Wagon Road Grants.

WASHINGTON, May 21. -- Senator Dolph's wagon road land grant forfeiture bill passed the Senate this afternoon. The Attorney-General is directed by the bill to bring suit against all persons claiming to own any part of the Eugene City, Dallas or Albany wagon road land grants, to determine the question of the reasonable and proper completion of the roads in accordance with the terms of the forfeiture Acts, and the right of the United States to resume the lands granted.
The circuit court is authorized to reader a decision and declare forfeited all the land coterminus with the roads not built according to the requirements of the Act. The court shall have the right to set aside all patents which have been issued for such forfeited land, saving and preserving the rights of all bona fide purchasers of any portion of the land for a valuable consideration, provided that the lands actually settled upon are occupied and used as a homestead or for agricultural or grazing purposes. In cases in which such settler or occupant has acquired the title of the State of Oregon, not exceeding one section to any one settler or occupant, he shall not be included in such suit, and such settler or occupant shall not be made a party thereto.

Somebody has condensed the mistakes of life, and arrived at the conclusion that there are fourteen of them. Most people would say, if they told the truth, that there was no limit to the mistakes of life; that they were like the drops of the ocean or the sands of the shore in number, but it is well to be accurate. Here, then, are fourteen great mistakes: It is a great mistake to set up our own standard of right and wrong and judge other people accordingly; to measure the enjoyment of others by our own; to expect uniformity of opinion in this world; to look for judgment and experience in youth; to endeavor to mould all opinions alike; to yield to immaterial trifles; to look for perfection in our own actions; to worry ourselves and others with what can not be remedied; not to alleviate all that needs allevia-tion as far as lies in our power; not to make allowance for the infirmities of others; to consider everything impossible that we cannot perform to believe only what our finite minds can grasp; to expect to be able to understand everything.

WHOLESALE LYSCHING.--The Pomerozy "Times" of the 18th inst., contains an account of the alleged lynching of four horse-thieves, on Salmon river, between White Bird and John Day's, May 7, the executioners being a party of stockmen from Asotin county and the Idaho border. The victims were a half-breed called "Jack," Tole Farmer, aged 25; Joe Grimes, 30; and John O'Neil, 25. They and two others were captured with about 20 head of stolen horses. The lynching was with ropes suspended from trees, the doomed men being seated on horses which were driven from under, at a signal. One of the two prisoners was taken to Asotin.

A Washington special says: Rev.
Dr. Sunderland received a fee of $100 for tying the presidential marriage knot. It was a brand new bill, and had never apparently been in circulation.
It was handed to the doctor by Secretary Lamont, immediately after the President's departure. The doctor made his wife a present of the bill.
Mrs. Sunderland will keep it as a memento of the occasion.

The best things are nearest; breath in our nostrils, light in our eyes, flowers at our feet, duties at our hands, the path of God before us. Then do not grasp at the stars, but do life's plain common work as it comes, conscious that daily duties and daily bread are the sweet things of life.

In the space of a week fully 1,000 persons were killed and wounded in various portions of the world by cyclones, which have become more numerous than was ever before known in history. The Pacific Coast appears to be the only portion of the world exempt from these terrible visitations.

The personal household of Queen Victoria is composed of over two thousand persons, and costs the nation annually two million dollars.

Shortening Up.

In reply to letters which we frequently write to old friends and neighbors inviting them to pay us a visit, we receive many from California friends who say: "I will come and see you when the railroad runs through to Portland from San Francisco." That day is growing nearer though slowly. It is now running to a point ten miles this side of Delta, just a little platform on the headwaters of Sacramento river not far from where the McCloud comes down, singing its hoiling song to the far off sea.
This little is in Shasta county on the confines of Siskiyou, which is adjoining the county of Jackson in this State. It lies up in what is called the State range, and thenceforth the progress of the road will be slow until it gets into Shasta valley, where it will have forty miles of much easier grade than it now encounters. The road will be in operation to Bailey's near the foot of Mount Shasta, by the 1st of September and then the overland travel will begin to increase as the stage travel gets down to about sixty-fifty miles. The scenery along the road is the finest in the world and the tourist who comes by sea, misses the grandest and most beautiful rides on the continent. The base of Mount Shasta can be approached closer by rail than that of any mountain of its size in America, and that alone will suffice to crowd the road with pleasure-seekers next summer. Our Portland belles will find the McCloud river springs a great summer resort in a year or two and will meet the lovely sons of San Francisco on even terms.
And when the road is complete we will see lots of people who do not like to risk a sea voyage, and who will spend lots of money when they come amongst us--"Mercury."

