Piles! Piles! Piles!

JACKSONVILLE, OREGON, JANUARY 3 1885.

A SURE CURE FOUND

AT LAST! NO ONE NEED SUFFER!

A sure Cure for Blind, Bleesting, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. William, 'an Indian Remedy,' called Dr. William's Indian Gintment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of 25 or 30 years standing. No one need suffer five minutes atter a plying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lettens in struments and electuaries do more harm than good. William's Onlinary absorbs the tumors, allays the intense liching, (perficularly at night after gotting warm in bed.) nots as a poultice, gives instant relief, and is prepared only for Piles, itching of the private parts, and for nothing clase. A sure Cure for Blind, Bleesting, Itching

"Drifting away from each other, Silently drifting spart; Nothing between, but the cold worlds

Nothing to lose but a heart. Only two lives dividing More and more every day, Only one soul from another soul Steadily drifting away.

Only a man's heart striving Bitterly hard with its doom; Only a hand tender and bland, Slipping away in the gloom. Nothing of doubt or wrong, Nothing that either can cure. Nothing to blame, nothing to shame, Nothing to do but endure.

The world cannot stand still. Tides ebb—and women change, Nothing here that is worth a tear, One love less—nothing strange.

Drifting apart from each other, Steadily drifting apart—
No wrong to each other that the world can reach Nothing to lose but a heart."

A WOMAN'S ANSWER.

De you know you have asked for the cost-liest thing

Ever made by the hand above—
A woman's heart, and a woman's life,
And a womans wonderful love?

Do you know you have asked for this priceless thing.
As a child might ask for a toy,
Demanding what others have died to win,
With the reckless dash of a boy.

You have written my lesson of duty out: Man like you questioned me; Now stend at the bar of my woman's soul Until I shall question thee. You require your mutton shall always be

And pure as heaven your soul. You require a cook for your mutten and beel; I require a far greater thing; A scandstress you're wanting for socks and for shirts.

I require your heart to be true as God's

Your socks and your shirts be whole;

I look for a man and a king-A king for the beautiful realm called home, And a man that the Maker, God, Shall look upon as he did at first And say, "It is my God,"

From my soft voung cheeks one day; Will you leave me then, mid the falling leaves, As you did 'mid the bloom of May? Is your heart an ocean, so strong and deep I may launch my all on its tide? A loving woman finds heaven or hell On the day she is made a bride.

am fair and young, but the rose will fade

I require all things that are grand and true All things that a man should be; If you give this all, I would stake my life To be all you demand of me. If you cannot be this, a laundress and cook

You can hire, with little to pay; But a woman's heart and a woman's love Are not to be won that way.

Treatment of Balky Horses

A society for the prevention of cru alty to animals recommends the following rules for the treatment of balky horses: 1. Pat the horse upon the neck, examine the harness carefully, first on one side then on the other, speak encooragingly while doing so, them jump into the wagon and give the word go-generally he will obey, 2. A teamster in Maine says he can start the worst balky herse by taking kim out of the shafts and making him go round in a circle. If the first dance does not care him, the second will be sure to do it. 3. To cure a balky horse simply place your hand over the horse's nose and shut off the wind till be wants to move; then let him go. 4. The brains of horses seem to entertain but one idea at a time; thus con tinued whipping only confirms his stubborn resolve. If you can by any means give him a new subject to think ville. of you will have no trouble in starting
