

INCENDIARISM.—Yesterday morning three places were found in town where preparations had been made to start a fire. One was in the rear of Riley & McCavansagh's saloon, next to the livery stable, another was at the old Franco American hotel and the third one was at a place in the centre of the town the proprietor of the building not caring to make it public. It is hardly possible that this was all the work of one man—more likely that several had a hand in it for the purpose of robbery. The fire in Judge Hanna's barn that evening, which was also of incendiary origin, shows that an effort was made to burn down the town. Keep your eyes open.

INSTALLATIONS.—Last Saturday, St. John's Day, the officers elected for the different branches of the Masonic order in this place were installed by G. M. Thos. G. Reames. As a full list of all the branches, with the exception of the Eastern Star, has been published in the SENTINEL before, we only give the list of new officers for that body: Astral Chapter O. E. S.: Worthy Matron, Mrs. A. Linn; Worthy Patron, T. G. Reames; A. M., Miss Linn; Secretary, Mrs. Mary Rachel Fisher; Treasurer, Mrs. Mary Miller; Conductress, Miss Maggie Linn; A. C., Miss Linn; A. S., Miss Linn; A. L., Miss Linn; A. H., Miss Linn; A. G., Miss Linn; A. F., Miss Linn; A. E., Miss Linn; A. D., Miss Linn; A. C., Miss Linn; A. S., Miss Linn; A. L., Miss Linn; A. H., Miss Linn; A. G., Miss Linn; A. F., Miss Linn; A. E., Miss Linn; A. D., Miss Linn.

FIRE.—On Thursday evening about eight o'clock a fire was discovered in Judge H. K. Hanna's barn. K. Kubli and wife, who were just starting for the masquerade, seen the fire first and running up Mr. K. says the fire was then in the hay about the center of the building. The fire department responded in good time, but owing to the cold weather several sections of hose were burned and it took some time before water was got on the fire. This barn was in between two others but it was the only one burned, proving a total loss. There is no doubt but that the fire was started by an incendiary as no one entitled to go around there had been near the barn since four o'clock in the evening, when no light was required. A party is suspected but no arrests have yet been made.

TEACHER'S INSTITUTE.—The Teachers' Institute which was in session the first of the week, was a success in every way, although the attendance was not as large as it would have been had the weather been more favorable, and the place of meeting more comfortable and convenient. Supt. Colvig expected to have been allowed to use the court house for the meeting of the Institute and was not otherwise informed until too late to make arrangements, and was compelled, in consequence, to use the public school house, which was not suitable in any way for the purpose. There were a large number of teachers present, and the exercises were interesting and instructive, and the superintendent is deserving of great credit for carrying out the programme considering the great disadvantages under which he labored. The county court certainly should allow the superintendent the use of the court house for the important public work he is engaged in, and also appropriate sufficient means to defray the expenses of the county institutions, which are now everywhere recognized as such indispensable auxiliaries in systematizing and perfecting the public school work. There will be a normal institute held in the county sometime during the present year and we hope to see it meet with generous aid from the county board, and also from every one who feels an interest in popular education.

THE ENTERTAINMENT.—The beautiful Oratorio of Queen Esther was performed in Jacksonville on Tuesday the 30th by Ashland amateurs under the management of Prof. M. G. Royal. There has never been given to a Jacksonville audience a more interesting entertainment or one more exalted in character than the dramatization of Esther, from the Book of Esther in Bible. The story is thrilling with interest from the detronement of the haughty and defiant Queen of Vashti, whose refusal to obey the decree of her royal husband it was feared would incite other wives to disobedience, and choosing in her place Esther a nameless maiden of an alien race, who is crowned Queen without her kindred or people being known to the King, and who in turn uses her influence over the king in behalf of her people until her Uncle Mordecai the Jew, and the despised Hebrews are advanced to the highest places in the kingdom, while Haman the conspirator is hanged on the gallows 50 cubit high, that he had erected on which Mordecai should die. The characters were well sustained, Mrs. Willard as Esther, Prof. Royal as Haman, and our old friend Byers as Mordecai, being especially worthy of mention. The solos and choruses were well rendered and all who took part in the performance are deserving of individual credit for their success. The little children who acted so well their parts as pages to the king and queen were charming in grace and simplicity and were loudly cheered. The costumes were not strictly oriental in style, were elegant and appropriate and there had evidently been spared neither pains or expense to make the entertainment a success, and we regret that a larger audience was not present, as there would be, were our people favored with another opportunity to witness this interesting performance.

