

The Memorial Stone.

Inasmuch as Oregon was one of the two States that had contributed no memorial stone to the monument erected to the memory of the Father of his country (Colorado being the other) our last Legislature made provision to meet the shortcoming and a gentleman in Albany has already utilized the appropriation. It is supposed that each State contributes memorials from some of the natural stone or metals of the State. For instance Michigan contributes a solid copper plate, planed smooth, with coat of arms and motto in silver plate on its face. Nevada sends a block of porphyry with motto inlaid with silver letters. Oregon will send a block made from the beautiful granites and syenites of Linn county. The Albany "Bulletin" thus describes Oregon's contribution: In the center of the block will be carved the coat of arms of the State, with the motto "The Union," in a band across its face. Around the margin of the stone is a wreath embracing many of the berries, fruits and flowers, indigenous to the State. Between this and the coat of arms the principal cereals and grasses of the State appear. All the carving will be done in bas-relief, making the fruits and cereals look like life and natural. These different memorial stones are to be placed in niches in the interior walls of the monument, and are to be about 4 1/2 feet long by 2 feet wide and six inches thick, and will be viewed from platforms as you ascend towards the top of this monument of monuments. The whole interior will be lit up by electricity, dazzling the eye and presenting a scene of rich and varied art not to be found in this country or on the continent of Europe. The stone from each State is more or less elaborately finished according to the appropriations made. Probably New York and Pennsylvania have made the largest appropriations and have at present the finest and most costly pieces in the structure.

The Lease of the O. R. & N.

New York, May 24.—The lease of the Oregon Railway and Navigation by the Union and the Northern Pacific has been the principal topic of conversation in railroad circles the last week. With both the Union and Northern Pacific using the Oregon Railway and Navigation line to Portland, and the steamer line to San Francisco, and the Atchafalaya road building through to San Diego, the Central Pacific will have both northern and southern lines to contend against, with power on their side to enforce a fair division of traffic, or, in the event of refusal, to demoralize rates so that all profit in the business will be gone. This special dispatch to the "Oregonian" points out the embarrassment of the Central Pacific under the arrangement by which the Northern Pacific and Union Pacific take the Oregon Railway and Navigation property. The impression among railroad men in Portland is that the Central Pacific will try for a share of the northern trade, or at least defend its own field by putting in the link between Ashland and Delta.

April is heavily dotted with Grant anniversaries. April 1, 1865, he turned Lee's right at Five Forks; April 2, he was assaulted and carried the lines at Petersburg; April 3, he entered Petersburg and Richmond; April 6, 1862, the battle of Shiloh began; April 7, Grant drove the Confederate army from the field; April 8, 1865, he had thrown his cavalry across Lee's line of retreat; April 9, Lee surrendered to Grant. But, the most important event of all to Gen. Grant, he was born April 27, 1822.

Disappointed office seekers say the Marysville "Appeal" are now spelling Democrat with a small d, and neither of the four Democratic Senators from Ky. and Missouri will visit the White House. The Democratic Senators and Representatives from Texas also declare that if Democrats are not given the local offices at once they will kick. The kickers tell Hendricks to hold on and they will beat Cleveland in 1888. The Bourbons now call the Clevelandites "Democratic Mugwumps."

We regret to see that our esteemed independent contemporaries have lost temper over certain recent federal appointments in New England. They should not be so skittish; as we remarked on a former occasion, it is now time for them to stand without hitching, like the rest of us. Really, if the independents feel so bad at seeing old fashioned Democrats appointed to office, they should have voted for Blaine.
