LOCAL ITEMS.

Rain is needed. Look out for fires during this hot weather. Thermometer 102 in the shade last Thursday.

Byers & Guerra fired their second kiln of brick this week. Wm. Bybee, Jr., returned from Eastern Oregon this week.

Mrs. James Flood of Portland is here on a visit to relatives. A case of crim con agitates the minds of the Butte creekers.

Louie Tucker will take charge of the Soda Spring Hotel next spring. Three Farms for sale. E.quire of T. C. Reames, Jacksonville, Oregon.

Some very nice lady's goods at Mrs. Dowell's. Call and examine them. At Mrs. Dowell's a few dozen suits for boys. Warranted for fit and durability.

Barnum Fisher has a superior stock of goods and sells at small living profits. A case of diphtheria is reported in town. Good care should be taken to prevent its spread.

Dick Kippel accompanied by his cousin, Miss Allie Kippel, went to Portland this week. The telegraph office at Grave Creek has been discontinued and a new office opened at Wolf creek.

The next on the programme is the Old Fellow's celebration on August 1th. Everybody is invited. A. D. Rockefeller & Co., Attorneys and Counsellors at Law and Real Estate Agents, Ashland, Oregon.

A. P. Hotaling, the well known liquor dealer, passed through town this week on his way northward. A portion of a gold cuff button was lost in town this week. The finder will confer a favor by returning to this office.

Have you seen those stylish hats, trimmed at Mrs. J. S. Howard's fashionable millinery establishment, and so cheap?

L. I. Savage accompanied Dr. Taylor to Crescent City on Thursday's stage where he goes to practice dentistry.

The Board of Trustees have appointed J. H. Huff City Recorder in place of L. R. Webster, who resigned the office.

The grape crop will not be as large this year as appearances first indicated. The fruit crop will be light all over the county.

Milo Caton, David Cronmiller, Wm. Tyler and Jesse Simpson start for Cimarron tomorrow on a trip of recreation.

Rev. J. W. Stahl of the M. E. Church south, died at Roseburg June 29th aged 57 years. He was well known here.

Michael Chavner's team ran away this week, throwing him from the wagon, causing some severe but not serious injuries.

Montana beef steers, four and five years old, are commanding $60 each and upward, and the demand is much greater than the supply.

A good crowd was present at the ball at Hots Hall on the Fourth and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves. Forty-three tickets were sold.

The report that young McMahon's dead body was found near Pao-nix last week was a hoax and he still remains a fugitive for justice.

J. R. Webster started for San Francisco last Monday by way of Crescent City. His wife did not accompany him as we reported last week.

Chris Ulrich and J. M. Payne returned from Salem this week having safely delivered J. K. P. Brown to the authorities at the penitentiary.

The usual smoky weather is again at hand but the breeze this time is at the right of way near Grant's Pass.

The McDonough and Dean families returned from Crescent City this week and report it the best trip for a summer excursion they have yet found.

The Payne mare, formerly the property of W. S. Webb, was sold under attachment at Lunville Wednesday to satisfy a claim of Cogswell & Cogswell.

The city of Astoria indulged in a $250,000 fire on the 3d inst.—the principal users being the cannerymen and owners of property along the river front.

Wm. Bybee offers a large lot of desirable land for sale at low rates. Full particulars can be had by calling on the proprietor or A. L. Johnson, land agent.

The case of Hanley vs. Bartol, for trespass, was on trial in Justice Huff's court this week but a compromise was effected before a decision was reached.

A special term of Circuit Court will be held here commencing August 6th when the trial of the railroad cases will come up. A jury will be required at that time.

Division Agent Carl passed through this week on his way northward. Everything is running smoothly now notwithstanding the heavy mail that are going over the road.

Little & Chase have added a fine new show case to their establishment in which is displayed the finest and largest assortment of meerschaum goods ever brought to this county.

Wm. Griffin of Wilderville was in town this week. He has found a new quartz ledge in that vicinity recently which he thinks will pay well if the necessary machinery is put on.

