden & Beach get the wood contract at $2.95 and reservation by at $5.50. Smalley gets 374,000 pounds hay and straw at 12.27. Chas. S. Moore gets 60,000 pounds oats at $3.93. John H. Miller gets 50,000 pounds oats at $3.94, 50,000 pounds oats at $4.12 and 50,000 pounds barley at $3.95. Capt. Ferres gets 100,000 pounds oats at $4.47 and 20,000 pounds bran at $3.50. Dual Crane-miller gets the beef contract at $10.93.

ANOTHER MURDER.—Intelligence reached town yesterday that Wm. Nagle's store near Grave creek was burned to the ground on Thursday night, proving a total loss, and that Mr. Nagle's charred remains were found in the ruins. The general belief of the community around there is that Nagle was murdered for his money, he always having more or less on hand, and that the guilty parties then set fire to his house so as to destroy all traces of the murder. He was one of the pioneers in this section, aged about sixty years and well liked by all who knew him. His many friends will be grieved to hear of the tragic end of Uncle Billy.

INCEST.—James K. Polk Brown was this week arrested at Ashland on a charge of incest with his oldest daughter, aged about seventeen years, and bound over to appear before the grand jury in the sum of $1,000 bonds. The preliminary examination was held before justice Root of Ashland last Wednesday, with closed doors, the evidence of his two daughters being of such character that it was thought best to make it as private as possible. This unnatural intimacy is said to have commenced some four years ago and was discovered after being arrested for beating another daughter for denying him the same privileges. Brown is a widower, his wife having died about one year ago, and is now in the county jail awaiting his trial. Residents of Ashland who were down here yesterday say that he could not have secured bail at that place had the sum been fixed at $20. This county will get a reputation yet.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.—The following deeds were recorded in the Clerks office up to the time of going to press: James H. Beck to Aaron Beck, the equal undivided one half 160 acres S. 34, T. 36, R. 1 west. Consideration $1,000.

Bond for deed.—W. J. Savage and wife and G. M. Savage and wife to Jonathan Bourne, Jr., 185 acres in Grants Pass precinct. Consideration $7,400.

Bond for deed.—J. P. Tuffs and wife to Jonathan Bourne, Jr., 420 acres in Grants Pass precinct. Consideration, $15,000.

BITTER BREAD.

Complaint is frequently made by those who use baking powders that they leave in bread, biscuit, or cake, raised by them a disagreeable, bitter taste. This taste follows the use of all impure baking powders, and is caused either by their containing alum (introduced to make a cheap article), by the impure and adulterated character of other ingredients used, or from the ignorance of their manufacturers of the proper methods of combining them. These baking powders leave in the bread a residuum formed of lime, earth, alum, or other deleterious matters, not always, though frequently, tastable in food, and by all the physicians classed as injurious to health. The Royal Baking Powder is free from this serious defect. In its use no residuum is left, and the loaf raised by it is always sweet, light and wholesome, and noticeably free from the peculiar taste complained of. The reason of this is because it is composed of nothing but absolutely pure materials, scientifically combined in exactly the proper proportions of acid alkali to act upon and destroy each other, while producing the largest amount of raising power. We are justified in this assertion from the unqualified statements made by the Government chemists, who after thorough and exhaustive tests recommended the "Royal" for Governmental use because of its superiority over all others in purity, strength and wholesomeness. There is no danger of bitter bread or biscuit where it alone is used.

THE CELEBRATION AT KERBYVILLE.

Kerbyville Lodge No. 55, I. O. O. F., celebrated the 64th anniversary of Oddfellowship in America, in a style well becoming the order, the grand principles represented, and the persons who compose its membership.

The day was bright and beautiful, the air balmy and refreshing, and all nature seemed to wear the smiles of welcome. The members of this lodge must have caught the spirit welcome, for in no other place have I ever witnessed such a stream of overflowing hospitality as was here shown to visitors by the members and friends of the lodge. The decorations on the streets and in the hall are especially deserving of praise. A large arch, spanning the street, richly and handsomely festooned, stood at the north end of the city. Surmounting this archway, on a back ground of pure white, was seen the words, "Welcome," and just beneath it the words Kerbyville Lodge No. 55, I. O. O. F. The lettering on each of these mottos was handsomely wrought with the twigs and leaves of evergreen. At the south end of the city and just opposite Ryder's hotel stood a similar arch, more elaborate than the one at the north.

The motto surmounting this archway were, "Friendship Love and Truth," Friendship occupying the center of the arch, Love the left hand and Truth the right. On the front of the hall hung a long wreath of evergreen, looped up into fancy arches, supporting the three links of the fraternity, which were also made of evergreens. Across the hall about midway hung an endless chain of evergreens, entwined in fanciful shapes, supporting three links which were finely wrought with our national colors. Over the speakers stand, fronting the main entrance to the hall hung the motto, "welcome." The lettering of all these mottos was done by sewing the leaves of laurel and myrtle on white cloth, and embroidering them with a circle of evergreen. Great care was taken not to cover all the white of the back ground, so that it might shine through and blend nicely with the leaves forming the letters. This artistic taste and skill gave the mottos the appearance of tortoise shell work. Mr. F. M. Nickerson and Mrs. Krue, who were the leading architects and other ladies and gentlemen who so generously done their part are justly deserving the praise of all, and the most grateful thanks of every Odd Fellow. I have seen decorations more costly, but never any more beautiful or appropriately becoming the grand truths and ideas which they were intended to symbolize. The procession led by the Jacksonville Cornet Band was in full harmony with the decorations. The literary exercises and the Oration by Prof. A. L. Johnson, received the praise of all who had the pleasure of hearing them. A grand ball, attended by the elite of the city, capped the festivities of the day.

The supper prepared by Mrs. M. M. Hansen, received, as both justly deserved, the unqualified praise of all, who partook of the bountiful supply of good things. Taken altogether the celebration was a grand success; and will ever reflect credit upon the members of Kerbyville lodge, whose heart like their tables are always full of good things. A VISITOR.

DIED.

STINSON.—In Eden precinct, April 26th, infant son of Wm. Stinson; aged about six months.

WILLIAMS.—On Applegate, April 28th, Mrs. Asbury Williams; aged about 35 years.

GANIARD.—In Sam's Valley April 17, of diphtheria, Freddie, oldest son of Oscar and Lucinda Ganiard, aged 16 years, 6 months, and 13 days.

The hand of death may rend asunder our dearest earthly ties. The destroyer enters our family circles, and lays his cold hand on our brightest and best;—the life and light of our homes. Fall of the energy of youth and opening manhood, our dear friend, son and brother, has been called away. His parents and only sister and kind friends followed him to his last resting place, where, "with bursting hearts we laid him down, his brothers tomb beside." Freddie was a dutiful son, and his kind and amiable manners made for him friends of all his acquaintances. His near relations are not his only mourners.

We feel his loss deeply; we mourn, "but not as those who have no hope." In his last hours he gave undoubted evidence of a living faith of the Lord Jesus Christ. He has passed from earthly scenes away; but in the resurrection of the just, we hope to meet and sing with him and all the host of the redeemed. "O death where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?" C. B. F.

My brother with whom I've took delight, Is from our household torn, Forever he's banished from our sight, And we all are left to mourn.

Death's keen arrow has pierced his heart, He's borne upon his pious art, In vain was human skill or art, No mortal arm could save.

No more we'll see his smiling face, Nor hear his lovely voice, Which oft has cheered our swelling place, And made us all rejoice.

We soon shall meet in realm's above, Our griefs will then be o'er, There we'll unite in endless love, Nor part forever more. LOTTIE.