Local Items

No vacant houses in town. County Court meets next week. School commences again next Monday.

Snow was threatened as we went to press. Josephine county miners are blessed with high water.

Sam Phillips of Applegate is now a resident of Ashland. For holiday goods of all kinds go to the New York Store.

D. L. Hopkins came over from Josephine county this week. Eggs and butter taken in exchange for goods at New York Store.

Trunks and valises in endless quantities at the New York Store. Ashland also indulged in a masquerade ball, on New Year's eve.

Bilger & Magley are now putting on the tin roof over Ryan's new brick. No mail from the East for two weeks an account of the snow blockade.

Miss Cora and Maggie Linn have gone to Eugene City for a short visit. When anything of a public nature happens in your vicinity write us the facts.

Thos. McAndrews talks of going into business at Medford. Success to him. Large variety of chairs of all kinds just received at the New York Store.

The largest stock to select from in Southern Oregon at the New York Store. John Orth received another fine lot of beef cattle from Major Barron this week.

Julius Schmitt was here several days this week spending the holidays with his parents. The slaughtering season is about over most of our farmers having finished their work.

Some enterprising man can secure a bargain by investing in the Marsh planing mill at Ashland. The custom of making New Year calls seemed to have been overlooked this year by our young boys.

Jackson county is the Banner Democratic county in the State and is fully represented in the penitentiary. The fine masquerade sets furnished by B. Fehmann proved a big help to the success of the masquerade ball.

Mails were a little more regular this week but there is nothing certain about them yet—only to wait and see. Messrs. Carney and Nelsner were down from Ashland this week but we have no foot race to report at this present writing.

Several of our farmers have been slaughtering this week and spare ribs and backbones were given away by one party. Why is the Republican party like an old maid that wants to marry? Because they both have to wait for years more.

F. M. Overbeck, now one of the chief operators in the W. U. Telegraph company's office at Portland, is back on a short visit. A newspaper is soon to be started at Medford with R. G. Scroggs in charge. It will be independent in politics and we wish it success.

Bowland Hall, one of the early pioneers of Rogue River valley died on New Year's day after lingering illness aged 85 years. Obituary next week. Burglars have made efforts to get in to several residences in town this week. One dose of cold lead generally cures this disease.

The Jackson county hog crop is a good one this year and our farmers find a good market at Portland where good prices are realized. Mr. Judge Tolman and Citl Tolman and wife have returned from their Eastern visit and are now at their home near Ashland.

The SENTINEL is thirty years old today and we have several subscribers on our list that have taken it continuously since its first issue. A large lot of the famous Morrison plows were received by K. Kubli this week which he is selling at reduced prices. Call and examine.

The Teacher's Institute held this week brought in nearly all of our popular educators but as there were so many we will not attempt to give names. That much talked of hunting match between two teams from Jacksonville did not come off last Sunday as advertised, and it has now been indefinitely postponed.

We acknowledge a pleasant call this week from J. N. Gatcher of Williams creek. His saw mill is kept busy the year around and that is all the news we could get out of him. The Odd Fellows install officers this evening and a full attendance is requested. The Rebekahs will be installed on Monday night and the Camp on Tuesday.

