

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President, James G. Blaine, of Maine. For Vice President, John A. Logan, of Illinois. Nominees for Presidential Electors, D. P. THOMPSON, of Multnomah, WARREN TRUITT, of Polk, J. C. LEASURE, of Umatilla.

Blaine and Logan.

Our nominees for President and Vice President are the unmistakable choice of the Republican party and everywhere from Maine to Oregon their nomination has been enthusiastically received. The Democratic party had hoped that the choice of the Chicago convention would have engendered sufficient sectional feeling to have given them a hope in the coming campaign but the harmonious deliberations of the convention and the hearty acquiescence in its decision has scattered their hopes to the winds. In this State there is an effort being made to antagonize the administration element by claiming that Arthur is the choice of the party but all such efforts will prove futile and they will find that the party everywhere will endorse the nominees of the convention. Notwithstanding our past success and the record of the Republican party, it behooves us to enter into this campaign with a determined and earnest effort. The long continued defeat of the opposition will render them more united, and every tactics that political demagogues can resort to, and every device, that it is possible to conceive, to divide and distract our party, will have to be met in the coming campaign. It will begin by a personal warfare on our Presidential candidates and personal attacks on our electors but let Republicans remember, no matter what personal prejudice they seek to create, that we are working in the interests of the Republican party, and will stand by the men that are placed in nomination by the representative men of the party. After 24 years administration of national affairs our party stands before the world with a record of which it may well feel proud. Long continued prosperity has inspired the people of the United States with a feeling of security and given an impetus to all our industries, internal improvements are going forward with almost magical proportions, and everywhere can be seen the grand results of a careful and economical administration of the affairs of the government in the hands of the Republican party. We do not think that the people of the United States desire a change and do not doubt but that Blaine and Logan will be their almost unanimous choice as representatives of a party that can be safely trusted with the national administration. The Democratic party will try to win by selecting some prominent New York Democrat and by striving to incite the friends of the administration to discord but their party record will render all such action ineffectual and only more firmly unite all friends of good government in the determination to win. Blaine and Logan are especially the choice of the Pacific States and Territories and will carry the Republican States by greatly increased majorities and in the eastern, middle and southern will undoubtedly get a full party vote, and will be elected over every opposition.

Bro. Nickell seems greatly exercised because Judge Webster exercised the prerogative of his position and appointed his own balliffs and expresses great concern lest the Judge was prompted to this unusual proceeding by the ring. Is Bro. N. afraid he won't be able to gobble up all the script that goes into the hands of the people of this county at the expense of the tax payers. This looks like it.

The "Times" says Mr. Neil was only beat 4 votes and they could have been easily obtained if they had known the contest was so close. Yes he could have swapped Cogswell for Neil as he did for Jacobs, or he could have resorted to the "sack" that has become a part of the "times" (I) honored principles, and one of the methods of defeating the popular will.

Why don't Mr. Nickell rise in the dignity of insulted manhood and publish a list of the prominent Democrats that have discontinued the "Times" lately, like he did a few years ago? It would be rather an interesting item of news for his Democratic friends in the county. Write them up by all means. The rebate on tobacco and cigars is now being paid by J. C. Cartwright, Collector of Internal Revenue.

Blaine on the Chinese Question.

EXTRACT FROM SPEECH DELIVERED IN CONGRESS.

Ought we to exclude them [the Chinese]? The question lies in my mind thus: Either the Anglo-Saxon race will possess the Pacific slope or the Mongolians will possess it. You give them the start to-day, with the keen thrust of necessity behind them and with the ease of transportation before them and the inducements to come, while we are filling up the other portions of the continent, and it is inevitable, if not demonstrable, that they will occupy that great space of country between the Sierras and the Pacific coast. In a republic especially, in any Government that maintains itself, the unity of order and of administration is in the family. The immigrants who come to this country from all portions of the British island, from Germany, from Sweden, from Norway, from Denmark, from France, from Spain, from Italy, come here with the family as much engraven on their minds, and in their customs, and in their habits as we have it. The Asiatic who brings neither wife nor child with him, cannot go on with our population and make a homogeneous element. The idea of comparing European immigration with an Asiatic immigration that has no regard to family; that does not recognize the relation of husband and wife; that does not observe the tie of parent and child; that does not have in the slightest degree the ennobling and civilizing influences of the hearthstone and fireside! Why when gentlemen talk loosely about immigration from European States as contracted with that, they are certainly forgetting history and forgetting themselves.

Bro. Nickell, with extraordinary acumen, has discovered that there is an Eve in the literary garden of Eden with a "penchant for scribbling, whose chief lament is that she is not a man." Here our distinguished double edition cotemporary makes his first mistake for we have repeatedly asserted when contemplating the possible degradation of honorable manhood as indicated in the pious career of the editor of the "Times" that we, "bide content the modest lot of women, though all our soul gives truest manhood humblest reverence" rather than risk becoming such as he. He says "as there is no prescribing how election tickets shall be printed it is as fair to print them one way as another." The woman suffrage amendment was a State measure and of course belonged on the State ticket and he ignored the wishes of his woman suffrage subscribers by putting his own bigoted No on his tickets, and was he not presuming on the mental and physical incapacity of a blind man that could not see and a Chinaman that could not read to attempt to vote them with a ticket with his own No on it. Bro. Nickell can make a note of the fact that there are several individuals of both sexes with a "penchant for scribbling" that intend to fully express the political trickery and insatiable avarice that are the ruling passion of his life and that govern him entirely in his political preference and are slowly extinguishing every honorable impulse of his nature. He estimates that our "house hold duties are neglected." Now we don't honestly believe his are for the rarely intelligent lady that presides with such grace and dignity over Bro. N.'s household, differs with him on his 7 by 9 kitchen theory for women consequently the culinary department of our esteemed cotemporary is in the hands of hired help as it ought to be, and he himself, helps to take care of the dainty little bit of feminine lace and divinity that has lately come to bless his home and we have hoped, to lead him up out of his 16th century ignorance of the sphere of women, and we certainly think it is all well done, and when our wonderfully benighted friend grows tired of culinary proxies, he can come over to an old fashioned dinner with us and bring along his baby, and we'll compare Notes on the "neglected household duty" question.

