

ACCIDENT.—A son of Wm. Herriott of Applegate had an arm fractured and broken last Monday by getting thrown from a horse.

BABY SNOW.—The executive committee on the 4th of July celebration have decided to award a premium of $5 for the handsomest girl baby, and a like sum for the handsomest boy baby not over eighteen months old.

ATTENTION EVELY FARMER.—Before ordering mowers, headers, reapers and other heavy machinery call on Bilger & Magly and see what they will do for you.

NOTICE.—All homestead and pre-emption claimants are required to give their postoffice address with their applications. If they be not furnished their claimants record until they are. It is required by the commissioner. WM. F. BENJAMIN, Register.

INSPECTING LINES.—F. H. Lamb, Superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Co. for this division, was in town yesterday accompanied by his wife. He is making a tour of inspection of the lines in this section with a view of putting them in good repair for winter use.

ANOTHER CHANGE.—Since DeRoiban and son took charge of the U. S. Hotel numerous improvements have been made in the management and the looks of the house. Yesterday another good change was made by substituting white cooks and waiters in the place of the Chinamen formerly employed. A decided change is noticeable.

MOUNTAIN PARTIES.—Soon after the Fourth of July a party composed of Judge Watson, K. Kubli, J. C. McCully, J. P. McDaniel, M. Caton, David Crenshaw and several others will start for the Cimarron country in the Siskiyou for a trip of recreation, hunting and pleasure. They expect to be absent about three weeks and we expect to see the game market overstocked on their return.

MAIL CHANGES.—The Postoffice Department at Washington has ordered the following changes in mail routes in Southern Oregon: Route 44,244 Sam's valley to Deskins. Leave Sam's valley Friday at 1 P. M.; arrive at Deskins by 6 P. M. Leave Deskins Saturday at 6 A. M.; arrive at Medford by 2 P. M. Leave Deskins Sunday at 6 A. M.; arrive at Sam's valley by 6 P. M. Route 44,270, between Jacksonville and Astoria. Quit railroad station, embrace and end at Phoenix. Increase in distance, 2 1/2 miles, or 9 miles in all.

RELIGIOUS ITEMS.—Rev. F. X. Blanchet will hold services at St. Francis church, Eagle Point, one week from Sunday. Rev. M. A. Williams preaches at the Presbyterian church in this place Sunday morning and at Medford in the afternoon. Elder M. Peterson preaches near the mouth of Thompson creek next Sunday. Rev. B. J. Sharp will not fill his regular appointment next Sunday. Regular services at the Catholic church in this place, Rev. F. X. Blanchet presiding. Rev. R. C. Oglesby preaches at the M. E. Church in this place Sunday morning and evening.

FIRE.—The Odd Fellows' building, had a narrow escape from fire on Monday evening. That being the time of the regular meeting of the Rebekah degree lodge, the janitor had just finished filling and lighting the lamps, and was yet in the ante room when the center chandelier fell with a fearful crash, the oil lighting instantly and filled the hall with the blaze. Several persons rushed in and succeeded in extinguishing the flames before the fire company, which responded promptly, had arrived. The Rebekah degree lodge had presented the Odd Fellows with a new carpet which had recently been laid at an expense of $130 and the hall had been newly painted and fitted up which was all ruined by the fire. The building was uninjured. The loss probably reach $500, fully insured in the Phoenix Insurance Co. of Hartford, Conn.

GOT CAUGHT.—Tuesday's "Oregonian" contained a dispatch from Hillsboro stating that the dwelling of Lewis Keeckley, four miles from that place, had been burned; that his charred remains were found in the ruins; that he was supposed to have been murdered, and that the house was fired to conceal the crime. Later investigations go to show that Keeckley was not burned as a man has turned up at Ashland partially insane answering his description. The remains found in the house that was burned shrouds the affair in mystery, which investigation may hereafter unravel. Keeckley's life was insured for $5,500. A telegram from Ashland of the 25th says that the sheriff and the clerk of Washington county arrived by this morning's train. They recognize the insane man in custody as John Doe, who was coming in and Richard Roe is also expected soon. We will conclude the fact when he arrives so as to keep up with the times.

