

OREGON SENTINEL.

JACKSONVILLE
SATURDAY, JANUARY 17, 1885.
The Legislature.

This body met in the State house in Salem on Monday last and both branches effected an organization by Tuesday evening. The officers of the Senate are: President, William Wade, of Marion; Chief Clerk, J. W. Strange, of Douglas; Assistant Clerk, F. A. Cook, of Yamhill; Sergeant at Arms, J. S. Pardon, of Multnomah; Doorkeeper, A. M. Brown, of Marion; Pages, Clarence Smith and Eddi Crawford.

The officers of the House are as follows: Keady of Benton, Speaker; Col. Hewlett, of Multnomah, Chief Clerk; J. T. Gregg, of Marion, Assistant Clerk; J. C. Booth of Marion, Sergeant at Arms; Doorkeeper, Pages, Clarence Smith and Eddi Crawford.

The failure of the House to complete its organization Monday will postpone the first ballot for United States Senator for two weeks. Nobody seems to understand the failure, and it causes considerable comment and suspicion of design.

An endeavor will be made to secure the passage of a bill to create a new county out of portions of Wasco, Grant and Umatilla counties. The proposed new county will be bounded on the west and south by the John Day river and its north fork, and the eastern boundary reaches the Columbia river a little above Coyote. There are many good reasons for the organization of this new county, which it is proposed to call John Day county, and as nearly all the people to be affected by the change are favorable to it, the bill will probably pass.

The Senate Committee are as follows: Judiciary—Hare, Simon, Weatherford, Prim and Haines.

Ways and Means—Allen Hirsch, Pennington and Myers.

Claims—Warren, Coleman and Burch.

Elections—Simon, Siglin and Emmit.

Corporations—Cartwright, Bilyeu and Carson.

Public Buildings—Hirsch, Dorris and Lee.

Assessments—Davenport, Hare, Lee, Dorris and Meyers.

Counties—Emmitt, Reed and Hoult.

Commerce—Reed, Siglin and Hall.

Engrossed Bills—Lee, Hirsch and Rinehart.

Monetary Affairs—Shupe, Williams and Kinehart.

Education—Hall, Cauthorne and Davenport.

Enrolled Bills—Voorhes, Williams and Bilyeu.

Roads and Highways—Williams, Allen, Cauthorne, Davenport and Coleman.

Federal Relations—Carson, Prim Hoult.

Printing—Siglin, Burch and Voorhes.

Public Lands—Warren, Weatherford and Cartwright.

Mines—Miller, Hall and Haines.

Railroads—Allen, Belyon, Carson, Miller and Pennington.

The following committees are authorized to employ clerks: Enrolled Bills, Engrossed Bills, Judiciary, Ways and Means, Elections, Assessments, Commerce and Committee on Printing.

The "Oregonian" of the 15th gives the following bills presented by Southern Oregon members or affecting this section:

No. 4—By Lee—Locating a State Normal School.

No. 5—By Lee—Amending the assessment laws.

No. 10—By Miller—Defining the boundary line between Josephine and Jackson counties.

No. 11—By Miller—To relieve Josephine county from state taxes of the year 1884.

No. 12—By Carson—For the relief of insolvent debtors, protection of creditors and punishment of fraudulent debtors; and to repeal the act to secure creditors just division of estates of debtors who convey to assignees for the benefit of creditors.

No. 17—By Simon—to provide for the registration of voters.

No. 28—By Cartwright—to create the county of Whitman.

No. 29—By Hoult—to punish tramps.

No. 35—By Prim—Amending the Ashland city charter.

No. 36—By Prim—to incorporate Linkville.

No. 37—By Prim—to amend the civil code.

No. 59—By Simon—Amending the mechanics' lien law.

Five out of the twenty-one Presidents were of Scotch Irish lineage—Jackson, Polk, Buchanan, Johnson and Arthur; two of Scotch, Grant and Hayes, one of Welsh, Jefferson, and one of Dutch, Van Buren; the remaining twelve being of English descent.

Railroad to California.

The stockholders of the O. & C. R. R. recently voted at a meeting held in Portland to transfer their road to the Central Pacific if terms can be agreed upon. Alluding to this fact, the "Alta California" says that this, for several reasons, the most important recent railroad transaction on the Pacific coast. For one thing, it doubtless insures the early completion of the California and Oregon to a connection with the Oregon and California. In the gap between the nearest ends of the two roads, there is some of the roughest country for railroad building to be found in the United States, and while the roads were under different managements it was uncertain whether they would be built to a junction. But their union under one management makes it certain that the junction will be affected before long, for it is inconceivable that the Central Pacific should wish to lease the Oregon line unless it was to be operated in connection with the California system of roads. Assuming then, that the gap in the railroad connection of California and Oregon will be filled next summer, it is evident the benefits to the trade of San Francisco will be very great. The "Alta," speaking for San Francisco, says: "We shall now have a California line of railroad to Portland and stand a show to regain a part of what we have lost in that region. All of Southern Oregon will be practically as near to San Francisco as to Portland, if not nearer. Our wholesale merchants can go up and take possession of that country, for it will be of interest to the Central Pacific to give them advantages over the Portland merchants who do their overland freighting by the Northern Pacific or Oregon Short Line. It was a good day's work for San Francisco when the O. & C. was brought under control of a California company."