Mr. E. P. Rogers General Freight Agent of the Oregon & California Railroad, has lately returned from a trip to Southern Oregon and North eastern California, and gives an interesting account of the country he saw along the route. More especially he was interested in the prospect for fruit, both sides of the line. Rogue River valley, in the vicinity of Jacksonville, is a great fruit region, with orchards and vineyards that promise enormous yields of the most excellent fruit. One man has over thirty acres of grapes, a thousand vines to the acre, grown, in standing form and loaded with fruit. This vineyard will produce hundreds of tons of luscious grapes of the choicest varieties. The proprietor converts them into wine and brandy of fine quality. He has brandy five years old that is very excellent, and makes wine that sells for 50 cents a gallon, also very delicious. Rogue River valley will furnish a good lot of fruit for our market this season and the Railroad Company has lowered its rates to enable producers to realize something handsome on it. The time is not far distant when the fruits of that portion of Oregon will be found all along the line of the Northern Pacific road this side of Chicago. Poaches should be planted in all favorable localities south of this valley. They do well in some parts of the Umpqua and through a large scope of Jackson and Josephine counties. Fruit growing must be a great resource in all that part of Western Oregon, and canneries and dries should be erected to profitably utilize all fruit that cannot be marketed in a green state. California realizes many million annually for its orchard and vineyard products and Oregon can rival her in many lines of production, if our farmers will show proper enterprise. Mr. Rogers speaks highly of the good farming that is manifest in Southern Oregon. He says the fruit growers there take excellent care of their orchards and vineyards, and deserve the good yields they have in prospect.

You take the smoke cooler, and the taste cleaner and safer. Pipe smoking is much more refined than a cigar. The more the question of adulterated tobacco forces itself on the attention of smokers, the more desirable it becomes to know precisely what you are smoking. In Blackwell's Bull Durham Smoking Tobacco you have a guarantee, always, that it is Nature's own unadulterated product. Its fragrance, flavor, and unsurpassed quality, are derived from the soil and air. Try it, and you will be satisfied. No one genuine without trade-mark of the Bull.' Commencing with a dose of five Pills, I found them acting easy, and obtained prompt relief. In continuing their use, a single Pill taken after dinner, daily, has been all the medicine I have required. AYER'S PILLS have kept my system regular and my head clear, and benefited me more than all the medicines ever before tried. Every person similarly afflicted should know their value. 152 State St., Chicago, June 6, 1882. M. V. WATSON.' Includes text: 'For all diseases of the stomach and bowels, try AYER'S PILLS. Osborne Machinery.

Interesting To Farmers. ROCK POINT, Jackson Co., Or., Jan. 26th, 1884. D. M. Osborne & Co. Portland, Oregon: Gentlemen.-I bought one of the Osborne No. 11 Twine-Binding Harvesters for the harvest of 1883, and I take pleasure in recommending it to all farmers, for it gives perfect satisfaction in cutting and elevating the grain, and in binding it. It is the "boss." The more I use it the better I like it. The expense of harvesting with the Osborne No. 11 is less than heading or reaping. Yours truly, G. W. LANCER.

ASHLAND, Or., Jan. 25, 1884. D. M. Osborne & Co. I bought one of your No. 8 Independent self-rake Reapers this last harvest. It did the best of work I ever saw done with any reaper. I cut some green oats hay, which was the heaviest work I ever saw done with a reaper. I raked off bunches that would weigh a hundred pounds. Yours truly, BENNETT MILLION.

WARRANTY. "A" our machines are warranted to be well built, of good material, and capable of cutting, if properly managed, from ten to fifteen acres per day. If, on starting a machine, it should in any way prove defective, and not work well, the purchaser shall give prompt notice to the agent of whom he purchased it, and D. M. Osborne & Co., Portland Oregon, and allow time for a person to be sent to put it in order. If it cannot then be made to do good work, the defective part will be replaced or the machine shall immediately be returned to the agent from whom it was purchased, at his place of business, and the payment of money or notes returned. Keeping the machine during harvest, whether kept in use or not, without giving notice as above, shall be deemed conclusive evidence that the machine fills the warranty. Surrender of notes or cash shall be deemed full satisfaction to party of the second part for all damages. F. HERRARD, Osborne's agent for Jacksonville, Madford, Rock Point and Grant's Pass, will sell this year, the 7 ft. Harvester and Twine Binder for $250 here. The Boss Machine will cut nicely wherever a plow can run; also, mowers for $90. Miller & Co., Ashland, are also agents for Osborne machines. F. HERRARD.