The Yreka Brass Band will furnish music for the Fourth of July celebration at Ashland and in the evening they will give a ball at the pavilion in the grove. A good dancing floor will be put up and a large crowd is looked for, the managers also promising a good time for all who attend.

Local Items.

Another fire this week. Circuit Court is still in session.

Sol Wise of Ashland called this week. The glorious Fourth is the next on the docket.

Miss Mamie Brentano has returned from Portland. Chas. J. Howard came over from Josephine this week.

A fine lot of brick are now offered for sale by G. W. Holt. Surveyor General Tolman and family were in town this week.

The fruit and grape crop never looked better at this time of year. C. C. Beckman has returned from a trip to San Francisco and Portland.

The new county officials will take charge one week from next Monday. M. Colwell is still on the sick list but was improving at last accounts.

Don't fail to read what Prof. E. T. Kugler has to say in our advertising columns. The highest market price for hides and furs is paid by Barruch Fisher at Medford.

An adjuster to settle the loss incurred by the Odd Fellow's fire will be here to-morrow. Take a look at that fine stock of goods at Solomon & Menor's and enquire their prices.

The Daily News of Portland has changed hands and a decided improvement has been made. An easy way to get rid of cats—hang two of them by the tails over a clothes line. Time two minutes.

Robert Westrop has taken the road again as agent for the Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine company. A car load of Bain wagons arrived this week for Bilger & Magly and are now ready for inspection and sale.

Numerous residents of Grants Pass have been here this week as witnesses in the stage robbery case now on trial. A full attendance of Red Men is requested for next Tuesday evening as business of importance will come up.

Dr. J. Brown returned from Josephine county last Thursday. He has been in constant attendance on several chronic cases there. Carlos Gaddard is now in the butchering business at Medford. He purchased the tools and fixtures formerly owned by Dyar & Co.

The Jacksonville Amateurs, accompanied by the Silver Cornet Band, went to Medford last evening to present the play "Our Folks." Jarrett was discharged this morning by Judge Webster and the jury was also released as no more jury trials remain on the docket.

Miss Minnie DeWitt of Yreka is visiting Miss Emma Page of this place. Miss Lillie Kilbourn of Portland is also visiting friends in Jacksonville. El DePate, our County Judge-elect, thinks of moving here soon and becoming a resident of Jacksonville. We would be glad to welcome him.

A. L. Johnson, real estate agent at Medford, sold $8,000 worth of land yesterday. He sold the fine farm of Lewis Scheider near Jacksonville in the lot. We have sent out numerous statements of accounts and as we need the money for contemplated improvements we hope those owing us will respond at once.

All the vehicles in Plymouth's livery stable have been newly painted and other improvements have been made. First-class rigs can be had there at any time. From July 1st to July 4th, the C. & O. Stage Co. will sell round trip tickets from Yreka to Ashland and return, good until July 10th, for one-half of regular rates.

Harry Lambert the genial host of the main hotel at Grants Pass, was in town this week. If you have occasion to travel that way don't fail to give him a call. Read Prof. E. T. Kugler's card in another column and govern yourself accordingly. He says the principle there established is a correct one and we agree with him.

All those who want to join the Kallisthupsians on the Fourth of July are requested to meet at the City-Hall next Monday night to make the necessary arrangements. G. A. Hubbell of Jacksonville, Mark Colvig of Woodville, G. F. Billings of Ashland and A. L. Johnson have been appointed Notaries Public by Governor Moody.

Prop the limbs of your fruit trees before it is too late. Remember the old adage of a stitch in time. By attending to this you will not only save your trees but a great deal of fruit. Medford will celebrate the Fourth in good style and the preparations are going forward on a large scale. They expect a large crowd there and will spare no pains to entertain them.

John Smith left town this week just as John Doe was coming in and Richard Roe is also expected soon. We will conclude the fact when he arrives so as to keep up with the times. The Yreka Brass Band will furnish music for the Fourth of July celebration at Ashland and in the evening they will give a ball at the pavilion in the grove. A good dancing floor will be put up and a large crowd is looked for, the managers also promising a good time for all who attend.