Medford will apply to the Legislature to be incorporated as a city at the coming session of that body. They claim over 400 inhabitants now and their wishes should be granted. Prof. J. N. Hall completed his regular term of school at Central Point last week, making seventeen months that he has taught in that district. Having given the best of satisfaction the directors have engaged him for another term and studies will be resumed in his school next Monday.

Judging from the actions of those in charge of our Court House that building is more for ornament than for use. Even a Teacher's Institute can't be held there. Wintjen & Helms and Caton & Garrett favored their customers with a fine free lunch on Christmas and New Years. It is hardly necessary to state that they were favored with many boarders.

James T. Guerrin and Wm. Higgins returned from Crescent City Thursday night having completed the plastering on the new Court House for Del Norte county. Mr. Byars will also return in a few days. The famous water suit between C. Neil and others against Tolman, Dunn and Houck was decided in favor of the defendants by Judge Webster last Monday. The case will be appealed to the Supreme Court.

Residents of Medford hung up purses for horse races on New Year's day. Several fast nags were entered for the different races and each horse was made to do his best. Several from here attended. Senator H. B. Miller and Representative A. A. Porter of Josephine county paid Jacksonville a visit this week before starting for the legislature. Both of these gentlemen will make active members in that body.

The finest brands of wines, liquors and cigars always kept on hand at the Gem saloon at Medford. One of the best billiard tables may also be found there. K. & W. will always give you a hearty welcome. While the northern part of the State has been indulging in snow storms, ice blockades, etc., we have had fine weather all the time. Come to South Oregon if you are hunting the best climate in the world.

Ninety tickets were sold at the Christmas ball at Medford for the benefit of the district school. The subject was a worthy one and those who had the management deserve praise for the success they made of it. The Adventists have once again fixed the time for the second coming of Christ this time they have named the fourth and sixth days of January 1885 when there is to be a terrible shaking up of the earth, air and sea.

Because N. Fisher has sold lots of goods during the holidays is no reason that he is out. Mr. Fisher always keeps a full stock of everything usually kept in the general merchandise line and sells according to the times. W. G. Kenney and wife came up from Medford Tuesday night, and being their first visit to Jacksonville since their marriage the Jacksonville Silver Cornet Band gave them a serenade at the residence of Thos. J. Kenney.

Judge P. P. Prim started below this week and will remain until after the close of the session of the Legislature to convene on January 12th. Messrs. Cameron and Beall, members of the House from this county, will start next Tuesday. There is great complaint because of the inefficiency of the mail service in this section, which is a matter that ought to be looked into at once—"Times." Wait till you get to be Postmaster, Charles, and there will be no more inefficiency after that.

During the recent snow blockade on the O. & C. R. R. a lot of hogs belonging to John Haney and George Love were snowed in and did not reach their destination until one day this week. No loss was sustained by the shippers and they express themselves well pleased with the action of the company in securing this result. Jerry Nunan represents a combined capital of $7,720,000 exclusive fire insurance, gives low rates letter security more prompt pay than any agency in Southern Oregon. New resolutions are formed each New Year. The best for ourselves, our families and our creditors is to invest in one of Nunan's policies of insurance for the coming year and be happy.

The fire department and everybody else was called out last Tuesday to witness the burning out of Al. Carey's chimney. A little folk's party was held there that evening and when the alarm was sounded several of the mothers of the youngsters struck for that house in a way that no foot race could have caught them. It amounted to only a scare and no damage was done. A little girl on Main street had been given some verses to commit to memory by her Sunday school teacher last Sunday. She told her mother about it on coming home, and they said they were the first three verses in a chapter in St. John. Her little brother, who was in the room, at once exclaimed with a thump of his fist upon the table, "Papa, don't let her learn them. That's the way who beat Blaine!"

