

SOCIAL PARTY.—The Red Men of this place have concluded to give a social party on the evening of Thanksgiving at their own hall. The tickets have been placed at $1.00 and nothing will be left undone to make it a first-class and enjoyable affair. Everybody is invited.

PAINTED RED.—When the news of the election of Hon. John H. Mitchell to the United States Senate reached Jacksonville there was general rejoicing; Republicans and Democrats going arm in arm to celebrate this grand victory. Guffs were fired, the band played, and the universal enthusiasm of the large crowd celebrating was something not seen every day.

CHILD'S SNOW FLAKE.—Every lady wishing a clear, delicate complexion, should use Child's Snow Flake. It nourishes and freshens the skin, removes tan and sunburn, and the natural appearance imparted, renders it impossible to detect its use. Warranted perfectly harmless. Sold by all druggists, or by the manufacturers, John A. Child & Co., Druggists, Portland, Oregon. Mail orders promptly attended to, Price 50 cents.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—While working in P. Donegan's shop cutting from a piece of the metal struck Wm. Smith in the eye causing injuries that will cause him to lose the use of that optic forever. Dr. Aiken, the attending physician, thinks it possible to restore sight in the injured eye but the chances are no less than ten to one that this result can be accomplished. The young man's many friends wish him the best success possible in whatever operation may be required hereafter.

PROBATE COURT.—In the matter of the estate of Wm. Briner, deceased, J. W. Plymire, F. Barrebourg and Arthur Wilson appointed appraisers. Estate of Wm. Williams. Inventory filed and an order granted to sell personal property. Estate of Phoebe Balthasar. Inventory filed showing real property to the value of $100. Estate of E. A. Fossil. First annual exhibit approved. Estate of M. Colewell. Hearing of petition for sale of real estate postponed until December term.

BEYOND HORIZON.—Mr. L. B. Woodworth, of Oakland, Cal., who bought the large band of John Fairchild in Siskiyou county, Cal., last year, has been out in Klamath county and in this valley making purchases this month. In Sprague river valley he bought seventy head of goldings of the Wells and Siskiyou brand $80 a head, and in this valley he has bought about twenty-five head. The Wells' brand he says was at one a collection of horses and steers as he has seen anywhere in the country, and the prices, for unbroken horses, just off the range, is pretty good. The prices paid for those bought in this valley were from $80 up.—"Tribune."

THE MCDANIEL.—The trial of Mrs. Amanda McDaniel as an accomplice in the murder of her husband is now progressing in the Circuit Court and it will probably continue till next week before a verdict is rendered. Out of the regular panel only seven juries were secured and a special venire of twenty-four were then drawn when the list was completed. District Attorney Keat and H. K. Hanna are prosecuting while J. R. Neil, C. W. Kahler and J. T. Bowditch appear for the defense. The following gentlemen compose the jury: F. Hubbard, G. S. Wallon, R. F. Dean, J. W. Plymire, G. W. Howard, H. C. Turpin, Wm. Mayfield, F. M. Parker, B. F. Miller, J. T. Layton, T. J. Keaton, Wm. Miller.

CAUGHT IN A TUNNEL.—On its northbound trip last Saturday night, while a heavy rainstorm was raging in the mountains, the passenger train found its exit from one of the tunnel's side of Delta completely blocked by a landslide. On bucking to get out of the tunnel, this end had also slid in since the train had passed, and they found themselves imprisoned within the dismal tunnel, and as the telegraph wires were broken by the slides, they could get no assistance, and were obliged to pass the night there. In the morning one of the train men managed to get out of the tunnel and walked to Delta to get help, so that at 1 o'clock Sunday the imprisoned train got out and went on its way rejoicing. Arrangements have now been made to run a daylight swing train between here and Delta, as was done last winter, while the stormy weather continues.—"Redding Independent."

RELIGIOUS ITEMS.—Elder H. C. Fleming preaches at the Lone Oak school house next Sunday. Elder M. Peterson preaches at Medford on Sunday, both morning and evening. Regular services will be held at the Catholic church in this place, F. X. Blanchet officiating. Rev. A. R. Bickenbach will hold services at Phoenix in the morning and at this place in the evening, Sunday. Rev. W. P. Williams will hold services at the M. E. church in this place on Sunday, both morning and evening. Rev. J. R. Roberts of the M. E. church, South will preach at the Phoenix school house next Sunday at 11 o'clock A. M. The quarterly meeting of the M. E. church, South, for this circuit was held at Brownborough last Saturday and Sunday. The quarterly meeting of the M. E. church, South, for Applegate circuit, will be held on Williams creek today and Sunday. Rev. E. G. Michael, P. E., will be in attendance.

