A note from Prof. McGinnis states that the Medford "Journal" will not be issued before Friday, the 20th inst. It will take that long to get things in shape.

BOUND-OVER.—Frank Bills, who recently bought the saloon property of Wm. Worlew at Eagle Point, was arrested this week on three charges—selling liquor without a license, selling it to minors and for keeping a gambling house. At the preliminary examination before the Justice at that place he was bound over in the sum of $400 to appear before the grand jury and furnishing bail he was released from custody.

APPLICATION FOR PARDON.—A petition for the pardon of young Pitmann who forged his father's name to a deed for which he was sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of two years, has been in circulation this week and was generally signed by our citizens including several of the grand and petty jurors that convicted him. The boy is hardly of sound mind and as he has served about half of his term he has probably received punishment enough.

THE LATEST.—Just as we went to press we received the following dispatch which is self explanatory: GRANT'S PASS, Ogn. 6, 1885.

ED. SENTINEL: We are citizens of Josephine and you have our congratulations.

As a citizen of Jackson county we opposed this measure—and we are not a citizen of both, like some instances that could be cited—we now return congratulations and say that we would have done just as they did had we been a resident of their county. An enabling act for the changing of the county seat of Josephine will probably be the next move made when Grants Pass will more than likely be made the county seat—it being on the railroad and in telegraph communication with the outside world.

A CHANGE NEEDED.—The recent accident to the mail carrier on the Grants Pass-Wilderville route again shows that it is not a safe one to travel during the winter months. This has been one of the mildest winters ever experienced in Southern Oregon and notwithstanding this the contractor has failed five times in making connection—always on account of high water. Over the Jacksonville-Walden route, a distance of 65 miles, and reaching all the postoffices on the other line, not a single connection has been missed for several years, the stages always arriving on time. Pat McElshan is contractor on both routes but for four months in the winter season he says he would prefer carrying the mail over the Jacksonville route even if it is fifteen miles farther. The attention of the Postmaster General should be called to the way matters stand and the improvement made.

SAD AND FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday morning of this week Alex Jones, the mail carrier between Grants Pass and Wilderville, started on his regular trip from the first mentioned place, having four passengers, three paper mail sacks and one leek sack on his stage. The passengers were Mrs. George Jilson and two children and a young man named McClung. In crossing the ford on Applegate they found the stream quite high from recent rains but they undertook to cross it nevertheless but when near the middle of the stream they found the current too strong when the horses and the occupants of the wagon were all carried down stream and drowned. Up to last advice the only body found was that of one of the children but McClung is the same who drew pay from the railroad company by claiming to be the son of one of the employees for which he was prosecuted and sent to the penitentiary from Douglas county. He received his discharge the other day and was on the way to Josephine county where he has relatives residing. Mrs. Jilson is a relative of Mrs. Alex Jones and was probably going to Wilderville to pay that lady a visit, while Mr. Jones was mail carrier and hotel keeper at Wilderville and well known in this section.

RELIGIOUS ITEMS.—Rev. E. Gittins will hold services at Grants Pass next Sabbath. Rev. J. V. Milligan will hold services at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening. The bill before the Legislature increasing the salary of Circuit Court Judges was killed in the House and these officials will have to continue at the old salary of $2,000. We think a wrong spirit of economy seized our legislators when they took such action as we believe any one qualified to hold the position can make a much better salary in regular practice.

A report has been in circulation for some time past that P. W. O'well was going to move his flouring mill from Phoenix to Medford but in an interview yesterday he denied that such was the case. He says that he runs his mill eighteen hours a day, finds a ready sale for his flour and has not the least trouble in disposing of his hogs, in his present location and wants to know where the necessity of a change comes in. The report that the Jacksonville distillery would be moved to Medford is equally without foundation.

Henry Klippel and T. B. Kent have returned from Salem and report the Senatorial situation still badly mixed up. An election was expected before the close of the week, however, and the "Standard" of the 4th says that the triumph of John H. Mitchell's name is becoming louder and more distinct. Just when the break will be made cannot be definitely stated.

This is a good showing for so young a state.

James Lawrence returned from his trip to Texas on Monday last, and now says he has come to stay. Considering this the best place he found in all his travels. While absent he secured and sold a land certificate for 1280 acres of land in Texas, a bonus offered to volunteers in the Mexican war and says he was just in time as a delay of a few days would have left him out in the cold. We are glad to see him back.

The bill taking four townships from Jackson county and giving them to Josephine county has passed the House and the action of the Senate is reported as follows by the "Standard" of Thursday: "The relocation of the boundary lines between Jackson and Josephine counties was styled by Simon a family quarrel. Miller, of Josephine, desired to have the bill pushed through at once, but Prim, of Jackson, wanted it referred to the Committee on Counties—not to have it pushed through, as it was of vital importance to Jackson county. Miller stated with much warmth that such a reference was desired for the purpose of smothering the bill, not for the purpose of considering it carefully. It appears that the four townships that the bill takes from Jackson, does not provide for assuming any of its indebtedness; if the bill passes, it will be against the solemn protest of the people of Jackson county; referred to Committee on Counties."