Our genial friend W. G. Kenney of Medford, and his handsome bride paid Jacksonville a visit on Tuesday evening last, and were tendered an impromptu reception at the residence of his brother T. J. Kenney where a large number of his old time friends called to extend congratulations and to greet for the first time the fair bride, who had so successfully laid aside the hi-birtho unbecomely heart of the gallant William. The Silver Cornet Band tendered them a serenade during the evening and all were invited to partake of delicious refreshments. Mr. Kenney was at his best, his face beaming with smiles, but united with the air of the cautious conqueror you could plainly see the subdued weakness of the willing captive, and we join with a host of friends in wishing the happy couple a long and prosperous voyage on the blissful sea of matrimony and that the captain and his mate may guide their ship, freighted with a life time of weal or woe, into a calm and peaceful haven.

END OF THE WORLD.—The original Adventists or Millerites in this city (not the Seven Day sect) are considerably excited over the arrival from headquarters of a definite and final proclamation of the approaching end of the world. This is styled "The Last Message to the House of Israel," and begins with a reference to previous incorrect prophecies as to the true date of the Judgment, and explains the cause of the error. The date of the end of the world is now fixed for Monday, January 5th. The correct calculation is based upon the prophecy of Haggai (chapter ii, ver. 21 and 22), that in 2,300 years from the foundation of the Temple, God will shake the heavens and the earth and overthrow the kingdom. The taking of the sacrifices from the altar July 5th 71 A. D., is given as the starting point, three and a half years, the measure of the world's life being first added, which gives the date January 5th, 175 A. D. The 490 years, which were cut off from the Jews, were then subtracted from the 2,300, leaving 1810. This remainder is then added to the date already obtained, January 5, 175 giving as a result January 5, 1885, which date is therefore declared the day of judgment. Numerous other prophecies are given, with calculations intended to establish the fact and the people of the "House of Israel" are exhorted to prepare themselves that they may not be found among the lost. Amen. Settle your subscription before it is too late.

CIRCUIT COURT PROCEEDINGS.—E. C. Brooks vs. Jackson county; to recover damages. Defendant given time to file amended answer. Upon motion of the district attorney his name was entered as an attorney for defendant. F. M. Parker vs. Thurston T. Thomas; to recover money. Defendant given ten days further time in which to file replication. Henry Pape vs. A. Davison; to recover money. Motion of defendant's counsel to make complaint more definite overruled and plaintiff allowed to file amended complaint. P. Dougan vs. A. Davison; to recover money. Motion of defendant's counsel to make complaint more definite overruled. C. Neil, et al., vs. P. Dunn, et al.; injunction. Decree for defendant. It was also adjudged that each party pay its own costs. T. H. Whelpley vs. H. Rice; injunction. To be decided during vacation. O. Severson vs. L. Griffith and O. C. R. R. Co.; State vs. W. H. Hamilton vs. H. Smith, et al. Same.

RELIGIOUS ITEMS.—Rev. E. Gittins will preach at Grants Pass Sunday, at his usual morning hour. Regular services will be held at the Catholic church in this place, Rev. F. X. Bianchi officiating. Rev. J. A. Slover commenced a meeting at Antioch school house Friday evening continuing over Sunday. If his health will permit, Rev. A. M. Russell of Ashland will hold services at Medford on the first Sunday in January. Rev. A. R. Bickenback will preach at Phoenix Sunday morning and at the Presbyterian church in this place on the evening. Rev. P. A. Moses of Linn county is expected at this place before long to assume charge of this circuit of the M. E. Church, South. The first Lord's day in January Elder M. Peterson will preach at the Mound school house and on the second Lord's day at Antioch school house. There he expects to review Sabbatarianism. All are respectfully invited to attend.

NOBBY CLOTHING STORE.—Ashland Oregon is the place for every man and boy, old or young, to buy their Fall and Winter clothing and furnishing goods because you can buy better goods for your money and you will live better and prosper, but if you go and get the old fashioned prices for goods and then get shoddy clothing you are liable to swear because you are cheated, catch cold because the goods are shoddy and will not keep you warm, and then die, and then what will become of you. Go to the Nobby Clothing Store by all means, take no such chances! Tailor shop in connection. You can get anything you want in the clothing line.