Wm. H. Parker, County Clerk elect, has purchased the Savage property on Oregon street, formerly known as the Howard residence, for $650, and will move his family to town in a few days. Newell DeLamater, Treasurer of Josephine county, was in town several days this week. He was detained a few days on account of sickness but returned last Friday considerably improved.

The Twenty first infantry, to whom such a flattering farewell ball was given recently, and who will leave Port Townsend early next week, will exchange stations with the Department of the Platte. On quite a numerous class of goods the Northern Pacific express company charges less for transportation from Portland here than the usual freight charges levied by the railroad. Enquire charges.

Hubert R. Duniway, business manager of the Duniway Publishing Company, was married on Monday evening to Miss Cora Parsons, at the home of the bride's parents, by the Rev. F. R. Marvin. W. W. Cardwell and Frank Neil have returned from their studies at the State University. The former graduated last term and the latter will return again in the Fall when school commences again.

Col. Wm. Martin father of Mrs. W. J. Plymale, is here on a visit to his daughter. He is one of the pioneers of Southern Oregon and has just returned from the annual reunion of the State Society at Salem. A fine new store building has just been finished for Henry Judge at Ashland on the vacant lot between the Odd Fellows and McCall streets. He moved his saddler shop into the new building this week.

Mrs. James McDonough, of Willow Springs, will start, the first of the coming week, for an extensive trip to Portland and Eastern Oregon, for the benefit of her health, which has not been good of late. From present appearances Tildou is the only Moses, the Democratic party can find to lead them out of the wilderness and he acknowledges that he has got so old and blind that he can't find and keep the path. McVay & Lawson purchased several head of fine and large horses in the valley during their stay here and also bought ten bulls of Huxley Bros. They started for their home in Smith River, Cal., last Thursday.

Rev. F. X. Blanchet will hold services at the Catholic Church in Eagle Point on Sunday July 6th. During the services an interesting ceremony will be performed, all of which is liable to draw a large congregation. The railroad election in Portland, last Tuesday, resulted in re-instating nearly the whole of the old board, and is significant of the fact that the O. R. & N. Co. desire to maintain the old relations with the Willard line.

George Eng's and Ab. Giddings of Ashland, H. W. Stevenson, M. Van Winkle, H. A. Grigsby, Newt Youss and George R. Justus of Grants Pass have been here this week attending court as witnesses in the stage robbery case. Two hundred acres of the DeRoiban place two miles southeast of Jacksonville is offered for sale. A good residence, fire water and good land will be found there and the price is reasonable. Call at the U. S. Hotel for particulars.

B. B. Beckman of Jacksonville, who graduated with high honors at the State University, Eugene City, last week, was elected tutor for that institution by the Board of Regents, at an annual salary of $900. This speaks well for Ben's ability. G. O. Cheney will go to Crescent City to superintend the construction of the new Court House at that place for L. S. P. Marsh, the contractor. Mr. Marsh will take personal charge of his contract for building new quarters at Fort Klamath.

The Soda Springs House above Ashland, now kept by L. B. Tucker, is all ready crowded with guests although the weather has been such that summer resorts have hardly been thought of. It is a pleasant place for families to go during the hot spell. Rev. T. F. Royal has accepted an appointment to do missionary work among the Indians at Klamath, and Mrs. Royal will assume the duties of matron of the Indian school at that place, to be assisted in teaching by the daughter Miss Zedira Royal. P. B. Whitney was in town several days this week. Mr. Whitney is making arrangements with the fruit growers of this valley, for the shipment of their products to Portland. The rates charged, which are quite reasonable, will be found in another column.

Five of the candidates nominated for Presidential Electors on the Democratic ticket in California have declined the honor and ask that others be substituted. Of course there is nothing significant in this—it only means that the State is sure for Blaine. Senator Slater has reported to the Senate, from the Committee on Public Lands, a substitute for the House bill to declare the forfeiture of the unwarmed land grant made by act of May, 1870, to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph line from Portland, Oregon, to Astoria and McMinnville, in the same State. The substitute provides that so much of the land granted by that act as are adjacent to and contiguous with the uncompleted portions of the United States and restored to the public domain, and that they be made subject to disposal under the general land laws of the United States.