Local Items.

Thursday next is Thanksgiving. New goods at Merrill's and Colvin's. Mitchell is elected. Carry the news to Harvey.

The Chick quartz mill at Medford is about ready to commence crushing rock.

We understand that the Albany "Herald Disseminator" is to start a daily at that place soon.

Senators Prim and Representative Cameron have our thanks for documents sent us this week.

Ike Skeeters of Josephine county called the other day and to appear better looking than ever.

The oldest son of Robt. M. Garrett of Ashland had a leg broken this week when trying to climb a wagon.

The Red Men's hall comes off next Thursday night and all lovers of a jolly good time should be present.

Hays & Elliott of this place published a card in the Medford "Monitor" desiring that they would open a shop there.

Another Bakery and restaurant was started here this week in V. it Schen's brick with George Beck in charge.

Thos. Chavner of Gold Hill is lying seriously ill at his home of bronchitis. Dr. Price of Medford is the attending physician.

A lot of young carp were received at the express office here one day this week consigned to John O'Brien of Applegate.

The McDaniel murder case causes the attendance of a large number of witnesses from Ashland and its immediate vicinity.

Notwithstanding the election of John H. Mitchell to the United States Senate, Plymire will keep his prices for ivory on this as low as ever.

Dan Hunt of Josephine county is in town and informs us that the mines in his section have commenced work leaving plenty water to work with.

Mrs. J. C. Elder of Medford died at that place Wednesday. Mr. Elder and wife were former residents of Josephine county where they are well and favorably known.

Squire Wm. Hoffman's funeral on Monday last was one of the largest ever seen in Jacksonville people coming from all portions of the county to pay their last respects.

Youthful people have placed more than 20,000 acres of lands in the hands of an agent for sale and sent him to the eastern states to secure purchasers and send out colonies.

Hon. Ganger Hermann, accompanied by his family, will leave for Washington city next Saturday to represent Oregon in the national congress. May good fortune go with them.

At the special school meeting held here on Tuesday last Prof. J. W. Merritt was chosen director in place of George Brown and a four mill tax voted to support the school for the coming year.

With Mitchell in the Senate and Hermann in the Lower House of Congress, Oregon will now make her claims known, and show the rest of the people that we are part of the United States.

In response to a telegram request from the family, J. H. Hoffman of Linkville, was summoned here this week to attend the funeral of his uncle. He will remain several days before returning.

In examining the so-called Chinese quarters in Tacoma the citizens found an accumulation of hands and feet that had rotted off of Chinese lepers. The stench arising from the mass of corruption was most horrible and sickening.

A quartz mill in Jacksonville is now an assured fact as nearly the full amount asked for as a bonus has been raised. The terms of contract call for an $8,000 mill and Mr. L. D. Brown expects to start below tomorrow night to order it.

Next Thursday will be Thanksgiving. We are going to have turkey and cranberry sauce at that time and if any member of the family refuses to hurray for Mitchell after the closing exercises he or she will be "shot dead on the spot."

Ed. Piening of Rock Point precinct was among our callers this week. He came on an invitation from the Sheriff, but for Mr. Piening's benefit we will state that he was not arrested on a criminal charge and was only subpoenaed here as a witness in the McDaniel murder case.

The President made the following appointments on the 16th: Registers of land office, Henry Richard of Oregon, at La Grande, Oregon; Winfield S. Austin, of Washington territory, at Olympia; receiver of public moneys, John T. Oathouse, of Oregon, at La Grande, Oregon.

The Baker City "Sage Brush" has the following warning: Again we inform our readers that the Pine creek mines is no place for a poor man this fall. There is no work at which they can find employment and they had better seek employment elsewhere until spring.

Mrs. B. D. Forest, teacher of elocution in the Williamsite University, will give an elocutionary entertainment in Jacksonville, Monday, Dec. 7th, for the benefit of the M. E. Sunday School. She is well known as a lady of high social position and rare elocutionary talent, and our appreciative people will undoubtedly give her a good hearing.

Wheat, Feige & Co. succeeded in securing a money order feature to their express business in about two weeks. It will be modeled on the basis of that already in existence in the postoffice. It is understood that it will provide against loss, and will be as rapid and at the same time cheaper than the postoffice system.

Some of our merchants last week paid as high as 1 1/2 cents per pound on freight from Delta. Others made contracts some time ago to have their freight delivered at 1 1/2 cents per pound, and a quarter of a cent raise over summer rates. On a small lot we paid this week 2 cents per pound.—Yreka "Union."

