RELIGIOUS ITEMS.—Rev. A. R. Bickelbach will hold services at the Presbyterian church at Phoenix on Sunday morning...

OUR ASHLAND FRIEND "B" comes to the front again in yesterday's "Times." We may have something to whisper in his ear next week upon the subject in question.

THE TIMBER GULCH mining company expect to strike their ledge on Tuesday next at least. Work will not be stopped, however, and a test of the rock will be made at once.

DICK COOK is again at saw-milling but he has by no means given up the Steamboat tunnel. He still thinks there are millions in it and we hope he will be the man to make the strike.

WARREN HALL and the little China boy from here took a notion this week to strike out on their own account and footed it to Medford.

MISS ANNIE JOHNSON leaves for Nevada next week to remain unless the town Recorder sends a warrant out on her for her arrest and detention.

Local Items.

May-day and no pic-nic. Attend the entertainment to-night. L. D. Brown is back from Portland.

Crit Tolman and Charles Logan of Ashland called Thursday. Frost Thursday night destroyed some of the fruit in this section.

Attend your primaries on Saturday next, and send in full delegations. The Red Men's ball on the 12th of May will be the event of the season.

Circuit Court convenes next week with a light docket for Jackson county. Read Morris Mensor's call for an independent convention in another column.

G. F. Billings, of Ashland, has been appointed a notary public by Governor Moody. Don't tell your wife anything about these new styles at Mrs. Prim's millinery store.

The Kean creek saw-mill now owned by Theo. Chanover of Old Hill is offered for sale. A fine large show window has been placed in the front of Magly & Co's hardware store.

Hurrah for Binger Hermann, the Congressman from Oregon who will succeed himself. Read Merritt's prices in another column and call and see if he won't do just what he says.

The Sunday School concert at the M. E. Church was well attended and appreciated by all. P. P. Prim, H. K. Hanna and E. DePost are at Salem this week attending Supreme court.

See Dr. C. Lempert on Saturdays and you will be cured free (excluding medicine) of charge. Hurrah for Binger Hermann, Oregon's Congressman that will succeed himself in that office.

W. D. Mathews, druggist of Medford, has decided on quitting there and will move back to Salem. Some hard work has been done by candidates this week and some of them will get left notwithstanding.

Mrs. Abe Mensor will soon open a millinery store in the corner room of the old Franco-American Hotel. Mrs. Mollie Flood has commenced suit in the Douglas county circuit court for a divorce from Creed Flood.

J. H. Hoffman has returned to Linkville to take his old station in Baldwin's tinshop as master workman. Stay with Hon. Binger Hermann and the ticket throughout. A review of their qualifications will be given next week.

Dr. Will Jackson has returned from an extended trip to Grants Pass and can be found at his office ready for business as usual. Several from here and Ashland attended the Odd Fellow's entertainment on Monday last and reports having had a splendid time.

Edward C. Brooks, the Oregon cadet at West Point stood forty-eighth in the class at the late examination. The lowest was seventy-six. Kenney & Worman are the new contractors on the mail route between here and Medford. They will fill the duty with promptness as usual.

Regular Easter services were held at the Catholic Church last Sunday morning when a large congregation was present to hear the fine singing of the choir. Our Ashland friend "B" comes to the front again in yesterday's "Times."

We may have something to whisper in his ear next week upon the subject in question. Ham Walter's Gem saloon at Medford has been moved to the adjoining room where he shows up as usual as usual. D. W. Crosby is his right hand man.

K. Kubli's "bar" keeps many voters in town on the fence regarding the Coroner'ship and we are beginning to believe that Sargent Dunlap is getting the worst of it. Dr. Robinson, who is now sole proprietor of the City Drug Store, has had the inside fitted up in a way that it will now compare favorably with any in the State.

The Timber Gulch mining company expect to strike their ledge on Tuesday next at least. Work will not be stopped, however, and a test of the rock will be made at once. Dick Cook is again at saw-milling but he has by no means given up the Steamboat tunnel.

He still thinks there are millions in it and we hope he will be the man to make the strike. During the past two months a syndicate of Montana cattle men have purchased 8,000 cattle in Southern Oregon and will ship them to Montana by rail between May 1st and 15th.

Rock from the Swinden ledge near Willow Springs is now being tested at Jacksonville quartz mill. It prospects well and ought to show up better than any of the other mines so far tried. Miss Annie Johnson leaves for Nevada next week to remain unless the town Recorder sends a warrant out on her for her arrest and detention.

