Charley Roberts quit butchering here and left this place for Engene. Gus Smith, who has been very ill for some time, is now able to be out again, but looks very pale. Frank O'Connor expects two carloads of wheat, to-day, and no doubt it will all be taken.

L. V. Starr latends to go to Eastern Oregon again this summer, not to re-turn. Mrs. E. D. Starr, being about to lose her boss workman for an indefinite perio.; has concluded to close out her tip shop in this place and is disposing of tinware very cheap.

The average boy at the age of fifteen years is seidom anything but a bunch of fun, monkeyshines and mischief. But there are some exceptions, and one very notable exception is that of young Milton Henry, of this place who, although a youth of about fifteen years now, has since his father's death, been conducting the farm operations like a veteran, and all his younger brothers give cheerfully what vounger brothers give cheerfully what assistance they can. You may be sure Mrs. Henry feels proud of her boys, and so she ought.

Last Sunday our band serenaried this town, and then took a trip to Me- 4 Minnville to show themselves there.