The land between the 20 and 30 mile or indemnity limits of railroads, grant, will now be applied for rapidly. The commissioner has decided that the railroad company cannot claim this indemnity land until they fail to secure the amount granted within the 20 mile limit on each side of road, nor can they make application for the same till the railroad is completed.

An Iowa paper (the "Livesmore Gazette") has the following: "While we are waiting for our exchange to begin their season's living about big ears of corn, we wish for shame to read in one of them an account of a frog having fallen into a pail of milk one night, and being found in the morning seated upon a roll of butter which he had churned in his fruitless efforts to get out."

As usual at this season when eggs are scarce and dear, Oregon hens have struck, and the market is being supplied with eggs from Iowa. Just how it is in that cold climate the hens are kept up to their work is something which the poultry raisers want to find out. We have about all the fancy breeds of poultry known, but the breed wanted is the one that can produce eggs when the price is high.—"Oregonian."

Concerning the Josephine county court house case, the Grant's Pass "Courier" says: "After the decision of Judge Webster in an action of injunction wherein the county of Josephine and Sol. Abraham were defendants and Jonathan Burns was plaintiff, a citizen proposed to the judge and commissioners that the county board call an extra session and rescind the motion wherein the county has been joint defendant with the said Abraham, and if Mr. Abraham and Mr. Burns wish to fight at law about the location of the county building, let them do so at their own expense. There is a point in this suggestion that is worth considering, and one that is being commented upon by the best citizens of this county."

A pleasant social gathering took place at the residence of Mrs. W. G. T'Vault, last Wednesday evening, that day being the 75th anniversary of her birth. Mrs. T'Vault came to Oregon in 1845, and has lived in Jacksonville county since 1852; and is one of the pioneer women whose generous hospitality will ever be remembered by the early settlers of this state, and it will be pleasant for her many friends to hear of her continued good health she has witnessed the progressive development of the Pacific northwest from a wilderness to an empire, and as the shadows of the evening of her life are lengthening, the loving hands of her daughter, grand children and great grand children anticipate her every want. The Silver Cornet Band tendered her a serenade, refreshments were served, and the guests departed wishing Mrs. T'Vault many happy returns of the day in which the SENTINEL which was founded by Col. T'Vault, her late husband heartily joins.

CUTTING FIVE WHISKIES.—Again we greet our many friends, reminding them that the season of "peace on earth and good will towards men," is rapidly approaching, when prosperity and generosity go hand in hand, and the whole civilized world seeks for those tributes and mementos which serve to bind closer the friends of fleeting years. After the fall comes the storm; the season of depression is rapidly passing away. The signs of the times indicate a better and more active future, and in anticipation of an increased demand for fine whiskies, we will give personal attention to the best of European and Eastern liquors. We now offer to our patrons the advantage of selecting from these fine whiskies, which we guarantee will not be excelled on the coast. We have in stock, J. F. Cutter, Extra, Old Bourbon, and Argonaut whiskies. Merritt & Robinson has been appointed agent for the celebrated "J. F. Cutter" whisky for this section of Jacksonville county. He will sell at same price that you would have to pay at E. Martin & Co's distillery, Ky. Put up in half and whole bottles; also cases of Cutter at S. F. Prices.

John L. Burns, commercial agent for E. Martin & Co., 408 Front St., San Francisco. Jan 11 1885.

Habitual Constipation is a prolific source of misery and many ills, giving rise to Headache, Dizziness, Fever, Nervousness, Restlessness, Biliousness, Indigestion, Poisoning of Blood, etc. The bitter nauseous Liver medicines, pills, salts and draughts formerly used to relieve the sufferer, only aggravate the disease and sicken the stomach. All who are afflicted in that way, know the importance of the remedy pleasant to the palate, harmless in its nature, and truly beneficial in its action. The trial bottles of Syrup of Figs given away free of charge by our enterprising druggists Merritt and Robinson of Jacksonville prove that it is all that can be desired. Large bottles at fifty cents or one dollar.

Arch Bishop Gross.

