

OREGON SENTINEL.

JACKSONVILLE: SATURDAY, JUNE 7, 1884.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President, James G. Blaine, of Maine. For Vice President, John A. Logan, of Illinois. Nominees for Presidential Electors, D. P. THOMPSON, of Multnomah, WARREN TRUITT, of Polk, J. C. LEASURE, of Umatilla.

Our Next President.

Hon. James G. Blaine of Maine, the Republican nominee for President of the United States is the special favorite of the Pacific coast states, having made himself so popular with our people by his advocacy of the Chinese restriction bill and several other measures that were favorable to the Pacific slope.

James G. Blaine was born in Washington county, Pennsylvania, January 31, 1830; graduated at Washington College, Pennsylvania; adopted the editorial profession, and went to Maine, where he edited "The Portland Advertiser" and "The Kennebec Journal"; was a member of the Maine Legislature in 1859, 1860, 1861 and 1862, serving the last two years as Speaker of the House; was elected to the Thirty-eighth, Thirty-ninth, Fortieth, Forty-first, and Forty-second Congresses, and was re-elected to the Forty-third Congress as a Republican, receiving 15,084 votes against 11,516 votes for T. S. Lang, Liberal Republican. He was afterwards elected U. S. Senator from the State of Maine resigning his seat in 1881 to accept the position of Secretary of State under President Garfield. After the death of our late lamented President, Blaine resigned his position and retired to private life.

John A. Logan, of Chicago, the Republican nominee for Vice President, was born in Jackson County, Illinois, where he received a common school education, and subsequently graduated at the Louisville University; enlisted as private in the Illinois volunteers and became quartermaster in the war with Mexico; was elected Clerk of the Jackson County Court in 1849; studied and practiced law; was elected to the Legislature of Illinois in 1852, 1853, 1856, and 1857; was prosecuting attorney from 1853 to 1857; was a Presidential Elector in 1856; was elected to the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh Congresses; resigned and entered the Union Army as colonel and reached the rank of major-general in the war for the suppression of the rebellion; was appointed Minister to Mexico in 1865, but declined; was elected to the Fortieth and Forty-first Congresses; and was elected to the United States Senate as a Republican, to succeed Richard Yates, Republican, and took his seat March 4, 1871.

This election revives the important question again as to whether or not the party was made for Mr. Neil or Mr. Neil for the party. The party was evidently not made for him because it repudiated him; and it could not be said that he was made for the party because it spewed him out. And the way the thing stands now it don't make any difference whether a Douglas county sheep is a "female ewe" or a "male buck." Get thee to a "shot tower" Jesus where you can descend and evolve into some kind of political shape.

We have not had time this week to show the utter falsity of the charges made by the "Times" in regard to the influence of the ring in the defeat of Neil and Cogswell. The returns will show that where Nickell had the most influence Mr. Cogswell was the worst beaten. There was no money in Mr. Cogswell's election; and the "Times," never, at any time, gave him more than a half hearted support. If Mr. Cogswell had been running for an office in which there was patronage, the "Times" would have been red hot after him.

By a private letter received from our friend Robt. A. Miller, of Portland, we learn he has discontinued the publication of the "Hesperian." Mr. Miller is a fine writer and this change is a great loss to the literary community. His name has been mentioned here in connection with the new Democratic paper that is expected to be started soon and we will be glad to welcome Robert to contemporary journalism notwithstanding he represents the wrong party.

SOME VICTORY!

BINGER HERMANN'S MAJORITY OVER 2,000.

LEGISLATURE REPUBLICAN ON JOINT BALLOT BY 12.

L. R. WEBSTER CARRIES THIS DISTRICT FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE BY ABOUT 300 MAJORITY.

Theo. Cameron elected Representative from the Democratic County of Jackson.

The result of the election for State and county officers resulted in a victory and defeat for both political parties, the Democrats electing their county ticket with the exception of J. R. Neil for Representative, and the Republicans elect the State ticket and the District Judge. The Legislature is also Republican on joint ballot by a majority of 12, insuring a Republican successor to Senator Slater.

The Chicago Convention.

Through the liberality of the Western Union Telegraph Co. the public has been favored with the bulletins from the Republican convention now being held at Chicago and the latest are published below to show how it is working.

CHICAGO, June 5 h, 9 A. M.—Times says belief stronger than ever that neither Blaine nor Arthur can be nominated—says Blaine men offered Logan vice-Presidency to combine forces—offer was refused—further says Arthur practically out of the race unless failure of independent movement brings Edmunds and Hawley to him. Logan men claim Arthur's Southern vote after first ballot. While Edmunds men expect his vote in the fall. If transferred Sherman also claims strong help from Arthur's forces. Inter Ocean says Arthur ranks stand firmly and grow steadily. Tribune says that seven of the Mahone Virginia delegation which committee on credentials has decided to admit in convention, will vote for Blaine. Says a conference of Arthur and Edmunds men last night to secure enough votes to put Arthur ahead of Blaine on first ballot failed.

