

"Lost in Wall Street."

He was Treasurer of a county in Indiana. The other night about 9 o'clock he made a call at the house of an honest old farmer, who was on his bond for $10,000, and after the first greetings were over he began:

"Mr. Thomas, I have some bad news for you."

"Great Scott! but are any of my relations over in Indianapolis dead?"

"I don't know about that; but you remember that you signed my bond?"

"Yes, I did."

"I am sorry to inform you that I am $14,000 short in my account."

"No!"

"Alas! it is true."

"And where did the money go?"

"Lost in Wall street."

"Oh! that's it. Well, I wouldn't worry over that. My son Bill will take the lantern and go back to town with you, and if you'll show him Wall street he'll find the money if it takes him all night. Probably lost it out of a hole in your pocket, eh?"

Mr. G. B. Van Riper had quite a serious accident one day last week.

He was driving the stage between Linkville and Bonanza, while coming through Pine flat the horses became frightened and ran away, throwing

"Van" off the backboard and bruising him up very badly about the head and shoulders. Jerry Martin, of the firm of Roames, Martin & Co., of Linkville, who was a passenger, was also thrown and injured slightly. Mr. Van Riper succeeded in stopping the horses by hanging to the lines, but not till after the backboard was pretty thoroughly demolished.—"Examiner."

Gov. Chadwick and party visited the Bronze Copper mines in Josephine county recently with a view to start up again the works there. What the plan of operations proposed by said party is, is not made public as yet, but the inspection of the mine with a view to open it up, show an interest which still lives, while for several years the mine has been unwrought.

The Bronze mine was at one time in the hands of a San Francisco company which ran a part of two years.

Some great thinker once said "Don't commence to write an article for publication until you are full of your subject." An editor who intended to write an article on "beer" remembered this advice, and got so full of his subject that he couldn't sit on his chair, much less write the article.

Republican Platform.

WHEREAS, The Republican party has for a quarter of a century had the political thought of the nation, and

WHEREAS, This great party has succeeded by being aggressive and fearless in support of right, we, the Republicans of Oregon in convention assembled, mindful of the glories which cluster around its past history, renew our pledges of fidelity to the doctrines which have repeatedly received the endorsement of the people, and do make and affirm the following declaration of our political principles:

1. That we favor honest, efficient and economical administration of every department of government.

2. That we favor equal protection of the rights of labor and capital.

3. That we regard the free school system of our state as the special care and pride of the Republican party.

4. To the important and rapidly increasing manufacturing and wool growing interests of Oregon we favor the protecting care of the general government equal in extent to the importance of these industries.

5. That we reaffirm the past policy of the Republican party to foster and encourage railroad-building in all parts of our state; and at the same time we hold all corporations to be strictly responsible for their liabilities under the law, and insist on the right and duty of the legislature, both state and national, to enact all reasonable limitations upon corporate powers.

6. That by the generous policy of the Republican party in congress, liberal appropriations have been made to various portions of our state, and we favor a continuation of that policy for the further development and relief of the country, and demand prompt and liberal appropriations for the improvement of the bar of the Columbia river; as so for the entrance to all harbors and bays of our coast; also for the improvement of all our navigable rivers, including the building of necessary locks, to the end that our rivers may be made public highways untrammeled by tolls and unnecessary delay.

7. That all unearned grants to railroads and wagon roads in this state should be forfeited and opened to settlement by those entitled to the benefit of the land laws of the United States.

8. That the laws of Oregon providing for assessment and collecting revenue, including the "mortgage tax law," should be amended so as to insure an equal share just distribution of taxation upon all property real and personal in the state.

9. That we demand of the next session of the legislative assembly of the state the passage of a more just and efficient mechanics' lien law.

10. We renew our declarations in favor of restricting Chinese immigration to this country and demand such additional legislation by congress as is necessary to effectively prevent any evasion of the laws now in force on that subject.

11. That we favor the enactment of a good and sufficient registry law, to the end that illegal voting may be prevented.

12. That the Republicans of Oregon approve all legislation which tends to promote fidelity and efficiency in the civil service of the country, and we declare the Republican party pledged to civil service reform.

13. That the convention cordially indorses the administration of President Arthur, whose broad statesmanship and good judgment in the details of administrative duty have won for him the approval of the entire country.
