

With this issue the SENTINEL begins its 31st volume. It is needless to preface this article with useless regrets for the past or impossible promises for the future...

Congressman Herman's Work

The call of states for the introduction of bills Monday was not finished when the house adjourned. Oregon was not reached on the list...

Bill for the relief of citizens of Oregon and Idaho who have been...

Bill fixing the salaries of the several judges of the United States district courts of $5,000 per annum.

Joint memorial of the Oregon legislature for indemnification for spoliation by Indians during the Rogue river war of 1855-56.

Bill for payment of claims of citizens of Oregon for supplies furnished volunteers in 1855-56, during the Indian war, which were audited by the war commissioners.

Petition of George Bennett and twenty-six others, asking for $100,000 for improvement of the Coquille river.

Memorial of the Oregon legislature for an appropriation to open the channel of the Umpqua river as far as Elkton, in Oregon.

Memorial of the Oregon legislature asking for an appropriation to continue work on the jetty at the mouth of the Columbia river.

Bill to provide for the retirement of Brigadier General Rufus Ingalls as major-general in the United States army.

Bill to provide for the construction of a public building at Oregon City for the United States land office, post office and United States signal service office, to cost $50,000.

Bill to provide for the construction of a public building at Roseburg, to cost $50,000.

Also bills for the relief of the following persons: Thomas Guinan, S. B. Granston, John Fitzhugh, B. Jennings, A. D. Babcock, P. C. Davis, Elizabeth Bates, Thomas J. Miller, H. B. Ostman, John Alexander, Tunis Swick, George H. Washington, F. M. Vanderpool, Hadley Hobson, J. H. Smith, John Hagar, Christiana Edson and Michael Riley.

The anti-Chinese citizens of Tacoma, W. T., who were indicted by the Grand Jury of Clark county propose to challenge the validity of the jury which found indictments against them.

The question will be raised whether women are eligible as jurors of the United States. Judge Hoyt thinks they are, but the Supreme court of the United States may take an opposite view.

Gold Hill Items.

The Trumble Bros. are grinding wheat day and night. Miss Ella Griffiths school is in a flourishing condition.

Ex-Gov. Chadwick will be at Gold Hill one day this week to look after his mining interests.

W. J. Jacoby is now a full fledged post master, having received his papers Christmas day. Mr. J. wears his honors with the modesty that characterizes the most approved mug-wump.

Mr. Fielder recently arrived from Michigan has purchased a place near Central Point. Mr. F. and family are fine people and we would have been pleased had they located near Gold Hill.

Miss Alice Mathews who has been attending school at Medford accompanied by her brother returned Sunday evening and remained at Gold Hill one night. They were guests of Mrs. A. J. Barlow.

The shooting match Christmas eve for a purse of $28 00, first best $19 00, second best $9 00, was well attended and the shooting closely contested. Henry Neathamer got first money and C. C. McClendon second.

Those members of the Pylonathian society that absented themselves from the entertainment thinking thereby the performance would be a failure got badly left. Their names was not even mentioned. Like Bobby Burns we say "Oh would to God some power would give us to see ourselves as others see us."

The entertainment given by the Pylonathian Literary Society Christmas eve was a success. The proceedings opened by prayer and a brief address by Rev. G. W. Whitney. The singing by the choir was pronounced good. Miss E. G. Miller manipulated the organ and sang solo. She was supported by Mrs. A. J. Barlow, Ella and Rosa Griffiths and Mrs. Cawley who sang soprano. The Rev. Mr. Whitney sang bass. In the charade Miss Ella Griffiths as Mrs. Miller as Mr. Wilson proved himself equal to the occasion. The singing, select reading and recitation by Miss Rosa and Julia Fielder is worthy of special mention.

Mrs. Alice Cawley delivered an original address filled with profound thought and enabling sentiment. She referred to some of the principal events of the year 1885, she spoke feelingly of the death of the great soldier and statesman, General Grant. She also alluded to the death of the peerless statesman, vice-president, Hendricks. She said the year 1885, now about to shake hands with 1886, and retire from the watch tower forever, had heralded its millions into eternity; she said the noble, the pure, the generous of earth, could see the goal of their fellows, while the devoted, the true and the virtuous could see only the dark and gloomy future.

School Superintendent, Wm. Colvig, got off the train at Rock Point the other night and started to walk across the Rock Point bridge. It was as dark as a stack of black cats in a dark alley. The Superintendent walked up against Ben Haymonds old brindle cow, that happened to be laying down about the middle of the bridge, she jumped up and stood the Supt. on his head as he came down however, he fell on another cow that tossed him a back summer sault, this time he lit in a sitting posture. No sooner had he struck the plank of the bridge than his carpet bag filled with school books came down and drove his stiff hat clean down on his shoulders. At this point he sent up a yell that made Ross howl. He says the next time he crosses that bridge of a dark night he wants a lantern.

Judge Stearns of Portland has decided the great suit of Holladay vs. Holladay in favor of Ben. Joe Holladay is given judgment for $239,687, and the note given to him by his brother is declared not usurious. The property in question is valued at over $650,000.

The richest man in the Senate is Stanford, the junior senator from Cal., whose wealth is estimated at $40,000,000. Senator Stanford is a great railroad builder, and a public benefactor, as shown by his recent princely gift of $20,000,000, to the California University.

Three native Americans are among those recently elected to the British Parliament, the two Bartletts and F. A. Channing, a grandnephew of the great divine, who is an Oxford man and is regarded as of high promise. He is a Liberal, for Northamptonshire.

Surface Indications

What a miser would very properly term "surface indications" of what is beneath, are the Pimples, Sores, Eruptions, Itch, and Cutaneous Eruptions with which people are annoyed in spring and early summer. The effete matter accumulated during the winter months, now makes its presence felt, through Nature's endeavors to expel it from the system. While it remains, it is a poison that festers in the blood and may develop into Scrofula. This condition causes derangement of the digestive and assimilatory organs, with a feeling of exhaustion, languor, and weakness—often lightly spoken of as "only spring fever." These are evidences that Nature is not able, unaided, to throw off the corrupt atoms which weaken the vital forces. To regain health, Nature must be aided by a thorough blood-purifying medicine; and nothing else is so effective as

which is sufficiently powerful to expel from the system even the latent Hereditary Scrofula. The medical profession indorse AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and many attestations of the cures effected by it come from all parts of the world. It is, in the language of the "Boston Herald," an "ex-Senator of Massachusetts and ex-Mayor of Lowell," "the only preparation that does real, lasting good."

PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; Six bottles for $5.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Jackson. Mary A. Donegan, plaintiff, vs. John Donegan, defendant. IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF Oregon and by order of L. R.