Schuyler Colfax.

Ex Vice-President Schuyler Colfax dropped dead in the Omaha depot at Mankato at 10:20, January 13th. He arrived over the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway, and walked over to the Omaha depot. He took off his overcoat, sat down, and almost immediately fell over and expired. His death is supposed to have been caused by heart disease. Schuyler Colfax was born in the city of New York, March 23, 1823, and was consequently almost 62 years of age. He was a grandson of General William Colfax, who commanded General Washington's life guards. In 1836 he removed with his mother, who was then a widow, to northern Indiana, settling at South Bend. As a whig candidate for congress he was defeated in 1851 but was elected in 1854, was six times re-elected, and continued to represent that district until 1869. He was chosen speaker of the house of representatives in December, 1863. In 1865 he made his celebrated trip across the continent with Samuel Bowles of the Springfield "Republican," and was again elected speaker in the same year. In 1867 he was elected a third time, and at the May convention in 1868 he was selected by the Republicans as their candidate for vice-president, on the ticket with General Grant. In November he was elected, but since his retirement in 1872 he has eschewed politics almost entirely.

Syrup of Figs.

Nature's own true Laxative. Pleasant to the Palate, acceptable to the Stomach, harmless in its nature, painless in its action. Cures habitual Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, and kindred ills. Cleanses the system, purifies the blood, regulates the liver and acts on the Bowels. Breaks up Colds, Chills and Fevers, etc. Strengthens the organs on which it acts. Better than bitter, nauseous medicines, pills, salts and draughts. Sample bottle free, and large bottles for sale by Merritt & Robinson, Jacksonville.

San Diego's long deferred hope of becoming the terminus of a transcontinental railroad will probably soon be realized. The California Southern is to be extended so as to connect with the Atlantic and Pacific, placing San Diego in connection with all the great eastern sea-ports.

Run on a Bank.

Reames Bros are receiving a fine assortment of Fancy and Dry Goods, Hats, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, and finest assortment of LADIES CLOAKS that has ever been brought to this market. All of which they are selling at prices that defy competition.

A Card.

Jacksonville, Oregon Jan. 16, 1885.
Ed. SENTINEL:—I see by the Times of the 9th inst. that Mr. DeWolf, smiling under the facts of his conduct as county Judge towards me, in passing upon my legal fees, has attempted to excuse himself by a false representation of the facts, hence I ask permission in your columns to say a few words to the Judge. Now, Judge, you need not attempt to excuse yourself for the action of your court towards me, for you know—if you know anything at all—the record shows that you allowed my legal fees of five dollars for your August term, 1884, in the case of the State vs. Anderson, charged with a felony, just such a case as that of the State vs. Davis, in which you erased my legal fees as certified in the bill, and reduced it one half at the November term of the county court following. Now Judge, how can you, with any shadow of honesty, or truth, stand in the face of your record, just that when you cut my fees down one half you supposed that to be the construction of the law, from the fact that when you were acting as Deputy District Attorney the old board cut down your fees one half. You know that you never tried to follow the precedent set by the old board. Now you say, "but no person knows better than yourself the causes which led to the fee being reduced?" I think that I do know the causes that led to the reduction of my legal fees at the November term of your court, and I propose to give them to you. The causes as I believe were on your part, as the boss and leader of your court, to be pure downright cunning and duplicity without regard to law or duty, which was caused by the Oregon SENTINEL in the issue of October 4th and 11th, 1884, putting two bars under your caudle extremity, (which was your own record) and set you to bucking, kicking and bellowing all at the same time, like a mad bull in a harem's nest. Now Sir, it was on account of these two publications in the SENTINEL of your record as county Judge of this county, that I was compelled, as District Attorney, under the laws of 1878, to have the matter examined into, and reported upon by the Grand Jury, and their report seems to be another bar that is pricking your most sensitive parts. Hence the causes of your court's action towards me. I will tell you Judge what a fact it is if you don't like the Grand Jury's report, upon your record as a servant of the people, you had better be more careful about what kind of a record you make in the future. I will say in regard to my being indignant at you, that I am not; the object is to nullify Judge, that it does not effect my indignation at all. If you come again, Judge, try and "tell the truth."
