

THE REPORTER.

McMINNVILLE, OREGON, JUNE 8 1882.

OUR HOME ELECTION.

The election in Yamhill county passed without incident, perfectly smooth, peaceable and orderly. The result we give in another column. But little further need be said. Still a mention of a peculiarity or two may not be amiss. McMinnville precinct, the Democratic Thermopylae, gives an average of only six majority against her usual democratic balance of thirty. Then Lafayette precinct turns about and reverses itself in a similar manner to the opposite side. West Chehalis falls short of her old-time Democratic solidity. Dayton, however, in one or two instances, manifests the most gall of any of them. Dayton seemed to be perturbed about something. Although the banner republican precinct, she tried her best to defeat Jack Spencer, whom the returns show to have been the most popular man on either ticket throughout the county, and unmercifully slaughtered the man whom Dayton particularly accredited with having placed in nomination for Sheriff upon the Republican ticket. But such is political uncertainty. "There are many things 'twixt heaven and earth Horatio, not dreamed of in your philosophy." The Republicans are well satisfied with their work and its result. They certainly made a manly fight and a telling contest. The facts are plainly demonstrated, we think that Yamhill county is Republican by 120 majority in the main issue. Let that be set down. Then again, when it comes to the test, there never was a more independent, self-reliant crowd on top of the green earth than these same Yamhillians. Hence local affairs very frequently get split up, hereabouts, in spite of the 120—or any other number. Let that be set down twice;—and don't you forget it.

THE STATE.

From the few returns gathered from different parts of the State, it is quite certain that the Republicans have elected their whole state ticket, by majorities ranging from 1,000 to 2,000. M. C. George's majority bids to reach 2,500. The result is certainly disappointing to the Republicans out of two members and so did Clackamas; while it is reported that Democratic Wasco goes to the reverse on both state and county tickets. This mixed state of affairs knock the bottom out of all calculations. It will require close returns from which to gain anything like reliable information.

LATER.—According to the Oregonian of to-day (Thursday) it appears that the legislature will be republican by from 6 to 10 members, on joint ballot.

Tues.—The tie between Messrs Magers and Nelson necessitates a new election for which the Statute provides as follows: "When a tie shall exist between two or more persons for the senate or house of representatives, the county clerk shall give notice to the sheriff of the county, who shall immediately advertise another election for such offices, giving at least ten days notice." The tie between Messrs Cooper and Maloney will be decided by the county clerk, who shall publicly, at his office, decide by lot, the lucky man.

Quite an interesting and exciting little occurrence to residents of the Dalles on Saturday last was the passage of the fine steamer R. R. Thompson over the rapids, to take a new route on the lower river. The task was accomplished nicely by Capt. McNulty.

Decoration day was universally observed throughout the nation. Its ceremonies were grand, noble and eloquent.

Garibaldi, the great Italian patriot, died on the 3rd inst., aged 85 years.

The Universalist State convention will meet at Dallas on the 22nd of June.

Several cases of sudden sickness occurred in Hillsboro, from a disease that resembles somewhat the cholera.

J. C. Smith, of Walla Walla, sheared last week 2400 pounds of fine clean wool, of 160 fine graded sheep, being 1 1/2 pounds per head, which is the best yield we ever heard of in this country; but he deserves it. Gentleman how is that for wool?—and all wool, too.

A petition is circulating in Hillsboro, says the Independent, asking for arms and uniform from the State to arm a company of militia proposed to organize in Hillsboro. Already about 50 names are on the petition.

Miss Eaton, one of the teachers in the Pacific University, or Academy, at Forest Grove, died very suddenly on Tuesday last. She ran up stairs quickly, and it is supposed ruptured a blood vessel, as she fell down and died within a short time.

An "ice fiend" with his big charges and light weights was what hurt Portland during the late heated term. Maybe he didn't hit us some away out here, too. But maybe he did, all the same. But he won't do it often, in the future.

A Russian Finn, 20 years old, by the name of F. H. Matson, started to swim a horse from the main land to Deer Island down the Columbia, a few days since, and has not been seen since. The horse returned home on the same day without saddle or bridle.

During the month three men have been drowned in Salmon river at a point known as Old Chimney. One of them bore the peculiar appellation of Apple Saus John, another was known as Ben Brown, and the third was a stock man, name unknown.

Dr. C. H. Raffety, who is the state visiting physician for the insane asylum in East Portland, makes the following report: Number under treatment, March 1st, 1882, males, 225; females, 84, total 310. Admitted during the quarter, 10 males and 1 female. Escaped, 1. Error of last quarter, 1. Discharged, 10 males and 2 females. Total number of patients on hand at present date 218 males and 91 females, making a total under treatment, 309.

Jacksonville Sentinel.—Josephine county again comes to the front with a first class murder, the victim this time being W. Akers, formerly of Sams valley of this county and the slayer David Gilmore. It appears that last fall Gilmore charged Akers, who is a married man, with the seduction of his daughter about sixteen years of age, and warned him to leave the county, which he did. Last week Akers returned, ostensibly for the purpose of taking his wife away from Josephine county. Gilmore, however, rifle and declaring his intention of killing Akers on sight, proceeded to hunt him up. Meeting him on the road, he, Gilmore, commenced shooting without effect and Akers ran for the brush and took refuge behind a stump. Gilmore continued firing and the deceased, being armed with a small five-shooter, fired a shot which inflicted a serious wound on Gilmore, and on incautiously looking from behind his shelter, received a shot from Gilmore's Winchester right between the eyes, causing instant death.

STARVING BY THOUSANDS.

The story of the down-trodden Jews, in the old world is one of horror. A London dispatch of May 20th, pictured it as follows:

The total number of fugitive Jews who are now in Brody, on their way out of Russia, fleeing to escape the atrocities practiced upon those of their race by the Russian peasantry, is 120,000. The committees of relief are absolutely unable to afford even slight relief to so many, and the consequence is that thousands of these refugees are perishing from exposure and want. Over 12,000 starving persons among the multitude have already been singled out, and the relief committees announce that they feel that they must disband and discontinue attempting to perform the impossible task of furnishing relief to the few to whom their means necessarily limit them, as the rest, impeded by starvation, attack the provisions, make away with their food and render the work of the committees absolutely impossible.

The committees say that so vast is the number of Jews on the actual verge of death by starvation in Brody alone that the work of relief is beyond the power of any number of private committees and must be done by a nation to be of any real benefit.

Carrie Bradley's trial for the murder of Brown resulted in her conviction of manslaughter.
