

OREGON SENTINEL.

JACKSONVILLE
SATURDAY, MARCH 27, 1886.

Republican State Convention.

A Republican Convention for the State of Oregon is called, to meet at Portland, Oregon, on Wednesday, April 28, 1886, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices: Representative in Congress, Judge of the Supreme Court, Governor, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Instruction, State Printer and district officers of the several judicial districts; and to transact such other business as may properly come before the Convention. It will consist of 203 delegates, apportioned among the several counties as follows:

Baker	6	Benton	8
Clatsop	10	Columbia	7
Clatsop	10	Cook	7
Clatsop	10	Curry	7
Clatsop	10	Douglas	7
Clatsop	10	Gilliam	7
Clatsop	10	Grant	7
Clatsop	10	Josephine	7
Clatsop	10	Klamath	7
Clatsop	10	Lane	7
Clatsop	10	Lincoln	7
Clatsop	10	Morrow	7
Clatsop	10	Multnomah	7
Clatsop	10	Polk	7
Clatsop	10	Tillamook	7
Clatsop	10	Union	7
Clatsop	10	Wasco	7
Clatsop	10	Washington	7
Clatsop	10	Yamhill	7

The same being one delegate at large for each county and one for each 100 voters, or fraction over half thereof, cast for James G. Blaine at the Presidential election in November, 1884.

The committee recommend that the primaries be held in the several precincts on Tuesday, April 6th, and the county conventions on Friday, April 10th, 1886, unless otherwise ordered by the proper County Central Committee.

Exhibit Again.

Nearly the whole of the present debt was contracted prior to July 1st, 1884.—"Times."

The amount of check required to make the above declaration, would, if it came from any other source, appear phenomenal. We, however, are not surprised, for we are confident that he would not scruple to make a statement that would mislead and deceive the people in order to gratify his mercenary greed. The SENTINEL has already given the figures from the statements made in the two exhibits showing the debt of the county when the present officials entered upon their duties. In order, however, to prove the falsity of the above extract, we will give it again, which was $54,232.39, a splendid showing for the administration when we take into consideration the fact that the building of the court house is included in this amount. In exhibit dated Jan. 1st, 1886, they give the debt to be $91,835.88. To this amount must be added the interest, which we have estimated to be $12,000. We are, however, informed by those who should know, that the interest will come nearer $16,000 than the amount given. We would, therefore, with the most reserved modesty and profound respect ask our cotem. if "nearly the whole of the present debt was contracted prior to July 1st, 1884, in fact has not the debt nearly doubled in the last year and a half under present management? Again he says, "The statement that the county debt has increased $40,000 is only on a par with the gross misrepresentation in which he has long indulged." The reader will notice that he does not positively deny the charge, neither does he attempt to give the figures to show where we have "misrepresented" the facts. We may be a "scribbler" and our articles may be "vaporings," yet we challenge him to show the tax-payer's figures that will materially change the above. He must either give another exhibit, admitting that the January exhibit was not correct, as our figures will stand unchanged. The purpose to keep these facts before the people in order that the responsibility may rest with them in the coming election. We ask for a change in order that the records may be searched and the true financial standing of the county be made public. They have already attempted to deceive the people in the last exhibit. Can they be believed were they to make a dozen more? We think not.

STAMBOAT FRANK AT THE EAST—

Stamboat Frank, or Frank Modoc, as he now calls himself, seems to be improving his advantages in the East. He was never known here as a chief, but had the reputation of being a very bad Indian. Families in town always took their washing in at night when the Modocs were visitors, and those who neglected, would find some of Capt Jack's men well supplied with white shirts, and their squaws wearing a change of dresses. The Augusta, Me., "Journal," speaking of Frank, says: "His name is Frank Modoc, and twelve years ago he was a wild savage, a chief of the Modoc tribe of Indians. He was in the city Saturday, and at the present time is attending school at the Oak Grove Seminary, endeavoring to gain a knowledge of the English language and fit himself for a minister. He went by the name of Stamboat Frank among the members of his tribe, and with some ninety of his companions, was captured at the time of the Modoc war. He was placed under the care of the Society of Friends in Indian Territory, and became a minister of the society. Frank is still a prisoner of the United States, and is attending the Oak Grove School by a permit from the Government. He has been at the school a year and application has just been made for him to remain another year. He has made marked progress in his studies, can do very well talking the English language, but is a much better writer than talker. —When he prays, however, he always uses his native vernacular, for he says: 'I cannot pray quick enough; heart too full.' Mr. Modoc maintains all the dignity so characteristic of the aborigine and chief. He descends from a long line of Modoc chieftains, and is proud of his ancestry. The scholars at the school all treat him respectfully."