That's the ridiculous side of the proposition, the side which is always uppermost to my eye. Looking at it from the standpoint of serious contemplation, the pageant of last Wednesday evening in Washingon something like a Roman holiday about it, with a lamb slaughtered and fireworks in the evening. Mr. Cleveland is past 49 years of age and his brain not quite 24; or in other words, he was a man grown and earning a man's living on the day that she was born into the world. Nay, more, he was past his present age on the day she first began to walk. There was another presidential marriage within my recollection--the accidental President of 1842. His wife was a tall girl, with dark but luminous face and willowy figure, named Julia Gardiner. Her parents had a country seat at Shelter Island, near the eastern extremity of Long Island, where she was born.
Her age was 26 years when she married a man of more than twice her years, and New York society was all agog over it. Her father was appointed one of the portfolios in the cabinet and was killed by the bursting of a cannon on board the gunboat Princeton on the Potomac river, while firing a salute. There are a few still living who recollect this lovely woman in the days of the artificial splendor which surrounded her, and also recall her pale and hopeless face in the years that grew so weary and irksome. It was a hollow mockery from beginning to end.

Settlers on the public lands should bear in mind that in giving in their assessment they do so under oath, just as much as when they are giving in the value of their improvements on their claims. They should see to it that the assessed valuation of their improvements will do to compare with the value fixed in their final proof.

Says a Waitsburg paper: Last Wednesday Mrs. W. A. Morris, a woman 20 years of age, committed suicide by taking strychnine. She had been married only about six weeks. The reason given for her rash act was that she would rather die than bear a child, an event she plainly foresew.

The railroad company is said to be employing every man they can get on the extension south from Solseld and it is expected that San Miguel will be reached by August 20th.

This promises to be the liveliest building season witnessed in Portland since the great boom, when $3,000,000 were invested in new structures.

A Gasty River Mystery.

At noon yesterday the steamer "Dawn" picked up the body of a large man, apparently about 45 years of age, in the middle channel, abreast of the city, and brought it to Home's dock, where the coroner and doctor examined it. The body was clothed in a gray woolen drawers and one boot, and had evidently been in the water some weeks.
Examination disclosed the fact that a most fearful murder had been committed. On the head were three terrible cuts made by a sharp knife or hatchet, half an inch deep and three inches across. The forehead was smashed and the skull broken in. A hole behind the right ear being probed, showed where a bullet had broken the jaw and ranged downward, the surgeon extracting the ball from the left side of the neck. Other marks of violence indicated a desperate struggle for life on the part of the unfortunate man, who may have been murdered 100 miles above here and whose body was rolling to the ocean when picked up. The coroner's inquest was postponed till 2 o'clock this afternoon, when it is believed testimony will be procured tending to throw some light on what is evidently a most terrible murder.

Since the President purchased a home in the suburbs of Washington the American vandal has been turned loose upon it. No sooner was it known that the property had passed into his possession than it became a Mecca to Democratic pilgrims and curiosity seekers. Men and women pulled up shrubbery, tore off paintings, pieces of window shutters and other things as relics, and demanded admission to the house and all the grounds.
Mrs. Green, from whom it was purchased, by the terms of the sale was allowed thirty days in which to vacate the premises, but life became a burden by reason of hoarders who intruded upon the privacy of the place, and she notified the President that she would leave as soon as possible. The President at once dispatched a policeman to guard the place and stop the vandals if possible. On Sunday the place looked like a camp meeting. It is reported not to be the intention of the President not to take up his suburban estate. He simply wants a place where he can go in the afternoon and spend a quiet hour away from the life and care of the executive mansion.

A Chinaman arrived here yesterday who wishes to engage 1000 of his countrymen to work on the extension of the California & Oregon railroad.
He will not be able to engage any men, although he offers $25 per month.
About all the Chinese here who engage in such work are employed at wood chopping, and at the fisheries. A vast number of men are at work now on the C. & O. railroad, judging from the move to secure a thousand Chinamen here there is to be no stop to the work, and the prospect for connection by rail with San Francisco in the near future looks very favorable.--"Oregonian."

