

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President, James G. Blaine, of Maine. For Vice President, John A. Logan, of Illinois.

Nominees for Presidential Electors, D. P. THOMPSON, of Multnomah, WARREN TRUITT, of Polk, J. C. LEASURE, of Umatilla.

Nominated.

Up to this date the Democratic national convention at Chicago have failed to make nominations and it begins to look as though they were going to have some unpleasantness among themselves. They have harped so loudly on Blaine and Logan not being the choice of the Republican party that they will now have an opportunity to apply some of their specious arguments to their own case.

From Rockford Daily Gazette June 14, 1884. The Rockford Watch Company is in the market to stay. If this fact needs to be emphasized, the action of the company in lately reducing prices of its goods to the lowest point consistent with maintenance of their superiority, would be conclusive in the matter.

Just what the Democratic National convention that met in Chicago this week will do is hard to determine. It is a well known fact that the Democratic party have not made their nominations on principle since the nomination of Breckinridge and Lane, but have dallied around amongst renegade Republicans and conservative democrats until it would be hard to tell what sort of a hybrid ticket the Chicago convention will bring forth.

The old soldiers in California are rallying to the support of Blaine and Logan, and will give a rousing majority.

Celebration.

The Fourth of July celebration in Jacksonville under the auspices of the Jacksonville Fire Co. was one of the best arranged and most pleasant ever had in this place. It began with the national salute at sunrise and it was but a short time until the streets presented the appearance of a national holiday.

Prices Reduced.

THE ROCKFORD WATCH COMPANY REDUCES PRICES OF ITS GOODS.

From Rockford Daily Gazette June 14, 1884. The Rockford Watch Company is in the market to stay. If this fact needs to be emphasized, the action of the company in lately reducing prices of its goods to the lowest point consistent with maintenance of their superiority, would be conclusive in the matter.

In the case of Rockford watches, their superiority for the use of men who require a close and desirable time piece, for the most trying service, arises, not alone from the close attention paid by the company to quality of materials employed and minute details of construction, but also from the salient fact, the force of which any mechanic will recognize, that all of these movements are made with what is technically called THE QUICK TRAIN, so that they are, best of all watches now offered to the public, adapted to endure without affecting their time-keeping qualities, the jar of oscillating railway trains, or like hard usage in various occupations where a watch is most severely tested.

Curtis, of "Harper's Weekly," continues his war, on Blaine and Logan; but the animus of his screed, is so perfectly apparent, that he will hardly be able, to make his opposition, affect the general result in the coming campaign. The publishers of "Harper's Weekly," have succeeded well, in their extensive operations, as a publishing company but when they assume to dictate to national parties, they reckon without their host and will find their opposition a little like the Popes bull against the comet. Curtis, the great satellite of American literature, will find his own glory dimmed, while the brilliant constellation of American statesmen that surround our national standard bearers will shine on in undimmed splendor; his own inconsistent course would furnish ample material for the pencil of Nast and illustrations for "Harper's Weekly."

The old soldiers in California are rallying to the support of Blaine and Logan, and will give a rousing majority.

American Independence.

We have only to witness the enthusiasm with which our national anniversary is celebrated to be convinced that American independence appeals as strongly to the patriotism of American freemen to-day as when the liberty bells rang out the glad chimed that proclaimed the colonies free 108 years ago. In every city, town, and hamlet, on every car that rolls over our vast network of railroads, and on all waters where American seamen guide our vessels of commerce, the stars and stripes are flung to the breeze and from the hearts of American patriots at home or abroad wells up our national air the Star Spangled Banner on our nations natal day.

A western papersays: "Mr. Meeker of Argo has a duck that laid an egg with a nickell imbedded in its yolk." Now there's the chance for brother Nickell to replenish his campaign stock of poultry. We don't anticipate that he will have any crowing to do this year but there a margin in the investment and he always has an eye to margins.

Osborne Machinery.

Interesting To Farmers.

ROCK POINT, Jackson Co., Or., Jan. 26, 1884. D. M. Osborne & Co.

Portland, Oregon: Gentlemen.—I bought one of the Osborne No. 11 Twine-Binding Harvesters for the harvest of 1883, and I take pleasure in recommending it to all farmers, for it gives perfect satisfaction in cutting and elevating the grain, and in binding it. It is the "boss." The more I use it the better I like it. The expense of harvesting with the Osborne No. 11 is less than heading or reaping.

Yours truly, G. W. LANCE.

ASHLAND, Or., Jan. 25, 1884. D. M. Osborne & Co.

I bought one of your No. 8 Independent self-rake Reapers this last harvest. It did the best work I ever saw done with any reaper. I cut some green oats hay, which was the heaviest work I ever saw done with a reaper. I raked off bunches that would weigh a hundred pounds.

Yours, truly, BENNETT MILLER.

WARRANTY. "All our machines are warranted to be well built, of good material, and capable of cutting, if properly managed, from ten to fifteen acres per day. If, on starting a machine, it should in any way prove defective, and not work well, the purchaser shall give prompt notice to the agent of whom he purchased it, and D. M. Osborne & Co., Portland Oregon, and allow time for a person to be sent to put it in order. If it cannot then be made to do good work, the defective part will be replaced or the machine shall immediately be returned to the agent from whom it was purchased, at his place of business, and the payment of money or notes returned. Keeping the machine during harvest, whether kept in use or not, without giving notice as above, shall be deemed conclusive evidence that the machine fills the warranty." Surrender of notes or cash shall be deemed full satisfaction to party of the second part for all damages.

F. HUBBARD, Osborne's agent for Jacksonville, Medford, Rock Point and Grant's Pass, will sell this year, the 7 ft. Harvester and Twine Binder for $250 here. The Boss Machine will cut nicely wherever a plow can run; also, mowers for $90. Miller & Co., Ashland, are also agents for Osborne machines.