The case of Richards vs. Dunlap, a case of assault and battery, occupied the attention of Justice Huffer's court on Monday last. The case was tried by jury who failed to agree when the defendant plead guilty to the charge and was fined $5 and costs, amounting in all to about $160. We learn that Dr. Ashton attempted to commit suicide last Sunday, in his cabin at Scott Bar. He used a surgical instrument, cutting himself in the neck, with intention of cutting jugular vein, without success. The doctor had been quite dependent for a week or more.—Yreka Journal. France M. Plymale has formed a partnership with Wm. Angle and the Farmer's store at Medford will hereafter be conducted in the firm name of Angle and Plymale. Prices have been marked down to the lowest possible notch and the house is building up a fine trade. A car load of salt was received there this week. Go to Bigger & Magly for cheap goods. They are receiving goods by car loads and selling lower than ever. 5 gallons best coal oil at $2 1/2; fine tined barley forks 75 cents each; Bain wagons $114; fruit presses $4.50; cook stoves $20; barbed fencing 4¢ @ 5¢ and 8¢ cents per pound. We mean business call and see us. G. Karowski, agent for the Deering twine-binders, will have some of those famous machines at work at the farm of J. A. Cardwell and Col. R. F. Maury as soon as the weather settles, when a general invitation is extended to everybody to see them work. He will then be ready to do custom-work, guaranteeing prompt execution and thorough satisfaction. The different committees appointed for the Fourth of July celebration in Jacksonville have been busy at work this week and they propose celebrating in the old fashioned style. Sufficient means have been raised to make it one of the grandest the town has ever seen for many a year and the fireworks in the evening will also be a feature not witnessed here for several years past. The firemen are making extensive preparations for the celebration of the coming Fourth of July, and it promises to be a great success. The fireworks and ball in the evening will be the attraction, and especially should the citizens of Jacksonville give substantial aid and encouragement to the fire company for they have demonstrated the fact that they can be relied on in time of need. The friends of education in Salem are making extensive arrangements for the proper reception of all who may attend the State Teachers' Association, which meets in that city on Monday next, and will continue in session for four days, closing Thursday July 3, 1884. The sessions will be held in the legislative hall of the capitol building. A very extensive and interesting programme has been prepared, and as greatly reduced rates have been secured over the various lines of travel, a large attendance is assured. The silver cornet band under the leadership of Prof. Schmitt is making rapid improvement and will soon take rank as the best in this part of the state. Mr. Schmitt is devoting himself to training of his pupils and their progress is remarkable for the length of time the band has been organized. The boys intend to make an effort after the 4th to raise the balance of the money due on the instruments which is $135 and our citizens should help the boys to clear themselves of the indebtedness that Mr. Schmitt had to assume in order to get the band started.

CIRCUIT COURT PROCEEDINGS.—Since report of last week the following proceedings have been recorded in the Circuit Court: State vs. C. W. Keeton and others; robbery. On motion of the district attorney the indictment against said Keeton was dismissed, so that he could be used as a witness for the State in trial of his co-defendants. It was ordered that he also be placed under bonds of $1,000 to appear as such witness, and in default of bail he was committed to the custody of the sheriff. H. C. Dollaride vs. O. C. R. R. Co.; damages. Continued. J. A. Higgins vs. Jacob Mills; to foreclose mortgage. Dismissed. W. C. Daley, J. R. Tozer and H. S. Emery vs. A. D. Helman et al.; specific performance of contract for conveyance of land. A. D. Helman appointed guardian ad litem for U. S. G. and Ois O. Helman, minors. State vs. Wm. Briscoe, robbery, case submitted to jury yesterday afternoon and a verdict of guilty as charged returned.

A. O. U. W.—The practical benefit resulting from membership in the order of the A. O. U. W., was illustrated recently in the death of M. V. Jones, an old resident of this county. A few days ago his widow was the recipient of the sum of two thousand dollars from the grand office of the Lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen of the State of California. This sum alone would be enough to keep the wolf from the door in her declining years. Thousands of widows and orphans in this State have reason to thank Providence that their husbands and fathers were members of the above mentioned beneficiary society.—"Del Norte Record."

