The Judges Story.

"You talk about 'dogs,'" said the Judge, "you talk about dogs—I can tell you the funniest story about a dog."

"Did you know the dog said the doctor.

"I did. This dog belonged to a friend of mine, who used always to take him out with him."

"A bad habit," put in the doctor, "you should never let a dog know too much."

"The dog used to wait outside for him when he went in to call on a friend. One night they were a very merry party and they kept it up late. My friend got very drunk. The dog finally got restless and began to howl. A champagne bottle just passed his nose and he smelt it and shut up. About 2 o'clock in the morning my friend came out. He said good-night, shut the door, walked in by the garden gate all over the flower beds, and finally, unable to get out, he lay down on a rosebush and went to sleep. The dog watched by him till the milkman came along in the morning, picked him up and took him home."

"That's nothing," said the doctor.

"You just wait a minute. Two or three nights later he went and called on his friend again and took the dog with him. The dog waited outside a little while and began to howl. Another champagne bottle was thrown at him. He smelt it, winked to himself, and trotted off. He went home, scratched at the door till the servant girl opened it, attracted my friend's wife's attention, made her follow him to a pile of planks and whined till they got out a very long and broad one. Then he directed them to where his master was, and when the door bell rang and the door opened, the revelers found the dog, my friend's wife, the servant and a stretcher. That dog knew what was needed you bet."

"Well," said the doctor, "I thought I knew all the dog stories, but that's a new one."

There is a regular muddle in the Ohio senate which came about in this manner: Four democratic senators from Cincinnati hold their seats it is alleged, by frauds at the late elections and the committee on elections have so reported and declared the seats vacant, but it so happens that the democrats have, including any three of the fraudulent members, a majority of the senate, and the lieutenant governor has ruled that all the cases can be voted on at once which would debar all four of them from voting and by this means give a republican majority and result in unseating them. This the democrats deny, insisting on voting on one case at a time whereby they will have a majority of one and defeat the report of the committee, and whenever the presiding officer tries to bring on vote they either withdraw or vote solidly against it so that a deadlock in business has been the result for several days. The democratic members have even gone so far as to form a rump senate and prepare to do business independent of everything and every body; but neither the house nor the executive will recognize them, so all they can do is to fillibuster and await developments.

ORIGIN OF ROLLER SKATES.—In view of the fact that roller skating has played such havoc with theater patronage, it will be interesting to the stage profession to know that it was out of the demand for stage effects that roller skating was invented. A. Mr. Kobbe writes to the French press to say:

"I am told by Herr Hock, the stage manager of the Metropolitan Opera House, that all who enjoy roller skating are indebted for their sport to the famous composer, Meyerbeer. When his opera 'The Prophet' was produced in Paris it was almost decided at one time to cut out the skating scene in the third act, as the manager saw no way of converting the stage into a sheet of ice. In this crisis an ingenious stage hand came forward and suggested that ordinary skates might be placed on wheels. The Grand Opera House at Paris, therefore, was the first roller skating rink the world has known."

It is reported from Washington that ex-Gov. Perkins, of California, who is now in that city, has made arrangements with the Canadian Pacific railroad authorities to abandon their intention to put on a line of steamers from Victoria to San Francisco, by arranging to carry freight and passengers on the vessels of his company at rates satisfactory to the Canadian Pacific people.

The Yamhill "Reporter" says: Will B. Rice, representing the O. P. R. R., staid over Sunday in this city. The company is picking up the bulk of the valley business.
