ANOTHER SHOOTING SCRAPE.—Sher iff Purdont, of Douglas county, learning that the murderer, Thompson, who killed Pete Maloney at Grant's Pass, on Monday of last week, had entered his county and was secreted near Glen dale, he went out and traced the man some ten or twelve miles from the latter place, and found him at an old mine. The party was already a fugi tive from justice in Douglas county, and boasted that he could or would not be taken, and he always was prepared to resist any one who might attempt his arrest. When the sheriff called upon him to currender, he immediately reported began drawing his arms, when Mr. stomach Purdom fired, the bullet passing recovery. through Thompson's body, ki'ling him instantly. The body was brought to Stevens' Station, and an inquest held. He was a hard case, and his taking off is not inconsistent with his life.

THE JUSTUS CASE. - This celebrated trial came to an end last Sunday morn ing when the jury came in with a verdiet of murder in the second degree, after having been out since six o'clock the night before. The first ballot is said to have been ten for conviction of murder in the first degree and two for manslaughter, when a compromise verin the second degree. On Tuesday afternoon the motion for a new trial J. S. Howard's. was argued before Judge Hanna on the ground of improper conduct on the part of one of the jurors, which was over-ruled, and the defendant received the usual sentence-imprisonment in the penicentiary for life. The prisoner took his sentence as cooly as before when he was sentenced to be hung and asid he had nothing to say when asked By the Court before sentence was passed.
