ANOTHER CHANGE -The interest of hogs. Wm. Turner in the OREGON SENTINEL has been purchased by Frank Krause who will conduct the paper alone from now on. We thank our patrons for the liberal support given us in the past and hope to merit a continuance of the same.

Good YIELD -Mr. Robert Cameron of Applegate, has cut three crops of alfaifa off a ten acre field this season the aggregate yield being seventy tons of hay. The value of alfalfa for fodder is so well known that it is a matter of surprise that there is not a larger acreage of it in this valley as it would enable many to go into the dairy busi ness which will always be profitable.

ACCIDENT .- Ab Giddings the popular stage driver through this place had a regions accident at Ashland this week by which he received numerous bruises and had one rib broken It occurred while he was standing on the wheel Y Veit Schutz was fined $3 and costs pulling the express box from the front boot when the team made a start throwing him to the ground. At last accounts ne was improving, but he will be laid up for some time.

TAKE NOTICE -Frank G. Abell, the well known Portland photographer, returned home on a visit this week but will be back again next Thursday when he will stay here another week taking pictures at Britt's gallery. He will then go to Ashland for a short time before returning home. Mr. Abell is one of the best artists on the coast and those wishing good pictures should call at one. Children's pic tures a specialty.

Bound Over. - Mellville, alias Den | week, ver, was brought here from Ruseburg this week by sheriff Jacobs to answer the charge of having robbed Riddle & Walter's saloen on the Siskiyous some time since and waiving examination he was bound over in the sum of $1,000 and now languishes in jail, the contract for keeping the county on the Siskiyou mountains—the one than the delay of getting them re-After he gets through with this trial he will probably have to answer for a week. small piece of stage robbery committed near Glendale not long since,

FIREMAN'S JUBILEE -The housing of the new fire engine will be the next jubilee in Jacksonville and judging from preparations now being made the event will not be soon forgotten. The brass band of Yreka has been engaged to furnish music for the occasion and the celebration some time this month, J. R. Little, D. W. Crosby, and J. G. DECISION REACHED.-B. F. Dowell has news from Washington that the following-named pre-emption or homestead claims have each been decided in in town this week from Ashland. favor of the claimants and against the State of Oregon and the swamp land grabbers, namely; W. F. Arant, Hen ry Conn, George McDonald, Simpson made and new machinery put in. Wilson, Richard Huchinson, New, S. Goodlee, Syvert Nelson, Frank Heff ling. These decisions were all made on the 11th & 12 h of July last. On the 7th of Aug. 1883, John Mullen, Attorney for the State and the swamp land grabbers swore for a re-hearing which motion is still pending.

SERIOUS FIRE. - About 2 o'clock on Thursday morning A. Davison's separator and two stacks of wheat belonging to P. N. Fi-ke were entirely destroyed by fice. The threshers had been at work on the stacks on Wed nesday and at 9 P. M. everything appeared quite safe, but about 1:30 A. M. Thursday, two gentlemen returning from Ashland discovered a blaze and gave the alarm. The fire evidently originated under the separator but when discovered it had spread to the stacks and was soon beyond control. The loss to Mr. Davison will not be less than $1,000 and Mr. Ficke is loser about $500. The fire is thought to be the work of an incendiary and, if he could be detected our advice would be to string him up to the first convenient limb. The loss falls heavily on both en neither of whom is able to
