OUR PEER-JUD.

Will outs. School closed last Friday. Circuit Court is in session. "All folks" day—Sunday. The "dronch" is "busted."

Are we to have a new hall? Butter has been very scarce. How high will your kite fly? Dr. Potts has gone to Astoria. Grange meeting, last Saturday. Johnny Rohr has the boss kite.

Town full of strangers, Sunday. Fire Department rented brick hall. Will McM. celebrate the 4th, 1883? Try the "Little Joker" washing machine. Hon. R. P. Boise spent Sunday in McMinnville.

Teachers' Institute in session at Independence. Many settlers proving up on their land claims. Mr. H. T. Graves of Sheridan, was in town Friday. A goodly number are in attendance at Circuit Court.

Mr. I. C. Robinson, of Amity, called on us last Saturday. "Lawsy, gracious! this must be the 'economical' star!" Miss Katie Wall, of Lafayette, spent Sunday in town with friends.

Wonder if Grant found any carpet rags to sew, in this section? Dr. Boyce, the dentist, from near Dayton, paid us a call last Friday.

Mr. D. Canuto, the brick mason, has been up to this place most of the week. Billy Booth is manufacturing a number of those two-wheeled "go-devils."

Deputy Clerk Talmage is entitled to more thanks than we can express for recent favors. J. M. Warren has had "Williamette Road's" photograph taken by SYDOR, the Painter. Next?

Our commission merchants, Messrs. Harding & Ladd, seem to be doing a lucrative business. Mr. J. J. Shipley, secretary of the Yamhill Lumbering Company, dropped in to see us last Friday.

The countenance of the average Oregonian has brightened since the rain set in. His "webs" are being softened, you know. Tight dresses are poor concerns to kink in, as a certain lady remarked as she came down on the floor after trying the experiment.

Rev. James R. W. Sellwood will hold divine service at the Episcopal Church next Sunday, April 1st, at the usual hours. Mr. J. S. Cooper, of Independence, brother of our townsman, J. C., was on Tuesday evening married to Mrs. Jennie Logan, of Dallas.

James O. Spencer came up from Clifton last Thursday, stayed long enough to greet his many friends and was off again on Friday's train. If you want a reliable Piano or Organ, go to S. C. Shaw and you can get it. He has just ordered a lot of small instruments of the very best quality.

There will be preaching at the usual hour at the Presbyterian Church on next Sabbath; also, on the 14th and 15th of April. Revs. Small and Keene will be at the latter. May 25th is the day for the Band Pic-Nic, and is also the day designated by the Grand Army for a gathering of all ex-soldiers, and we may look for a grand gala-day at that time.

The spring term at the College begins on next Wednesday, April 4th, and affords an excellent opportunity to all those who are not satisfied with a few brief months' schooling in the winter season.

They say that Dr. Murphy refuses to be comforted since the arrival of Blackburn—Perhaps he and others of his ilk will be taught by this case that inducing other men's wives to run off with them, is no funny business. Next Sunday, April 1st, the new Catholic Church in Grand Ronde, will be blessed by Archbishop Seghers. There will be no Mass at the Catholic Church in McMinnville, nor at St. Patrick's, that day.

Attendance at the Fair. There seems to be a goodly attendance of legal advisers and practitioners in attendance at the Circuit Court now in session at Lafayette. From abroad there are: His Honor Judge Boise, Prosecuting Attorney Holmes, W. M. Ramsey and Geo. H. Burnett, of Astoria; Ed. Mendenhall, O. P. Mason, J. K. Rice, J. E. Strout, J. E. Strout, J. E. Strout, W. H. Efinger, J. M. Gearin and J. M. Brown, of Portland; E. F. Dowell, Jacksonville; Jno. J. Daly, Dallas. Of our home corps there are: McCain & Hurley, W. D. Fenton, Bradshaw & Son, A. M. Hurley and Charles Sullivan, Lafayette; G. G. Bingham and J. E. Magers, McMinnville.

Handsome. One of the finest little things of all the specimens that have reached our table lately is that which comes to us from the enterprising hand of L. Samuel, of the "West Shore." It is in the shape of a collection of miniature landscapes, ingeniously wrought and woven together in a pleasing one. All along the noble farmer was busy seeding, either the land where the fall grain was frozen out, or that lately turned over; many fields have been seeded or re-seeded long enough for the grain to take root, and the pastures are green and healthy, and in looking over these fields we are led to remark that though the freeze-out has been a great drawback and much labor and expense is caused thereby, Yamhill will yet produce a fair crop, if the well-cultivated but keep down. As we pass through Carlton several buildings present themselves that are new to us, and the town shows signs of life the same as is exhibited in other country towns; and we see no reason why it should not, for Carlton is one of the best farming communities in the county. Three and a-half miles further on we find the beautiful little village of North Yamhill, nestled down so snugly among the hills and surrounded by rich oak groves, that it is scarcely visible from the road. It is a beautiful location for a town. Business is a little on the stand-still order, owing to the rush among farmers, but there is plenty to do business with when required, as all business men in the place are well supplied with goods in their line. E. F. Bedwell & Co. and Lee Laughlin & Co. are the general merchandise firms; G. W. Sappington and A. D. Rummels each carry a fair stock of notions, cigars, etc.; B. Baird is just opening out a full line of agricultural implements. There are two hotels, one tin-shop, harness shop, saloon, blacksmith shop and a butcher shop, and a blacksmith shop and carriage manufactory combined. The latter place is where W. E. Rice and W. F. Morgan, the man that blows the air horn in the North Yamhill Bend hold out. But darkness is coming on and we must be off, without seeing numerous friends; and if we have omitted any of the business enterprises in our mention, our correspondent must "slap our ears" in his next. Oh, yes! We saw Hon. W. J. McConnell flying around as full of vim as ever. You see Mac hasn't lost his attachment for the banner county, yet. But we must be off.

WILLAMINA. March 26, 1883. Greens are getting ripe up here. A young hunter came very near killing a large deer about this place. He saw its track. We listened to a very interesting lecture this evening on "Temperance" by Will C. King. It is time to sew up the rip in the street here. A flag of truce doesn't look well in wet weather. We are having a fine rain here at present. Several farmers were in town to day looking as if they were happy. Deputy Sheriff Harris was in town last week on business, and conducted a number of our citizens are at court to-day. Rev. VanSoy preached a very able sermon at the school house yesterday. He filled the appointment of Rev. F. Elliott. The latter having moved to California for the benefit of his family's health. A Sabbath School was organized at this place yesterday with the following officers: Superintendent, James Mitsap; Asst. Superintendent, Mrs. Landson; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. James Mitsap. Some men growled because it did not rain and some are grumbling because it is raining; but then As a rule a man's fool When it's hot he wants it cool, When it's cool he wants it hot. Always complaining of his lot. WILL A. MINAR.