CHICAGO 5th, 9:20 P. M.—Nominations for President were declared in order when West placed the name of Hon. James G. Blaine before the convention. In his speech he said Blaine could be elected with or without New York. Davis of California seconded the nomination saying that he was not from one State but his influence extended from Maine to Oregon. Nomination was also seconded by Platt of New York. Goodlove of Kentucky and Grow of Massachusetts each making stirring speeches for Blaine.

9:22 P. M. Audiences have pulled down banners from walls of hall waving them amidst deafening cheers. All the other nominations were made that night when the convention adjourned till morning to commence balloting.

CHICAGO, June 6.—First ballot: Blaine, 349; Arthur, 276; Edmunds, 85; Logan, 61; Sherman, 18; General Sherman, 21; Hawley, 13; Lincoln, 4. On the third ballot Blaine received 414 votes and was declared the nominee. After adjournment Genl. John A. Logan was nominated for Vice President.

The "Times" says the reason Mr. Neil was defeated was because he was running for a political office. We are, of course, to infer from this remark that had he run for a moneyed office Mr. Nickell would have employed the same tactics to secure his election that he did to secure that of Mr. Jacobs. Don't give yourself away Mr. Nickell, everybody fully understands the motive which prompted your fight on Sheriff. You would have made the same fight for Neil, if there had been any money in it.

The "Times" yells "little Josephine has done nobly!" So it has—elected every county officer who has any patronage from the "Times" and lost a State Senator right in the face of a Senatorial election. The nobility of anything is measured by "Nickell" by its value in dollars and cents to himself. This will give Democrats a pointer as to the kind of Democracy that inspires him.

The "Times" belittled before election that Cogswell was the equal of Webster in every particular. About eight hundred Democrats in the district differed with the wise editor.

Our Circuit Judge.

Judge Webster is elected by probably 300 majority and in a district so largely Democratic this is indeed flattering and the SENTINEL feels justly proud of this handsome endorsement of the Republican candidate for circuit judge, feeling that it has been instrumental in bringing about this result. We feel confident that in the important position of Judge of this district Judge Webster with his high standing as a gentleman, and his studious devotion to his profession, will more than meet the expectations of his warmest friends; and that he is destined to add additional lustre to the already brilliant record of our judiciary. That he was elected by both parties is also a gratifying evidence that party preference and political prejudice have ceased to enter into a contest for judicial position, and that with the voters of this district, integrity, purity, and capability, are the necessary qualifications. We feel duly grateful to our Democratic friends who have given Judge Webster such liberal support and have thereby evidenced a desire to perpetuate the purity of the judicial ermine worn so long and spotlessly by Judges Prim and Hanna, honorable representatives of the Democratic party. Judge Webster's private character and personal popularity have added largely to this result, he having 150 majority in this, his own precinct, and the SENTINEL is gratified that so worthy a citizen of our own town and so talented a representative of our party should have received such an unequivocal and gratifying endorsement of the people.

The Reason.

The woman suffrage amendment is badly beaten in Southern Oregon, particularly in Jackson county. It is also quite probable that the state has "sat down" severely on Mrs. Duniway's favorite proposition. This is eminently proper.—"Times."

When such unfair means were resorted to, to defeat the amendment as the "Times" was guilty of, it certainly has no cause to exult over the result. When the editor of the "Times" printed the Democratic ticket as put the amendment at the bottom of the county ticket and the word No after it in large letters, and when persons who were only entitled to vote the state ticket voted, of course the amendment was cut off. When the editor of the "Times" was trying to outwit a man and a Chinaman did he take the pains to explain the nature and the purpose of the amendment, or did he with his customary unfairness stick a ticket in their hands with his own narrow and bigoted No on it. Well may he stand in awe of woman's vote for hardly possible that women—fair minded and honorable, would even vote with a party that suffers such a festering barnacle to cling to it as the editor of the "Times." He stands repudiated by his own party—a word in the mouth of the friends that made his existence possible in the newspaper world—a general without a command—claiming a victory over a party that his own avarice and sycophancy helped to defeat. Well may the women of Oregon go down gladly to defeat rather than be taking on them selves the responsible duty of citizenship to risk becoming such as he.

The "Times" says in speaking of Mr. Webster "His Honor is proving an able and upright officer and the interests of the people are safe in his hands." Get up from your knees Nickell and don't insult a decent man by your mendacious presence. Cease to play the dirty craven. You have stooped and pandered to place and power until you are the veriest slave that ever cringed or cowered at his master's feet. Think of the contemptible and assassin like sting in last week's "Times," then read the insulting and insolent to dayism quoted above and say whether or not it would not compromise. His Honor to accept the vilest service from such a sneaking merial.

