He at once wheeled about, and with uplifted hands, hair bristeling, and eyes flashing fire, cried out: "Build a worm-fence round a winter supply of summer weather, skim the clouds from the sky with a teaspoon, catch a thunderbolt in a bladder, break a hurricane to harness, ground sluice an earthquake, bake hell in an icehouse, lassoo an avalanch, fix a Lake Tribune."

A private letter from Burlington, Iowa, reports business dull there and little excitement on prohibition. The writer says he coulden't get even a glass of beer in Burlington. The Saloons are all closing up, in many cases the furniture being consfiscated, and the rooms nailed up for one year The law prescribes that buildings used for saloons shall be nailed up by the Sheriff, and he holds the key to all places thus nailed up. The excitement is beconing more intense, and the writer is anticipating lots of fun. It is manifest that if prohibition is is not a success in Iowa, it will not be owing to any want of stingency in the law.
