We owe an apology to our readers this week for the scarcity of local news but as county elections are only held once every two years we hope our patrons will excuse us. Only one more issue of the SENTINEL remains before the close of the campaign and after that we will try and chronicle all the news of the county.

When Mr. Jacobs gets through explaining his bad faith to Charles Prim and that gentleman's friends, in regard to his promise of the deputyship in the event of his election, and how he failed and utterly refused to keep his promise after the election—he can then explain his conduct towards Mr. Jackson; and tell how he repeatedly promised that if elected once he would be satisfied and do all he could to assist Jackson two years hence; and how he repeatedly since that time and at Mr. Jackson's own house but a short time since assured him that he was not and would not be a candidate and that he would assist him all he could.

And it would not be out of place after making public all these broken pledges, for him to tell the truth once and say that he has been systematically fixing up the precincts ever since his election, and in the face of his declarations to Jackson to secure his re-nomination.

This will be an unfortunate campaign for Mr. Jacobs and before it is over it will not only be made plain to the public that he is unfit and incompetent for the office but that he is morally unworthy of any office.

That Brief.

As an electioneering document a brief purporting to come from Hon. George H. Williams and B. F. Dowell, in the celebrated Kelly-Ruble case, is being extensively circulated throughout the county with the hope of injuring Kelley. The subjoined letter explains itself and we publish it in full: Portland, Oregon, April 2, 1884.

J. H. HUFFER, Esq.—DEAR SIR: I have to say in answer to your kind letter of the 29th ult. that I am in no way responsible for the document entitled "Brief of Geo. H. Williams and B. F. Dowell, Attorneys for the State of Oregon and Wm. Ruble." It was prepared and my name affixed to it without my knowledge or consent. I enclose a copy of my brief in the case of Kelly vs. Ruble et al. which, as you will see, is confined exclusively to the questions of law and fact in that case, and it was not until after the argument and decision therein that the document in question made its appearance. Most of my brief is incorporated into that document, but I emphatically deny all responsibility for the personal attacks and reflections which it contains. I have not made or helped to make a brief in any contempt case before the Supreme Court. Very Truly Yours, GEO. H. WILLIAMS.

Judge I. R. Webster, the Republican candidate for Circuit Judge, is increasing in favor every day, and prominent men, irrespective of party, who believe in an honest and capable judiciary, are giving him unqualified endorsement and support. We are gratified to know that the opposition can in no wise stand from Judge Webster's standing as a man and that his qualifications for the position to which he was called by both parties on Judge Hanna's resignation have been fully tested. He is before the people of this district with a reputation that the most bitter partizan cannot cavil at, and will honor a position, in every sense non political, that should be held above party prejudice.

Everybody that has tried Ammen's Cough Syrup continues its use; he sides they tell their neighbors of it. We were in a drug store the other day when a customer asked for a bottle of Ammen's Cough Syrup, saying "I do not know anything about it myself, but my neighbor advised me to buy it for a cold, and tells me that the use of three bottles has entirely cured his cough of two years standing, in fact he says 'It is the best medicine in the world for coughs, colds and lung complaints,' and that a one dollar bottle did him more good than all the prescriptions he had from the doctors."

Of the now famous Syrup of Figs as the most efficacious and agreeable preparation ever offered to the world as a cure for Habitual Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion and kindred ills, has been won by the wise plan pursued by the California Fig Syrup Company. Knowing that any remedy truly beneficial in its effects on the system, and at the same time pleasant to the taste, will meet with a rapid sale, the Company, through its agents Merritt & Robinson Jacksonville, Vrooman & Miller Medford gives away sample bottle free of charge. Try it and judge for yourself. Large bottle fifty cents or one dollar.

May 19, 1884. The Republican convention met on the 17th at Wilderville and nominated a full county ticket of good material and one that we can recommend. With the exception of the candidate for Senator, it was unanimous, and by present indications I think we have a candidate for said office that will make himself known in the Senate for the welfare of our country, he being largely interested in the development of the material interests of our country, besides the business interests he holds in the North will add greatly to his influence, for a trite saying is "a friend at court" is worth many outside of it, for if he combines his influence with his well known business tact he will do for Southern Oregon what has never been done before for the facts are that we have not had part or branch in the affairs of the State except the privilege to vote and take such crumbs as the north in their condescension gave us, but by the disposition of Mr. Miller I opine that if elected he will make his power felt, and if he can have the cooperation of the balance of the southern delegation I think we will have success and then if just legislation is given us we will no more be at the mercy of the money country and climate will be appreciated as it deserves. Thornton, candidate for Representative, is too well known to need any commendation, and as to the balance of the ticket I think they have proved their ability and mean enough to trade or sell any of the candidates if he has been heretofore by several and when occasion requires I will make it look very black for them should they offer for any office. The ticket was nominated in good faith and now let us stand by it. X.

PEOPLE'S CONVENTION.

To the voters and tax payers of Jackson county: The undersigned call upon all who are in favor of the people expressing their choice independent of parties rings and politicians, to meet in Mass Convention at the Court House in Jacksonville, May 24, to nominate candidates for the county offices, who will rise above parties and faithfully represent the people, and while living at our hands will never betray our trust. John E. Ross, James B. Mills, John Watson, C. Mings, John R. Terry, M. Halsey, R. J. Cameron, John B. Wisley, Henry Voegeli, James Whitingham, W. G. Knighton, Harry Richardson, John Ashmead, Charles W. Knighton, R. Reineck, Levi Dawson, W. J. Stanley, O. H. Brooding, W. Harper, Silvester Saltmarsh. The above call has been signed by many others in all the precincts.

THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.—The convention of the unfettered placed the following ticket in the field last Saturday: Representative, J. R. Neil and Thos. F. Beall. County Judge, Ed. DePeat, of Ashland. County Commissioners, W. J. Rogers and C. H. Pickens of Sams valley. Sheriff, A. S. Jacobs, of Ashland. Clerk, Wm. H. Parker, of Butte creek. Assessor, J. G. Ashpole, of Butte Creek. Treasurer, N. Fisher, of Jacksonville. School Superintendent, Wm. L. Colvig of Rock Point. Surveyor, E. J. Jeffrey, of Ashland. Auditor, Dr. J. E. J. of Ashland. Justice of the Peace for Jacksonville precinct, E. D. Foudray. Constable, D. W. Crook.

Habitual Constipation. Is a prolific source of misery and many ills, giving rise to Headache, Dullness, Fevers, Nervousness, Restlessness, Biliousness, Indigestion, Poisoning of the blood, etc. The bitter, nauseous Liver medicines, pills, salts and draughts formerly used to relieve the sufferer, only aggravate the disease and sicken the stomach. All who are afflicted in that way, know the importance of a remedy pleasant to the palate, harmless in its nature, and truly beneficial in its action. The trial bottles of Syrup of Figs given away free of charge by our enterprising druggists, Merritt & Robinson, Jacksonville, and Vrooman & Miller, Medford, prove that it is all that can be desired. Large bottles at fifty cents or one dollar.
