WILL PROVE A BOOK .- The recent rait a, in southern Oregon will prove a great book to the miners. The streams have been higher than at may time for six years One mine at Waldo will take out about $20,000 as a result of the recent rains, and from the other mines large returns are expected, which will relieve the financial stringency of Josephine county and benefit other parts of the state _"Statesman "

THE MASQUERADE.-The Mask Ball given by the Silver Cornet Band last evening was a success, of course, a large crowd of spectators being present be sides seventy tickets sold to dancers. We failed to get the list of maskers for this issue through the negligence of some one and can only say that there were quite a lot of them. Four cash prizes were awarded for the best dreused and best sustained characterthe following being the lucky winners: H. D. Kuldi, as Hamlet, John Kaip pet, Nigger Dude, Miss Fields, Flower Girl and Johny Miller as Soow Flake. Dancing was kept up until a late hour in the morning and everybody seemed happy.

CHAT WITH MR. BROWS .- L. D. Brown has just returned from a few weeks' visit to Jacksonville. To a night that work on his quartz mill at Jacksonville was nearly finished and amount to the town treasury this week, feets of late storms. will be in running order by the end of the coming week. The machinery is being placed in position now. The mill will crush ten tons ef quartz daily. Mr. Brown reports that all the quartz mines in the vicinity of Jacksonville are looking well. Over 100 men are rock. This is the first time in twenty be done. years that prospecting has been done in this region. The ledges hold out well and do not decrease in size and richness the farther they are down from the grass roots. The mountains back of Jacksonville are a perfect net work of ledges. The ore is low grade but pays. Mr. Brown returns to Jacksonville Saturday. He says that if the mill now nearly ready to begin work pays, as indications promise, he will construct one and possibly two more mills in Jacksonville,-Pert-
