Prospects of General War Where Counterfeits are in Europe.

There is no telling at present where the impending war between Russia paper currency, in the treasury womand Bugiand may end, at all the Eu | en have almost superceded men They ropean nations are somewhat interested count better and faster, and in the in rival powers gaining strength and detection of counterfeits are unequaladvantage for future years. The com ed. Notes which circulate freely bined armies of Europe number at least through every bank in the country 4,000,000 men, and in time of war can are readily detrected the instant they be increased to 12,000,000. All the come into the hands of the women European nations keep up large stand operators in the treasury. It will be ing armies even in time of peace, so as noticed by anybody who ever gave to be constantly prepared for war, any attention to the subject that the which system adopted in this country, warnings to look out for counterfeits annual revenue to maintain such mili partment. This means that the dary strength .- This country requires counterfeit has circulated with impu no such self protection, and thus saves nity until it reaches the fingers of the a great amount of taxation to benefit women experts in the treasury; then

Russia are the strongest powers of bitle was known to be floating about Europe, and the war anticipated, may some time ago; the treasury sent ou for fear that nation may become so from experience, knew that it would great and pewerful as to domineer probably not bedetected until one reacht over all Europe, and thereby cause ed the treasury in a package of money the felfillment of Napoleon's prophest from one of the banks. At last it that Europe would become Republican came in a bundle from a log New or Cossack. Besides the great powers York bank. The young woman count Holland, Denmark, Sweden and Nor way, also maintain large standing =6800,000,000, and in time of war, would be greatly increased even in countries not directly at war, for there is no telling how soon they way beforced or dragged into the contest.

Russia is supposed to be in very poor condition financially, but has great resources and an immense por u lation from which to secure soldiers, while England, though much better off in money matters, lacks the numerical strength in the way of popula tion, except such native Asiatic and East India allies, who are of but little account in fighting with European-

The Russians do not seem to back down a particle from England's demands, and the British Government seems to be mad, with a determination to fight if no satisfaction is rendered .br Russia for the attack on tir Afghans in the Herat section. Russis but England has an extensive commercial marine business, which a few Russian cruisers can destroy, and wilno doubt intercept on every sea, ever on this coast, along the shores of Asia Australia and British Columbia.

There arrived at Portland last week a party of 49 immigrants from Wilker and Alleghany counties, North Care lina, in charge of Rev. I. T. Torvett. Among them were Dr. John L. Smith and family, 11 in number, and Just Dowdentras and A. F. Davis, wi h their families. The greater number of the party were stout, hardy-looking young men, who, as Trevett states, have been brought up to hard work. They came through from Marion, V'r ginia, in eight days, stopping one day at Kansas City. They all arrived in good health and were surprised and delighted with the beautiful weather they found here, so different from what they had experienced on the route, and were much astonished to find the trees in full feliage and the gardens gay with flowers of all kinds, while in the section they left and on all their long route across the continent there is yet scarcely a sign of spring. The party broke up at Portland and most of them came to Southern Oregon. Trevett will spend several weeks in llooking over the state, and will then return to North Carolina to bring out another party. There is every induce ment for people to immigrate from that country to Oregon. Those wages are only $7 per-month, the land sterile and climate not so genial as that of Oregon. The heads of families in this party have means to purchase land, and the young men will soon earn enough to purchase claims for them solves.

The stockholders of the Oregon and California Rai'road held a meeting in Portland last Tansday afternoon, but deferred the election of directors and adjourned the meeting until May 14th. It is reported that negotiations are pending for the transfer of the line to Charles Crocker and the Central and Southern Pacific interests. Henry Villard, ex president of the Northern Pacific Company, is reported as worl ing the wires for the consolidation of the reads. It is understood that pending the above the election was postpened for one month.

Owing to a disastrous defeat of the French troops in China the Ferry ministry were called upon to resign. France is in a dilemma. To whip China it must send the flower of its army from home, and European complications render that a very hezardDetected.