If you want a Sewing Machine call at E. C. Brooks' drug, watch, clock, and jewelry store. His machines are a little finer and his prices a little steeper, than any other bugger's.

A new boarding house and barn has been built on the south side of the Sixkiyou tunnel by E. J. Curtis who is fully prepared to accommodate both man and beast. Call if you travel that way.

Alex Martin arrived from Oakland, Cal., one day this week on a visit of business and pleasure. He started for Lunville today, accompanied by Thos. G. Reames, to look after his interests there.

Rev. E. J. Sharp accompanied Rev. I. D. Driver on his visit to Klamath and Lake counties, and for that reason the Pastor will not be present to fill his appointment at the Methodist Church to-morrow.

Wm. Linn brought a load of ice from Ashland this week and he will continue furnishing his patrons with superior ice cream for a time yet. Call soon or you may get left as the ice supply is about gone.

S. Cohn will start for San Francisco in a few days. Those who have him are requested to call on Max Muller at once and make settlement—that gentleman having full power to give receipts for any amounts paid in.

Two of our local attorneys got into a war of words and finally blows were struck while trying a case in Justice Huff's court this week. The judge thought each one had about $15 worth of fun and both paid their fines.

The 4th of July celebration at Williams Creek was well attended and the oration of Rev. J. W. Craig is highly spoken of. The dance at Caldwell's hall was also a success, forty five tickets having been sold.

Installation of new officers for Oregonian Pioneers Tribe No. 1, I. O. R. M., will take place at their hall next Tuesday evening. The Workmen install on Friday, July 13th. A full attendance of brothers is requested in each instance.

Incendiarists attempted to burn the town of Roseburg last week but the fire was discovered and extinguished before any damage was done. The party arrested for the crime was discharged there not being enough evidence to convict.

A man named Goodwin was shot and killed by another named Clout at Lakeview on the 4th. Jealousy and horse racing was the cause of the trouble and our informant says that Clout was cleared at the preliminary examination held next day.

B. P. Cardwell, Deputy Collector for this district, is here on official business with the Rogue River Distillery, an officer being required to disconnect certain parts of the machinery and carry the keys of others when work is suspended for a time.

The following is the new time schedule for the San's valley mail route: San's Valley to Deskins, Leave San's Valley Fridays at 6 A. M. Arrive at Deskins by 6 P. M. Leave Deskins Sundays at 6 A. M. Arrive at San's Valley by 6 P. M.

Three wagons loaded for J. R. Roberts, Linkville, Or., says the Yreka Union, rolled off the grade between Afterthought mine and Furnessville recently. The wagons were broken and their loads strewn promiscuously around. The teams escaped uninjured.

Our town received a visit this week from Frank Pickett, who claims to be the last survivor of the once numerous tribe of Rogue River Indians. He is a quite lively and shows some emotion while reciting the history and decline of his race.

Sherman & Hinman's manhood Euro crew-trousers will pass through here in our time next September when they return to California. They are advertised to commence showing at Portland July 10th and will make a tour of the northern country before coming this way.

If no races had been held here on the Fourth of July the day would not have been celebrated here at all and as some races were run considerable dissatisfaction exists at the result and the way they were run. Taken all together it is more than likely that we had no celebration.

A break was made at the penitentiary at Salem last Thursday morning and fourteen of the convicts tried to make their escape from that institution. Four of the prisoners were shot and killed by the guards, two have since been recaptured and the other eight are still at large.

The Rogue River Distillery closed down last Wednesday and the work will not be resumed till after harvest. Something near 3,000 gallons of whiskey was made during their six week's run. George Love and John Hanley have bought the interests of several of the original stockholders and when the work again commences it will be conducted on a much larger scale.

Mr. Lytle, the distiller, will now commence the work of rectifying the liquor now on hand and some of it will be placed on the market before long.