Rev. P. Macken, the late rector of St. Francis church, in Portland, who had been seriously ill for several months departed this life on Wednesday last at 1 o'clock at his pastoral residence in East Portland. The reverend gentleman was born in 1822, and was therefore about 63 years of age at the time of his demise. The county Longford, Ireland, was his birthplace and the spot around which were entwined the memories of his childhood. The foundation of his ecclesiastical studies were laid in the well known seminary of Saint Kieran's in the county Carin, and he finished his studies in the old far famed college of St. Vincent, Castleknock, county Dublin, an institution which has given to the church many of its most zealous and vigilant apostles. Rev. E. X. Blanchet of this place was called to his bedside before his death and remained until after his funeral. He will return tomorrow morning in time for regular services.

ORGANIZED.—The Enterprise Mining Co. organized this week by the election of James A. Carlwell as President, J. Numan Secretary, J. G. Birdsey Treasurer and Superintendent. Bids for digging a shaft 50 feet deep were immediately asked for when it was found that the lowest submitted was $5 per foot. All bids were rejected but afterwards Sam Bailey and Frank Cimbersky took the contract at $3 per foot. Work was commenced at once but progress has been retarded on account of the heavy rains of the last few days. They are now down about twelve feet and have struck quartz, but none of a paying nature. The work will be continued right along and when it stops raining the boys will make better progress. We hope they will strike it rich and the company express their determination to test it thoroughly.

OF INTEREST TO PEEBLETION SETTLERS.—Suit was commenced in the United States district court yesterday by Wiley C. Smith, a citizen of Georgia, against William Ewing and Frank Duprat, to obtain possession of a piece of land. It is alleged in the bill that A. G. Webb in August, 1881, settled upon a pre-emption claim in Umatilla county, made the necessary improvement and filed the statement required by law in 1882, and subsequently made final proof, paid $2 50 per acre for the land, and received his certificate and had it recorded. Then Smith bought the land relying upon the title from government, and paid $2,000 for it. Some time after defendants, Ewing and Duprat, went upon the land and erected houses and cultivated some of it, and are now in possession and engaged in cutting and destroying the timber thereon, and forbid plaintiff from going on said ground. Wherefore plaintiff asks that the defendants be dispossessed, and that he be put in possession of the property. It seems that the land commissioner for some reason arbitrarily cancelled Webb's title to the land, and this suit is brought to test his right to do so. It is claimed by plaintiff that after the certificate had been granted the land commissioner had no right to annul it without due process of law. The point involved is of great interest to many persons.

COUNTY COURT.—This body met this week with a full board present when the following proceedings were had: Bartlett Obernichter was excused and Jef Wilson appointed supervisor of district No. 6. J. P. True appointed for district No. 4, in place of Jacob Walz, and E. W. Hammond in No. 12, in place of Barkhalter.

Ordered that the road described in the petition of J. S. Howard and others be established and report of assessors of damages received, giving John R. Rice $400, I. W. Thomas $25, Mrs. Mary A. Davison $50. The petition of Isaac Wolf and others for their road was denied unless petitioners pay all damages assessed thereon.

M. L. McCall, David Linn and A. S. Jacobs were appointed a board of commissioners to survey, locate and recommend a suitable site for the bridge across Rogue River at or near the point designated in petition. Also to make estimate of size and kind of bridge suitable and to report proximate cost thereof.

NUT-BEARING TREES.—Speaking of the kinds of nut-bearing trees which can be grown with profit, the "Farmer and Dairyman" says: The importance of cultivating nut-bearing trees in this part of the northwest will not depend so much on what can be made in growing the nuts for the domestic market as the future commercial value of the wood furnished by the trees. Especially will this apply to the walnut and hickories enumerated. With some of the seasonal hard woods selling in this market from $50 to $150 per thousand, it would seem as if there is a chance for those having energy and patience to grow large groves of hard wood trees, such as hickory, walnut, etc., to reap a rich future reward, or leave one to their children coming after.

The hickory would be large enough after a few years' growth to be used for many purposes, such as making ax handles, pick handles, wagon spokes, etc.

Substituted Constipation Is a prolific source of misery and many ills, giving rise to Headache, Dullness, Fevers, Nervousness, Restlessness, Biliousness, Indigestion, Poisoning of Blood, etc. The bitter, nauseous Liver medicines, pills, salts and draughts formerly used to relieve the sufferer, only aggravate the disease and sicken the stomach. All who are afflicted in that way, know the importance of the remedy pleasant to the palate, harmless in its nature, and truly beneficial in its action. The trial bottles of Syrup of Figs given away free of charge by our enterprising druggists Merritt & Robinson of Jacksonville prove that it is all that can be desired. Large bottles at fifty cents or one dollar.

There will be a business meeting of the W. C. T. U. on night at 7 o'clock sharp at the parlor of the Slater House. All members are particularly requested to be present.