Hon. Thos. F. Beall, Democratic Representative elect, entertained a number of his friends on Thursday evening last in his usual sumptuous and hospitable style. The table was spread with the choicest delicacies and looked more like a wedding feast than a social repast. Strawberries and cream were conspicuous and abundant and each and all partook generously of the luxuries; meanwhile the conversation was animated, spicy and interesting. Supper over the guests departed wishing the honorable gentleman long life, success as a legislator and more good suppers and not so far between.

The "Times" says the "ring" as the old Democracy is styled by that patriotic paper, put up Cogswell to sacrifice him. It is passing strange that in Ashland precinct, where the so-called "ring" never pretended to make the slightest effort, Mr. Cogswell was beaten over two hundred votes; so the "Times" must give a better reason.

Correspondence.

WAGON SPRINGS, June 4, 1884. EDITOR SENTINEL:—Please grant us a small space in your columns in which to thank the voters of our precinct, for their noble action on the Amendment. We hope to discover the names of our friends, that we may know who to work for in the future, notwithstanding the vote was not quite a tie, we feel proud of it. If the Amendment has not carried this time, we hope and trust that before another campaign we will have another Democratic paper in this county. Just think of more than a score of Democratic Suffragists in this one precinct, while being denied one word on the affirmative side of a non-partisan question, they are treated to column after column on the other side, and while communications are held there week after week until after the election. The injustices would not be so bad, but the dishonesty of failing to return an article was requested to do so immediately, and it was "unavoidably crowded out" as was anticipated, especially as a stamp and envelope was furnished, that it might be no expense; that is what shakes one's confidence. The only object in asking a hearing for both sides in the "Times" was that a great many Democrats do not take either the SENTINEL or "Tidings." Therefore we would be glad to see another Democratic paper started. We hope the oft repeated lie that women don't want to vote, will be proven such before the year is out.

Yours Sincerely, SUPPRAIGST. Upon the reception of the news of the Plumed Knights nomination a salute of a hundred guns was fired here. Whatever may be the differences of Republicans in Jackson county on trivial matters they will unite as a man on the statesman who promises to make our flag respected wherever it floats throughout this wide world. His promise is the outgrowth of a sentiment that will echo from Maine to Oregon.

Advertisement for the Emperor Louis Napoleon cigarette. The Emperor Louis Napoleon smoked only the finest cigars the world could produce. Prof. Huxford says the Emperor's cigars were made specially for him in the name of the Emperor in the Golden Palace of St. Louis. This being a brand of smoking tobacco is made from the finest leaf and is absolutely pure, and has been tested by the Emperor's doctor, is also highly pure and is unquestionably the best tobacco ever offered. The Emperor's gifted daughter, Anna, in her sketch of Alfred Dreyfus, in Harper's Weekly, tells of her visit to the great port, and how she found the Emperor's cigars. The Emperor's cigars are made in the name of the Emperor, and are the best and purest made. All dealers have it. Some graze without the trademark of the Bull.

THINK OF IT NOW!

Although much is said about the importance of a blood-purifying medicine, it may be possible that the subject has never seriously attracted your attention. Think of it now! Almost every person has some form of scrofulous poison latent in his system. When this develops in Scrofulous Sores, Ulcers, or Eruptions, or in the form of the Rheumatism, or Organic Diseases, the suffering that ensues is terrible. Hence the gratitude of those who discover, as thousands yearly do, that

Ayer's Sarsaparilla will thoroughly eradicate this evil from the system. It is well enough said without any doubt without pure blood. Cleanse the AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER & CO., LOWELL, MASS. Sold by all Druggists; $1, six bottles for $5.

Osborne Machinery.

Interesting To Farmers.

Rock Point, Jackson Co., Or., Jan. 26th, 1884. D. M. Osborne & Co. Portland, Oregon: Gentlemen—I bought one of the Osborne No. 11 Twine-Binding Harvesters for the harvest of 1883, and I take pleasure in recommending it to all farmers, for it gives perfect satisfaction in cutting and elevating the grain, and in binding it. It is the "boss." The more I use it the better I like it. The expense of harvesting with the Osborne No. 11 is less than heading or reaping. Yours truly, G. W. LANCE.

ASHLAND, Or., Jan. 25, 1884. D. M. Osborne & Co. I bought one of your No. 8 Independent self-rake Reapers this last harvest. It did the best of work I ever saw done with any reaper. I cut some green oats hay, which was the heaviest work I ever saw done with a reaper. I raked off bunches that would weigh a hundred pounds. Yours, truly, BENNETT MILLION.

Osborne & Co., Portland Oregon, and allow time for a person to be sent to put it in order. If it cannot then be made to do good work, the defective part will be replaced or the machine shall immediately be returned to the agent from whom it was purchased, at his place of business, and the payment of money or notes returned. Keeping the machine during harvest, whether kept in use or not, without giving notice as above, shall be deemed conclusive evidence that the machine fills the warranty."
