The time has arrived when "something has got to be did." Financially speaking we are just about at the end of the rope, and it is necessaay for us to get our clutches upon something substantial, or choke. It is a matter of absolute necessity. For the past few months we have been doing business—an amount of business over which we might well feel enconraged had we received the proper returns in money for it, but on the contrary nearly all our labor is represented by charges upon our books only, while during the time mentioned our receipts have hardly been sufficient to purchase table salt. The result is we were compelled to go in this way to the selfish whims of an element which laad John Rely for its element which laad John Rely for the past few months we have been doing business—an amount of business over which we might well feel enconraged had we received the proper returns in money for it, but on the contrary nearly $218,000,000.