The powers invested in the office are immense, Andrew. Warren Hall and the little China boy from here took a notion this week to strike out on their own account and footed it to Medford.

When last heard from they were negotiating with the railroad agent at that place for passes to Portland. John L. Burns, the great original commercial agent for E. Martin & Co. of San Francisco, is now on his way to Southern Oregon and will arrive here about May 1st. Reserve your orders for him.

From the number of candidates for the different county offices to-day ought to be a lively one for Jacksonville when the primaries are held. They have a big fight on hand to decide on who is the fittest. Albert Isaac, convicted in Modoc county for the murder of John Sherman, has been sentenced to be hanged on May 25th. His counsel, J. H. McDonald, will at once perfect an appeal to the Supreme Court.

Ben Haymond of Rock Point says he wants to be county Commissioner for the coming term. Ben is one of our heavy taxpayers and the only reason we care for him wanting the office is straighten out "that exhibit." The Philadelphia "Times" tells us all when it says that Ireland wants a Home Rule that will give every Irishman a home to rule. The secret of good government is, make the people prosperous and you make them peaceable.

Republican primaries will be held throughout the county on Saturday next and the convention to nominate county officers on the following Saturday—May 15. We hope to see a full representation in person from all parts of the county. Andy Davison, one of the old settlers of this valley, died at Grant's Pass yesterday evening aged about 55 years. His remains will arrive on the regular train to-morrow morning and will be buried in the Jacksonville cemetery on their arrival.

Wm. Nelson of Elliott creek came down to town this week in answer to the challenge for a prize fight offered by George Edwards. The latter being still in jail for a similar offense committed long since no arrangement for the new mill have yet been made. The Riddle Hotel at Medford is the Boss. While it will not be open for business until the 5th inst. we can still say that they have excellent rooms, fine beds and even now are furnishing the best of meals. We have tried all and know whereof we speak.

Mary J. Leonard is the first lady to take advantage of Siglin's new law providing for the admittance of female practitioners in the courts of this state. She was admitted at Salem a few days recently by the Supreme court on a certificate from Washington territory.

The grand master and tyler of the Masonic order in this State will pay Warren Lodge of this place an official visit on the evening of May 13th. As Genl. Thos. G. Reames is Grand Master and Sargent R. S. Dunlap is Grand Tyler very little mileage can be collected on this trip.

In order to get out of the way of having so much politics our friend Nick Cook of Willow Springs precinct came to town this week but when he left he expressed the belief that he had made a mistake in the move—in other words that he had jumped from the frying pan into the fire.

The case of John F. Miller, swamp-land claimant against James Tobin, who has a patent from the United States under a pre-emption claim, has been argued in the Supreme Court by B. F. Dewell, attorney for Mr. Tobin, and Judges Hanna and Prim and Col. Knight for Gen. Miller.

Last year the Western Union laid 222 underground wires in Washington, making a total in that city of 992 miles. In New York 672 miles of underground wire were laid. There are 641 miles in Pittsburg, 289 miles in Boston and 134 miles in Brooklyn, even in Baltimore a beginning has been made.

The change of the management of the insane asylum will probably take place next Saturday when Dr. H. Carpenter will retire from the superintendency and Dr. S. E. Joseph of East Portland will take his place. Whether there will be any other change in the personnel of the institution or not is not yet known.

The Roseburg "Kids" went down to Portland yesterday to attend the Republican state convention. They formed a full grown band of less than half grown boys that blowed hoary headed music all in favor of Binger Hermann and Republicanism. That band is a daisy and no denying it.—Eugene "Register."

Robt. A. Miller starts for Portland to-morrow night to attend the Democratic State convention to meet on the 4th of May. He has all the proxies from this county and will go single-handed and alone. Candidates for office will no doubt treat him well when he arrives—those nine votes in his pocket count up.

Judge L. R. Webster has been re-nominated for the office of Circuit Judge for this district. He has proven himself as a painstaking, well-qualified official since his term of office began. With this knowledge before the taxpayers of Jackson county it will not require much time to decide between L. R. Webster and J. R. Neil.

W. S. Ladd, the Portland banker, was recently solicited to make a donation for the building of a new church not a great ways from that city, and after subscribing $1,000 urged the projector not to involve the church in debt. The building was to cost in the neighborhood of $5,000, but failing to receive that amount by about $3,800, it was erected at a cost of a shade under $1,200. Mr. Ladd is said to appreciate the joke, if joke it can be called.

