

Portland Business College

In speaking of this institution of learning the State "Journal" of Eugene has the following:

We can not but note the growing popularity of this institution and the rapidly increasing attendance from this county as well as from all sections of the Northwest.

A. Noltner, editor of the Standard, who has been connected with various Democratic publications since pioneer days, has been suggested by prominent Democrats as a suitable appointee for the Postal Agency, or U. S. Marshal ship.

During the past six days fourteen applicants from California, one from Michigan, three from Indiana, one from England, one from Dakota, three from Minnesota, one from Pennsylvania, one from New York and two from Iowa, have applied at the Immigration Board rooms seeking information concerning farms and land.

It seems to be a settled fact that Congress will, as recommended by the Postmaster-General, reduce the local postage to one cent, and that the two cent stamp will carry one ounce, in stead one half ounce as at present.

In a recent interview Mr. Cleveland said among other things, "I intend to be president of the people of the United States, just as I have been the Governor of the people of New York, and both parties will be disappointed in me in that particular; but I shall be safe if I obey the law of the land, and I'm going to do it and let the politician howl."

Oregon & California R. R. Meeting.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the board of directors of the Oregon & California Railroad Company, at a meeting held November 14 1884, a special meeting of the stock holders of that corporation was held yesterday in this city at the office of the manager, Mr. R. Koehler.

As set forth in the resolution, the meeting was held for the purpose of taking action in regard to the following business:

To amend the by-laws of the company and increase the number of directors.

To authorize the board of directors of the company, with the concurrence of a majority of the bondholders to contract for the completion of the company's railroad and in order to raise money for that purpose, and to provide funds for the settlement of the floating debt of the company, the board of directors be authorized to issue either bonds or debentures, secured on a first and prior lien upon all the property of the company real, personal, and mixed, or bonds created by increasing the number and amount of bonds already issued, and secured by the existing first mortgage and the company or by consolidation of the existing first and second mortgages, or in such other manner as the board of directors may determine.

To authorize the board of directors to provide that at any and all meetings of stockholders held for the purpose of electing directors, the bondholders may participate in such election, and at such elections the holder of each one thousand dollar bond shall have the right to cast as many votes (not exceeding ten) as shall be fixed by the board of directors.

To authorize the increase of the preferred stock of the company from 120,000 shares, of the par value of one hundred dollars each, to 150,000 shares of the par value of one hundred dollars each, by issuing 30,000 additional shares of preferred stock.

To authorize the increase of the common stock of the company from 70,000 shares, of the par value of $100 each, to 10,000 of the par value of $100 each, by issuing 30,000 additional shares of common stock.

To authorize the board of directors to negotiate the transfer of all the property of the Oregon & California railroad company, real, personal and mixed, by lease of sale to the Central Pacific railroad company upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration as the board of directors may deem best for the interests of the company.

At the meeting yesterday, there was a good representation of the stock of the Oregon and California railroad company. The members present represented over two thirds of the entire stock. Each of the propositions given above was taken under careful consideration and duly discussed.

On motion, the stockholders adjourned to meet again in one month—"Oregonian" Dec. 23d.

Says the New York World: "Cleveland is chosen; Blaine is beaten; but the margin between victory and defeat is so narrow, and Blaine's popular vote so large, that the value of the lesson is lost, and people feel that public rascality has not been rebuked as it ought to have been rebuked by a nation of honest men."

The official vote of the State of New York gives the highest Democratic elector, Priest, 563,154. The highest Republican elector, Carson, 562,005; Democratic plurality, 1,149. The lowest Democratic elector, Ottenseder, 563,048. The lowest Republican elector, Harris, 561,971; Democratic plurality, 1,077. The highest Prohibition elector, Miller, 25,006; the lowest, Ellsworth, 24,918. The highest Butler elector, O'Donnell, 17,004; the lowest, Campbell, 16,751.

According to the census, San Francisco has the largest (44.5 per cent) foreign population of any city in the United States. Next in order comes Chicago 40.8 per cent; Milwaukee 39.9; New York, 39.5; Detroit 29.2 and so on down, through Cleveland, Buffalo, Jersey City, Boston, Brooklyn, St. Louis, Newark, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Providence, Philadelphia, New Orleans, Louisville, Baltimore (16.9) to Washington, with only 9.4 per cent.

Senator Vest delivered an argument in the U. S. Senate against the admission of Dakota, averring that it did not have population enough to entitle it to admission, and that in the face of the returns showing 2000 more votes than were cast in South Carolina. To what unreasonable positions partisan politics lead!