Arch Bishop Gross, of Portland, delivered the last of a series of lectures at the court house in Jackson,ville last Monday evening. The interest had increased during his sojourn, that the large court room was packed and many unable to obtain seats. The Bishop is of medium height, rosy figure, and fair complexion, and has a fine broad head, with a marked development of the spiritual and intellectual organs, lacking by self-esteem and combativeness, which are held in abeyance by the dignity and culture of the true Southern gentleman. He is a native of Maryland, and proud of his birthright of American citizenship, but views with a slight foreign accent, whether it is the inheritance of foreign parentage, or a corruption of the language, acquired by the constant use of the many languages at his command could not be determined. His large language and healthy give grace and beauty to his expressions, and every sentence is rounded and polished until it falls on the ears of his most bitter opponent with a persuasive eloquence that inspires them with a desire to hear him again of this matter." He began his lecture in the Augustan age, and briefly outlined the wranglings of the different schools of philosophy that were agitating Greece and Rome, and contending for supremacy in that age, bringing out the bitter persecutions to which many were subjected, and the blessed Saviour of mankind, whose advent had been foretold by the Prophets, and was heralded at his birth by the shepherds of Bethlehem. Christ the Son of God, began his ministry he too was persecuted, buffeted, and spit upon, and when he was scourged before Pontius Pilate, the Roman governor under Caesar Augustus, where he was crucified, "but in this and was I need not for this cause came I into the world, to bear witness to the truth." This scene, Christ before Pilate, is one that always appeals to the heart of the Christian world, but as the Bishop particularly told the story of the Saviour's night of suffering and persecution, in which a common disciple had denied him, and in the early morning, pale from the agony of the night, he fearlessly declares the truth of His Divine ministry, before the Roman governor, the graphic word-picture seems endowed with a living force to move the hearts of his hearers. The Bishop here alluded to a characteristic of our people which he said was distinctly American, the courteous consideration that was accorded to each other in the expression of the individual right of opinion, and paid a graceful tribute to his native state of Maryland, which he said was the first of the colonies to guarantee to the people the right of religious liberty. He referred to Christ's command to His disciples to go forth and preach the gospel, and his promise "he will be with them all days, even unto the end of the world," and then took up the subject of infidelity, which he put with an assurance to the audience of the utter absence of bigotry on his own part, and asked of the people the generous consideration of the subject that he expected of an American audience, where bigotry had not an abiding place in the hearts of the people. His argument was logical and comprehensive, embracing the different passages of scriptures upon which the Catholic Church predicated the claim of the true church which, he gave in original language, with the translations, and concluded by expressing his grateful appreciation of courteous attention, and assured his hearers of his prayers for their future health and prosperity. Should the Arch Bishop visit this place again it is useless to assure him of a kind reception, as he won for himself the good will of all by his pleasant social disposition, and the courtesy and candor that marked his public addresses. His audience at the court house must have exceeded 500 and on all occasions he received the most respectful attention.

Physicians Were in Yala. Mr. David Netter, 755 Mission street, San Francisco, Cal., writes that for several months he suffered from a severe cold and cough, which finally resulted in total hoarseness. He consulted several physicians, but obtained no relief; and then tried Red Star Cough Cure. After taking a few doses he felt better, and before he had finished a bottle he was completely cured.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

EMIGRANT TRAIN DERIVED.—The northbound freight train which left Ashland Tuesday morning was thrown from the track in the Cow creek cañon. In rounding a sharp curve, the engineer discovered a large tree lying across the track a short distance ahead. He reversed his engine, but could not stop quick enough, and the engine and three cars were derailed, the remainder of the train being left standing on the track. No one on the train was injured, the engineer and fireman saving themselves by jumping before the engine left the track. Two ladies were on the train and while being conveyed on a hand car to the nearest station one of them fell from the car and was injured slightly. The passenger trains being unable to pass, transferred their passengers, mail and express matter, and Wednesday morning's express was therefore about six hours late in reaching Ashland. A temporary track allowed the express trains to pass around Monday—"Tribune."

Surface Indications

What a minor would ever properly term "Surface Indications" of what is beneath are the Pimples, Siles, Sore Eyes, Itch, and Catarrhus Eruptions with which people are annoyed in spring and early summer. The entire matter accumulated during the winter months, now makes its presence felt through Nature's endeavors to expel it from the system. While it remains, it is poison that festers in the blood and may develop into Scrofula. This condition causes derangement of the digestive and assimilatory organs, with a feeling of enervation, humor, and weariness—often feebly spoken of as "outy spring fever." These are evidences that Nature is not able, unaided, to throw off the corrupt atoms which weaken the vital forces. To regain health, Nature must be aided by a thorough blood-purifying medicine; and nothing else is so effective as Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which is sufficiently powerful to excel from the system even the most Hereditary Scrofula.

The medical profession endorse AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and many testimonials of the cures effected by it from all parts of the world. It is, in the language of the Hon. Francis Jewett, ex-Governor of Massachusetts, and ex-Mayor of Lowell, "the only preparation that does real, lasting good."