THE FOURTH—The 107th anniversary of our national birthday was not publicly celebrated in Jacksonville this year, and only for the shooting of a few fire crackers by our rising generation on the day passed off about the same as any other day in the year.

Races were advertised to take place at the Cardwell track in the afternoon, where a considerable crowd collected, but like everything else, a complete fiasco was made in the races, and we were warranted in saying that the day was not celebrated in Jacksonville.

GOT SHOT—A salmon keeper at the north end of Cove Creek tunnel was shot by a Chinaman this week while he was in the act of robbing the salmon. Dr. Stricker was called and probed the wound which was in the neck and found that the bullet had gone through the bones of the neck and got into the marrow and dropped. Consequently he could not get it but Dr. seemed to be well satisfied of his recovery.

The tax sale of property offered by Sheriff Jacobs on Saturday last resulted as follows: Thos. Hopwoods property to G. M. Love, for $60, lots in Phoenix, to J. A. Gustin, $23; Hess property to K. K. Kibbi, $31; J. West's property to K. K. Kibbi, $31; H. H. Triplett's to J. A. Hanley, $15.

The two internal revenue districts of Oregon and Washington have been consolidated by an act of Congress and President Arthur has approved the same. J. C. Cartwright, present incumbent of the Oregon district, is retained as collector of the new district with B. P. Cardwell and A. H. Morgan as deputies.

Now goods at reduced prices at the cash store of S. S. Aiken & Co. They keep everything usually to be found in a general merchandise store, and their method of giving the best goods at low prices, and making exact change seems to have become popular here at last. Their new advertisement will be found in another column.

"Habit" is hard to overcome. If you take off the first letter it does not change a bit, if you take off another you have a "bit" left, if you take off another the whole of "it" remains, if you take off another it is not "it" totally used up. All of which goes to show that if you get rid of a "habit" you must throw it off altogether.

Officers elected for Victory Council No. 4: W. C. W. L. Bilger; L. C. Nettie Howard; H. F. R. Neil; S. L. L. Jacobs; T. S. Della Cardwell; F. Geo. Brown; W. Celia Brown. Installation ceremonies took place last evening after which an ice cream festival was indulged in by those present. The order is in a flourishing condition.

We received a pleasant call this week from Prof. M. G. Royal, Principal of the Ashland College and Normal School. This school has closed its first year under the present management and has given the best of satisfaction. The school will again reopen next September when even a larger attendance than last term is expected.

A class in telegraphy was organized here this week who will commence studies as soon as the instruments arrive. Lines will be run between the residences of students after they get further advanced so they can practice among themselves. Any others wishing to join the class should make application at this office immediately.

The celebration at Eagle Point was a success a large crowd attending. In the evening a ball was held at Mart Hurst's where sixty-six tickets were sold. A party was also given at Paul's Hall at Eagle Point where sixty numbers were taken. Charles Posten delivered an excellent oration and Dr. Geary read the declaration of independence, after which a picnic dinner was indulged in by all present.

D. M. Osborne & Co. have rented Sample Rooms for in Jacksonville a gentleman will sell movers at $100 each delivered Jacksonville free of freight and will keep on hand a full line of extras and repairs for the movers and harnessing machinery and will sell smooth and serrated edge sections at 15 cents each for the season of 1883.

A. USTICK, Agt. for Southern Oregon. The jury in the case of the State vs. Cannon, charged with assault with intent to kill State Senator Voorhes, came in a court at Salem last Friday morning and stated that they were unable to agree upon a verdict and were discharged. They were out almost twenty four hours and stood eight for conviction and four for acquittal. The case will have to be tried over and efforts will be made to have it carried over until the next term of court.

Yreka has more fat men than any other town of equal size in the country. When there is a public procession they should go in gangs, the better to illustrate the obesity and healthfulness of an incomparable climate.—Yreka Union.

Not so fast Mr. Union. We can show as many fat men as you can and we will let our office towel that they can beat yours playing base ball. If you don't believe it send them over and we'll try them a rattle.

