Fruit Grower's Meeting.

JACKSONVILLE, Or., Oct. 8, 1885. The fruit growers of Southern Oregon met to-day at 1 o'clock P. M., President, B. F. Miller in the chair.

The minutes of the special meeting held Aug. 26th were read and approved. Col. R. F. Maury presented the association with a large basket full of choice samples of apples and pears, among which were the Ben Davis Dutch Magone, Baldwin and Lady apple, and the Barre De-Anjo pear.

Wm. Kahler favored the society with a very fine basket of fruit consisting of Yellow Bellflower and Belmont apple, second crop Bartlett pear and some excellent specimens of sweet potatoes of the Nancarrow variety weighing from 2 1/2 to 3 pounds.

B. F. Miller exhibited a splendid sample of the Souvenir Da Congress pear, and presented his final report on varieties of fruit most suitable for shipping. The report was unanimously adopted. A. H. Carson delivered quite a lengthy and instructive lecture on the peach. He dwelt upon the importance of thorough cultivation and drainage, pruning, packing and marketing the fruit and altogether his speech was encouraging to the fruit growers.

Col. Ross addressed the house a few minutes in his characteristic and vigorous style. Wm. Kahler, Esq., spoke a few moments on irrigation. L. P. Clark was appointed to speak on the subject of fruit growing at the next meeting.

On motion of G. F. Pennelaker the meeting adjourned to next January 4, 1886. J. H. Griffin, Sec.

Surface Indications. When a ulcer vessel very properly termed "surface indications" of what is beneath, are the Blisters, Sores, Eruptions, Etc., and Catarrhs of the various parts of the body, the medicine recommended by Dr. J. C. Ayer is the only one that cures. It is the only one that cures. It is the only one that cures.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which is sufficiently powerful to expel from the system even the faintest Hereditary Taint. The medical profession endorse AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and many attestations of the cures effected by its use from all parts of the world. It is, in the language of the Hon. Francis Pickens, ex-Governor of South Carolina, "the best medicine of the kind."