Run on a Bank. Reames Bros. are receiving a fine assortment of Fancy and Dry Goods, Hats, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, and finest assortment of LADIES CLOAKS that has ever been brought to this market. All of which they are selling at prices that defy competition.

THE BALL.—The Masquerade ball given by the Red Men on New Year's night for the benefit of their new hall was one of the most pleasant events of the season. Halls hall was crowded to its utmost capacity and everyone seemed in their most enjoyable humor, the large concourse of spectators entering into the sport with as much zest as the participants. The supper which had been prepared by wives of members of the order, was spread in Kubli's new brick, and was one that the ladies may well feel proud of, and was fully appreciated by the large number who partook of the choice edibles. Below is a list of the masquers: A. Schmitt, French Knight; Sam DeRoboan, Micky; D. Cronswiller, Hindoo; Geo. Hockenjos, Negro Woman; Arthur Langell, Black Domino; John Bilger, Black Domino; M. Shearer, King Charles; Billy Williams, Clown; Frank Dewell, Domino; Ed. Farrar, Domino; John Bellinger, Ball Fighter; J. N. Hall, Dutchman; Charles Prim, Spaniard; Henry Pape, Lord; Wm. Manser, Duke of Argyle; Isaac Muller, School boy; Dave Crosby, Negro dude; Alex. Manser, Clown; Wm. Moore, French Maquis; Wm. Deneff Count; A. Chas. App; B. Fehmann Royal Turk; Frank Krause, Good Samaritan; J. R. Little, Spanish Cavalier; Tom Ross, Devil; George Neuber, French Knight; Ed. Booth, Spanish Gentleman; J. G. Birdsey, Capt. Jinks; Tom Clemmons, Convict; B. F. Dowell, Fish boy; George Love, Grand Duke; F. Luy, Domino; Celeta DeRoboan, Princess; Ida Fisher, Chinawoman; Mollie Brit, Chinawoman; Sherry Egan, Night; Bell Caton, Dolly Van; Bell Armstrong, Princess; Bertie Schmitt, Germany; Jennie Moore, Blanche, the Beautiful; Paulina Kaewski, Bootblack; Annie Shipley, Spanish girl; Emma Pape, Rowand; Katie Miller, Resebud; Annie Bilger, Good Luck; Nellie Luy, Night.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—Five thousand dollars must be raised by Bilger & Magley within the next sixty days, hence we are compelled to call on all our customers to settle on or before Jan. 1, 1885, either by cash or good notes. We have been very liberal in the past, this being our first call, and hope all will promptly respond.

We still keep a full stock of hardware, stoves, tinware, wagons, plows, harrows, paints, oils, and everything pertaining to our business. We change our prices from time to time, making them conform with present times—cutting profits down so small that no one can do so well by sending away for goods as by patronizing us. Call and see us. BILGER & MAGLEY.

At the Stage. To captivate the popular taste and surpass all previous efforts to please the palate, requires so small amount of knowledge and no little skill, and when we remember that the very agreeable liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs is as beneficial to the system, as it is acceptable to the stomach, we readily understand why it is the universal favorite as a cure for Habitual Constipation and other ills arising from a weakness, or inactive condition of the Bowels, Kidneys, Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles free and large bottles for sale by Merritt & Robinson, Jacksonville.

Having withdrawn from the business of attending to land matters Squire Wm. Hoffman has turned every thing in that line over to Judge Day. Every one that had anything to attend to in this line always went to Squire Hoffman, knowing that all would be attended to in a business like manner when entrusted to his hands, but his successor will come as near filling the bill as any man in Jackson county.

P. J. Ryan of this place received a letter from his wife in San Francisco this week in which the question was asked "How Old Luce was?" Ryan was puzzled and had to consult his friends to find out who "Old Luce" was when some one suggested that his wife meant that she wanted to know the age of their son, Luke. Pat made his second trip around town to find out who the boy was born.
