PACIFIC COASTERS.
Baker City is to have a "First National Bank."

Dallas is to have a $1,070 bridge across the LaCreole.

Property destroyed by fire at The Dalles recently, amounted to $10,000.

J. E. Beckner threshed 510 bushels of wheat from a ten acre field, last week.

Wheat in Umatilla county is averaging about 55 bushels to the acre - that is, fall grain.

W. R. & W. M. Ladd were fined $50 for doing a banking business without license, on Friday.

The Nott trial cost Polk county over $1,000
It would have cost less than that had he been tried through Sheridan.

Miss Connor, of St. Paul, Ore., and Miss Alice Dunn of Salem, took upon themselves recently the perpetual vows of sisterhood. Miss Connor assumes the title of Sister Mary Matthew, Miss Dunn, Sister Mary Flavia.

"Standard." While Mr. Hart, keeper of the Ladd cemetery, south of town, was digging a ditch Friday, at the grave yard he accidentally struck a spring of water, from which came a fish about five inches long, of the trout species.
He procured a pail and took the fish home.

"The Albany Democrat" says that the notorious Frank James was in that city recently.
He is said to be a very quiet and peaceable looking individual, one whom few would take to be the notorious outlaw that he is. It is said he started for San Francisco.

The catalogue for Tualatin Academy and Pacific University of Forest Grove, for 1892 is out. The name of M. J. McMinn, A. M. has been added to the faculty, and he is to be the principal of the Academy. The fall term a school opens the first Wednesday in September, and every thing looks favorable for a prosperous year.