It is now believed to be as good as a settled fact that the sparring match between John L. Sullivan and Charles Mitchell, which the Chicago authorities will not permit in that city, will take place in Milwaukee on June 11th.
Pat Sheedy has so decided, and has about completed arrangements for the Opea house as the place for holding the exhibition. It is not believed that the authorities at that place will offer any opposition, and for that reason, and as it is nearer Chicago than any other place which could be selected, the probabilities seem to be that the two men will meet there.

Two drunken Indians, ejected from the California and Oregon Railroad near Anderson, Shasta county, Cal., Sunday, in revenge endeavored to wreck a freight train by placing an obstruction on the track. The engine passed over the obstruction which was secured, and the noble red men are being sought for.

The President seems to be driven to marriage because the Democratic party is dropping away from him at a rate that promise to leave him very lonesome in his old age.

The fund for the benefit of the Chicago police injured at the recent Anarchist massacre has now reached nearly $60,000.

Railroad Items.

The railroad company is now hiring all the white men coming along, who are willing to work, and will crowd the work with the greatest energy while the season is favorable for rapid progress. It is undoubtedly the intention of the company to reach Bailey's before winter sets in, so as to make the distance about 100 miles between the terminus of each road.
From present indications work will no doubt be continued right along to the Oregon boundary, and the right of way force may probably reach Siskivou before the 4th of July, to be closely followed by Scoble's force of stone masons and helpers.

The trains appear to be delayed occasionally of late, as the construction trains have precedence of track above Delta, and must be kept clear for trains, but above that point, trains for passengers and freight are only for accommodation.

A heavy cloud burst covered the track with debris last Sunday, just above Delta, but a force was dispatched immediately to the place, and cleared the track in a short time.
The second mortgage on the lands of the railroad company for $10,000,000 has been filed at clerk's office in this county, and in all the counties on the route. The mortgage runs for 30 years, at 6 per cent per annum, as security for bonds of $1,000 each, issued, which will be accepted by company in payment for any lands sold, the same as coin or any paper of credit.

The second trial of Lewis A. Allen, upon information for murder, in killing Elmore Decker, was commenced last Tuesday, and out of 60 jurors summoned, eleven had been secured up to Thursday evening, for trial of case. The venire being exhausted, the court appointed City Marshal Park as elisor to summon six more jurors, in order to fill the jury, the Sheriff being disqualified from acting, on account of making complaint in this case. On first day counsel for defendant attempted to quash the venire, on the ground of being a special and not a term jury, and names placed in a box that should have been omitted, also names omitted that should have been put in a box, which motion was overruled by the court.

The "Journal of United Labor," the official paper of Knights of Labor organization, announces that James G.
Blaine is an active working member of the order. A member speaking of the fact says: Blaine is a member of the Assembly in Augusta, Me, his home. You know that only two classes of men are barred from our order, lawyers and saloonkeepers, Mr. Blaine is by profession a journalist. How long he has been within pale of the order I do not know, but you may depend that with the executive ability of men like Powderly, Blaine and others that I might mention, that the Knights of Labor will continue to grow, and that it will take more than the combined efforts to crush us out."

Surveys have been completed of a road from Nampa, on the Oregon Short Line, to Boise City and beyond. It will be standard gauge as far as Boise, from which point it will be continued up the river as a narrow gauge to the timber belt near the head of that stream. This will give Boise the railroad facilities she needs, which may be increased in two or three years by a transcontinental road, if the prophets speak wisely of the intentions of the Chicago & Northwestern.

The Cyclone season has opened earlier this year in the East, and already one hundred and seventy lives have been lost and millions of dollars in property destroyed. When one reads of those and other climatic ecec-tricitities, it is calculated to render him contented to live in a country where he is in no danger of being frozen in winter, broiled in summer, or scattered to the four corners of the earth by a frisky tornado.

Thunderstorms have been raging in Germany for three days. Many persons and hundreds of cattle have been killed. Damage to the extent of $200,000 has been done to vineyards in the Rhine valley.
