Fashion Notes. Jackets grow longer. Short basques are going out of favor. Four-button gloves are the latest fancy.

Why Americans are Nervous. Nervousness is more and more regarded as an undesirable characteristic of our nation. The idea that we are a peculiarly nervous people is becoming widespread.

Dark-red shades are popular in velvet and plush broche dresses. More and more masculine grows the morning toilet for outdoors.

Shaded feather hands trim both simple and dressy wraps and frocks. Mantles are very short in the backs but have long tab-like fronts.

Velvet and invisible plaid which are made up into hunting suits are j. dandies. George Barrett, 85 and hearty was delighting Washington again with his genial appearance in the saddle.

KEEP STRAIGHT AHEAD - Pay no attention to slanders and gossip mongers. Keep straight on in your course, and let their back biting die the death of neglect.

It is the loss of the governing power of the will, which allows an increased reflex action - unchecked, unbridled, which is characteristic of the nervous, and has given to the world its modern definition of weakness.

Grateful for a Favor. A tough looking man entered the sanctum of a San Francisco paper recently and said to the inmate: "Are you the editor?"

POPULATION. - Every minute of the day 70 human beings are brought into existence and 67 are removed, says a writer.

The highest building in the world is the spire on St. Peter's church, Rome 518.

The output of the coal mines at Roslyn when the connection with the main line is made will be some 39,000 tons a month.

Smith - That dog of yours keeps me awake of nights, howling. Jones - Why, I have no dog. It must be my daughter singing.

A good collector must be as patient as a post, cheerful as a duck, social as a flea, bold as a lion, cunning as a fox, weather proof as rubber, and as watchful as a sparrow-hawk.

Prineville had a $150 fire Sunday. The Dalles has organized a militia company. The Catholic school at Albany will open on the 10th.

Oregon City has two Chinese wash-houses - running opposite. C. H. Cowan, a pioneer of 1833, died at Prineville last Thursday.

Dwelling houses are very scarce at Albany, and, in addition, are so damaged. A coyote was killed at Fairview the other day after having breakfasted on a sheep.

The new M. E. Church at Eugene will seat 600. It will be dedicated on Thanksgiving. An effort is on foot to establish a daily mail route between Fossil and Arlington, Gilliam county.

Hundreds of coyote scalps are presented daily for bounty to the County Clerk of Wasco county. The new bell at Mouthouth weighs 600 pounds - not twice the weight of the old one.

Two small boys unearthed a human foot at Tacoma company. The Cheney Leader's existence ended with the election.

H. E. Levy, of Seattle, has purchased the steamer Gold Dust for $325. Nelson and Soakes, the Yaquina horse thieves, were sent up for five years.

The switchback is approaching completion. There was no snow up to Friday of last week. Seattle Press: King & Casey will begin driving their logs down the Contanary river this week.

The drive will contain 3,500,000 feet of lumber. Dan Rice, the old circus clown, claims to be the rightful heir to an estate of 300,000 acres in Texas.

The highest pyramid in existence is 520 feet in height. The temple of Belus at Babylon is said to have been 666 feet in height.

The highest monument in the world today is Wascogton monument - 555 feet. The highest building in the world is the spire on St. Peter's church, Rome 518.

The output of the coal mines at Roslyn when the connection with the main line is made will be some 39,000 tons a month. The Northern Pacific Company will require some 16,000 tons per month.

Smith - That dog of yours keeps me awake of nights, howling. Jones - Why, I have no dog. It must be my daughter singing.

Smith - Is that so? Excuse me, I am sorry. I don't suppose she can be shot, eh?