CONVICTED.—The grand jury at their last session found true bills against five parties for complicity in the stage robbery near Grants Pass in January last and the petty jury in the first case tried—that of Wm. Briscoe, Deputy Sheriff at the time—found the defendant guilty as charged last evening after being out a little over one hour. The charges against Keeton, who turned State's evidence, has been dismissed and Jarrett's case will come up next, the other two defendants being still at large. Briscoe will be sentenced by Judge Webster next Monday.

Graduated.

B. B. Beckman and W. W. Cardwell graduated at the Oregon State University on the 15th inst. and are now ready to commence the battle of life on their own account. Frank Huffer, another Jackson county student, did not attend the college last year and for this reason his name does not appear. We copy a synopsis of the addresses of the graduates as published in the Eugene "Journal." The Drama of Human Progress, was B. B. Beckman's subject. The events of history may be compared with the acting of a Drama, as being "linked together by a chain of cause and effect," and bearing a definite relation to a central idea. At first everything is dim, but as the ages roll on nations rise and fall. Greece and Rome being to the front their share in the play was only to fall and leave the world in deeper darkness than before. "Every resolution that has been taken has gathered its forces slowly and imperceptibly." "The Magna Charta of England, the Declaration of Rights of France, and the Declaration of Independence of our country, are the weapons used in the war of human freedom." The printing press has given a strong impetus to thought. The electric cord has brought nations within speaking distance. "Universality of education and the omnipresence of the press are enlightening the masses and forming the only true basis of stability and progress." Mr. Beckman's oration was a credit to himself and the University. "Resipice Finem" was the title of W. W. Cardwell's oration. For the first time men "looked to the end" after the South had risen in arms and taken Sumpter. Had Webster and Clay been alive they would have said, "Reckon the cost." The material for the Rebellion had been gathering for years, gradually accumulating in strength. By freeing the slaves and giving them the ballot, the American people polluted the whole social system. The slaves should be "freed but not given the highest gift of a nation in a single decade." The end of active warfare was when Gen. Lee surrendered; but the nation was left in a very unsettled condition. Like Napoleon when he attempted to conquer Europe, the people did not count the cost, they did not look to the end. After "the angel of death had draped his black plumes in 400,000 happy homes, then they cried, "Resipice Finem."

All the Rage. To captivate the popular taste and surpass all previous efforts to please the palate, requires no small amount of knowledge and no little skill, and when we remember that the very agreeable liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, is as beneficial to the system, as it is acceptable in the stomach, we readily understand why it is the universal favorite as a cure for Habitual Constipation and other ills arising from the Bowels, Kidneys, Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles free and large bottles for sale by Merritt & Robinson, Jacksonville.

Circular No. 6. PORTLAND, OR., May 19, 1884. To encourage fruit growing in Southern Oregon, this company will ship fruit boxes, knocked down, in stacks from Portland to all stations south of Harrisburg, inclusive, at twenty cents per 100 lbs. in any quantity. Green fruit in car loads of 20,000 lbs. will be shipped to Portland at thirty cents per 100 lbs., from Ashland and stations north to, and including Green's station. E. P. ROGERS, Acting General Freight Agent. O. & C. R. R. Clearing Out at Cost.

Our entire stock of general merchandise, in whole or in part, is now for sale at cost—with a view of a change in business. All indebted to us are notified to call and settle without delay. REAMES BROS. Jacksonville, Jan. 5, 1884.

SETTLE UP.—All knowing them selves indebted to the estate of late Madame Holt are requested to settle at once, and those having claims against the same will present them at the office of the U. S. Hotel.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. PROF. E. T. KUGLER, Takes pleasure in announcing to the public that he has determined to Teach Music for cash money, and not on credit nor future. Musical terms are taught for each only, all over the civilized world, and credit, as an exception, is given only on proper securities.

FOURTH OF JULY BALL AT Ashland, Oregon.