W. H. McAdams, a prison keeper of Medford, was arrested this week for aiding and abetting a prize fight between Edwards and Lewis at Ashland and Justice Foudray held him under $1000 bonds, which he furnished. Edwards, Lewis and Stover are still in jail and all will be called on to attend the regular session of the grand jury next week.

Prof. J. E. Farley, now of Phoenix called this week. While he bought another year's lease of the SENTINEL he would not agree to give in his announcement for School Superintendent claiming that all the Republicans would vote for him anyway if he only got the nomination. If such should be the case we will claim our fees all the same, J. E.

The Republican convention, which met at Grant's Pass last Saturday, elected Hon. H. B. Miller, Henry Rogers and J. A. Wilson as delegates to the State convention, and made the following nominations: Representative, H. D. Harkness; county judge, Valney Colvig; commissioner, S. Messenger and A. H. Platter; county clerk, J. M. Follack; sheriff, Charles J. Howard; treasurer, J. C. Campbell; assessor, F. M. Nickerson; school superintendent, J. H. Robinson; surveyor, H. Auland.

The Democrats of Jackson county have nominated the following county ticket: Representative, S. U. Mitchell; County Judge, Chas. Hughes; Commissioners, J. M. Payne and J. W. Wimer; Clerk, Chas. K. Chaudry; Sheriff, T. G. Patterson; Treasurer, J. W. Howard; Assessor, J. P. Lewis; School Superintendent, A. Chapman; Surveyor, W. N. Saunders; Coroner, Dr. W. F. Kramer. There are a few strong names on the ticket but taken as a whole it will not carry the strength of the party.

The fight to-day in Jacksonville precinct seems to be mainly over the offices of Clerk and Sheriff. W. H. Parker and Newt Jacobs are candidates for Clerk with Parker slightly in the lead. For Sheriff, there being so many candidates it is very hard to tell, but from what information we can get W. J. Plymale is in the lead with J. A. Wilson a good second and J. W. Ingram, I. W. Berry and E. W. Dean will take up the scattering votes. It's none of our fight and we will announce the result next week.

The following extract is from the Paris letter of the New York "World": "Mr. Hertz has just finished a most delicately executed portrait of Miss Mitchell, the daughter, if I am not mistaken, of the recently elected United States Senator from Oregon, the Hon. John H. Mitchell. Miss Mitchell is now the beauty of Paris, and her fame is not confined to the American colony. I heard a French Senator's wife dilating the other day on the charms of this young girl from the Pacific slope, whom she had met at some ball or reception."

It was generally supposed that the Democratic convention that met here on Saturday last were in favor of Neil for Judge and Colvig for District Attorney. Neil secured a solid vote making his nomination sure, but the Mugwumps put up a job on Colvig whereby the delegation is divided and we learn that J. T. Bowditch of Ashland has five out of the six delegates from this county. Josephine county has instructed for Sam White, Klamath for S. B. Cranston with Lake to hear from. The fight is now an open one with Bowditch in the lead.

Only Half Alive. There are hosts of men and women who, to coin a phrase, are only half alive. That is to say, they have seldom if ever any appetite, are nervous, weak, fatigued and troubled by numerous small pains and aches. In the presence of vigorous, exuberant vitality they seem more pigmies. Such persons are usually fond of frequently dosing themselves, and following in the course of the year enough drugs to stock any apothecary's shop of arrangements. This, of course, is instead of furnishing the end in view, viz., the recovery of their natural vigor. Wonderful work is done by the medicinal source of vitality, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, how different would be their checks, their treatment, medicinal and otherwise, if they would but take a few bottles of all seasons, would give a relief for the weary, and would crown the tasks of the day.

STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.—Following is the State Central Committee. It was made up by calling the roll of counties and the delegates from each designated whom they desired should serve: Baker—J. M. Swift; Benton—E. Woodward; Coos—A. Narburg; Curry—Walter Sutton; Clatsop—Dr. J. W. Y. Tu'ie; Columbia—George W. McBride; Clackamas—J. T. Apperson; Crook—Henry Hahn; Douglas—J. C. Fullerton; Grant—M. L. Olmstead; Gilliam—J. P. Lucas; Jackson—J. S. Howard; Josephine—Henry Rogers; Klamath—Charles S. Moore; Linn—S. A. A large number of the residents of that vicinity have searched the creek, but in consequence of high water are unable to find his body.—"Courier."

Herman Helms, Newman Fisher, J. R. Little and Mrs. K. Kubli and Miss Nellie Lay were among our local visitors to Roseburg this week. All are back but it would take a page of the SENTINEL to express their feelings in regard to the hospitality of the Roseburg people.
