

Newspaper Decisions.

1. Any person who takes a paper regularly from a post-office, whether directed in his name or another's, or whether he subscribes or not, is responsible for payment.
2. If a person orders his paper discontinued he must pay arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and then collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not.
3. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers or periodicals from the post-office, or removing and leaving them in the office, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
4. The Postmaster-General has decided that postmasters who fail to notify publishers when subscribers remove, or fail to take their papers from the post-office, shall be responsible for their subscription.

Teachers' Institute.

[It was our understanding that the proceedings of the Teachers' Institute for the Third Judicial District, comprising the counties of Yamhill, Polk, Benton, Linn and Marion, were to have been furnished the various papers in the district for publication. But as we seem to have been mistaken, we copy the following condensed report from the Salem "Talk," even though it is a little late.]

The Institute convened at Independence, March 27th. The whole number of teachers present during the entire session, was one hundred and nine; nearly all of them were actively engaged in the common cause of popular education. Among this number were six county superintendents, two college presidents, five college professors and two eminent divines—just enough to bring up in sharp contrast the conditions existing between colleges and our public schools. From Salem we noticed President Van Scoy, State Superintendent E. B. McElroy, Professors Lane, Elworthy, Sellwood and five other teachers of marked ability.

On the first evening J. B. Sweet delivered the welcome address; J. B. Horner, the response. Hon. A. Johns and President Van Scoy treated the audience to a literary feast. On Wednesday morning Superintendent McElroy delivered a rousing speech, urging the teachers and citizens to avail themselves of this opportunity of making an entire success of the great work before them. During the day the interest gradually increased. Every teacher acquitted himself with honor, and deserves special mention, but our limited space at this time forbids. Professors Lane, Gregg, Moses, Reigler, Hartson, Sellwood, Elworthy and others won epaulettes; and as the attention of some of the heavy artillery was attracted the literary contest began in earnest.

The following officers were daily elected: Pres., E. B. McElroy; Vice-Pres., Supt. Frank Reigler; Recording Secretary, W. E. Richardson; Secretary, J. B. Horner; Enrolling Secretaries, D. W. Jarvis and Miss Kate Jackson; Reporting Secretary, J. B. Horner of Linn county; Certificate Secretary, H. W. Herron, of Polk county; Committee on Introduction, D. W. Jarvis, W. E. Richardson and Mrs. D. H. Hartson.

On Thursday considerable cross firing was done by Professors Moses, Yates, Herron and others. A number of solid work was done during the day; and in the evening Rev. J. A. Gray, of Portland, delivered a very eloquent lecture. The young people of Independence deserve great credit for the excellent exercises presented at this time.

On Friday the hall was crowded to overflowing. President H. E. Anderson, of McMinnville, Professor Joseph Emery, of State Agricultural College, Dr. Bell and others afforded such efforts as in their peculiar spheres are seldom equalled.

On Friday the hall was crowded to overflowing. President H. E. Anderson, of McMinnville, Professor Joseph Emery, of State Agricultural College, Dr. Bell and others afforded such efforts as in their peculiar spheres are seldom equalled.

The following officers were daily elected: Pres., E. B. McElroy; Vice-Pres., Supt. Frank Reigler; Recording Secretary, W. E. Richardson; Secretary, J. B. Horner; Enrolling Secretaries, D. W. Jarvis and Miss Kate Jackson; Reporting Secretary, J. B. Horner of Linn county; Certificate Secretary, H. W. Herron, of Polk county; Committee on Introduction, D. W. Jarvis, W. E. Richardson and Mrs. D. H. Hartson.

On Thursday considerable cross firing was done by Professors Moses, Yates, Herron and others. A number of solid work was done during the day; and in the evening Rev. J. A. Gray, of Portland, delivered a very eloquent lecture. The young people of Independence deserve great credit for the excellent exercises presented at this time.