The Board of Trustees met last Thursday evening David Cronmiller and Recorder Webster absent. Call on & Grant were granted license to sell spirituous liquors in the town of Jacksonville for the next six months. A committee, consisting of David Lion, Henry Judge and Will Jackson, was appointed to examine into certain water rights and also to make an estimate of the cost of four cisterns, the dimensions of which are to be eight feet in diameter and twelve feet deep, to reject at the regular meeting next month.

THE ASHLAND COLLEGE AND NORMAL SCHOOL, Ashland, Or. Four courses of study. Normal and Commercial College, Preparatory and Instrumental music. For particulars or catalogue apply to the undersigned at Ashland, Oregon. M. G. ROYAL, A. M., President.

PILOT ROCK HOUSE, SISKIYOU MOUNTAIN, E. J. Curtis, Proprietor. Having fitted up a comfortable and commodious house on the south side of the Siskiyou mountain, I am prepared to furnish the best accommodations for man and beast at reasonable rates. A good lunch has been cut to the proposed tunnel, only a short distance off. I mean to give satisfaction and therefore invite everybody to give me a call. E. J. CURTIS, Pilot Rock, July 7, 1883.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Valuable Land For Sale. The undersigned offers 2,000 acres of valuable land for sale. Land situated on Antelope creek, eighteen miles from Jacksonville. Will be sold in a body for $10 per acre or in 100 or 200 acre lots at from $15 to $20 per acre. For particulars, address or call on A. L. Johnson, Land Agent, or Wm. BYBEE, Jacksonville, Or.

I. O. O. F. Anniversary Celebration. JACKSONVILLE LODGE NO. 10, AUGUST 17, 1883. ORDER OF EXERCISES: The Lodge in full regalia, accompanied by the visiting brothers, will leave their hall at two o'clock p. m. and proceed to Holt's Hall where the following exercises will be held:

1. Music by the Jacksonville Brass Band. 2. Singing of the opening ode by the Lodge. 3. Prayer by the Chaplain. 4. Song by the Choir. 5. Reading of Dispensation by the Secretary. 6. Music. 7. Oration. 8. Music. 9. Closing Ode by the Lodge. Grand Ball will be held at Holt's Hall in the evening under the auspices of the Lodge.

Committee of Arrangements.—Frank Krause, Henry Kippel, K. Kubli, S. J. Day and John A. Boyer. Committee of Reception.—W. J. Plympton, John Holt, Abram Bish, R. A. Cook, Dr. J. W. Robinson, H. v. Heims, N. Fisher.

Floor Managers.—Wm. L. Bilger, T. T. McKenzie and C. S. Savage. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend the celebration and Ball and a pleasant time will be assured. Tickets for the Ball, $2.50.

ATTENTION FARMERS!—The Doering twin self binding harvester at work in Cardwell's field cut 100 acres of grain in three days and did the work very well. G. Kowacki, the agent, has three of these machines in complete running order and is prepared to do custom work in any part of the valley on the shortest notice. This is an excellent opportunity for our farmers to have their grain cut promptly and at very reasonable rates.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.—The traveling public will take notice that the best stopping place for travelers and teamsters is at Chavner's bridge on Rogue River. An excellent meal can be had at any time at Ash Heald's who has just opened out in the Kowacki building this side of the Centennial bridge, while hay and grain and stable room can be had of Mr. Chavner at the bridge. Give them a trial and satisfaction is guaranteed.

REDUCTION IN PRICES.—John Miller, at the Hunter's Emporium, is selling hay forks for $1 each; shovels and shovels, $1.75; 2 indies, 6 1/2 cent per pound; and all other goods in his line 10 per cent less than ever before sold in Jacksonville. Remember that Mr. Miller's goods are of the best and he does just as he agrees to.

FOR SALE.—Contemplating removal from Jacksonville, L. Solomonoffers his residence on California, an excellent piece of property, for sale cheap; also a good assortment of household and kitchen furniture. Give him an early call.