In the case now before the supreme court to test the constitutionality of the law providing for the election of district judges, the "Times" says, "A decision against the law would be tempered with the extreme partisanship." The fact that the four judges to be displaced if the law is held valid are republicans, will serve as a pointer as to where the partisanship comes in. Suppose the four judges were democrats, how would the decision declaring the law unconstitutional be in that event? Would it be partisan? It is partisan where it effects democratic interest, but strictly constitutional when republican interest is at stake. No doubt if Charles was judge, democratic litigents would fare well. We believe the court will act without regard to political interests, if they do not, they are unworthy of their present positions. We are informed that Judge Bean holds a commission issued by Judge Thayer, while governor, for six years. If this be true, the governor must have viewed the constitutionality of the law to say the least not clear.

George Hearst, who was nominated by Governor Stoneham as the successor of the late Senator Miller, is a self-made man and a miner, who has acquired wealth only second to that of John Mackay. He has always been a liberal man, spending his money for the development of California, the Territories and the Northwest. He is a friend of the miner, and mining men will rejoice over his nomination, feeling confident of being represented in the Senate on the silver question. As a Democrat, Hearst has been faithful to his party, sending money with an unflinching hand in the publication of the San Francisco "Examiner," the leading Democratic paper on the coast. He is not a brilliant man, but is practical and well endowed with common sense.

The democracy of this place were highly elated over the action of the prohibitionists in placing a county ticket in the field. They had grave misgivings as to the result of the approaching election. The universal dissatisfaction throughout the county, on account of the heavy debt hanging over us, has caused much uneasiness on the part of the many office seekers in their ranks. They are now confident that not only this county will be carried by the democracy, but the whole state. We are informed that twenty delegates were present, of this number five were democrats. They claim about the same throughout the State.

The Popular Approval.

Of the now famous Syrup of Figs as the most efficacious and agreeable preparation ever offered to the world as a cure for Habitual Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion and kindred ills, has been won by the wise plan pursued by the California Fig Syrup Company. Try it and judge for yourself. Large bottles fifty cents or one dollar.

CASTORA

for Infants and Children.

To make a serviceable telephone from one farm house to another, only requires enough wire and two cigar boxes. First select your boxes, and make a hole about half an inch in diameter in the center of the bottom of each, and then place one in each of the houses you wish to connect; then get five pounds of common iron wire pipe wire, make a loop in one end and put it through the hole in your cigar box and fasten it with a nail; then draw it tight to the other box supporting it when necessary, with a stout cord. You can easily run your line into the house by boring a hole through the glass. Support your boxes with stanchions across the window, and your telephone is complete. The wire here one that is 200 yards long, and costs 45 cents, that will carry music, while the organ is playing, 30 feet away in another room.—[Ex.]

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The appointment of Hearst as senator meets the approval of republican congressmen from the Pacific coast. Report had been rife here for a long time that a deal had been made between Stoneham and Hearst, so that the former in the event of Senator Miller's death, was to make Hearst senator, and Hearst would use his money and influence to again secure the nomination of Stoneham for governor. This story was revived, with sundry grimaces and expressive gestures, when news of Hearst's appointment means a very large contribution to the democratic campaign fund next fall when Hearst will be a candidate for the senate for the full term.

The novelty race at Yreka last Saturday was won by Sover's "Quebec," beating Fitter's "Minnie R." Boyd's "Mark Daley" and Stephen "Jubilee," getting to the quarter in three quarter pole first and reaching home in the very fast time (track considered) of 1:50. "Minnie R." by "Scamperdown," was at the half mile post ahead of all, but quit there. On Monday following a match race between "Jubilee" and "Minnie R." half mile, for $50 a side, was won by the latter. "Quebec" is now at Medford.

The county debt has been reduced a great deal since the county clerk made his semi-annual exhibit on Jan. 1, 1886, and the good work goes steadily on. By the time he makes another exhibit a great hole will have been made in the indebtedness Republican politicians are trying so hard to magnify out all proportions.—"Buildings."

As the hole was in the exhibit last time taxpayers will feel relieved when they hear that its location is to be changed and we do not doubt; the correctness of the above as Charles would go down in his own pocket to make up the deficiency. Wouldn't you, Charley!
