The Weekin Enterprise.

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING By D. C. IRELAND, FICE :- South east corner of Fourru and Marx streets, in the building lately known as the Court Honse, Oregon City, Oregon. Terms of Subscription.

One copy, one year in advance.....$3 00 Terms of Advertising.

Transient advertisements, one square (12 lines or less) first insertion . . . $2 50 For each subsequent insertion Business Cards one square per annum One column per annum 100 00 One half column " 50 00

D. M. MCKENNEY,

Legal advertising at the established rates.

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

TILL ATTEND PROMPTLY TO ALL business entrusted to his care, OFFICE-One door north of Bell & Parker's Drag store, Oregon City, Oregon. [3:1y

JOHNSON & McCOWN, 图 一個 图图 图 图已图图 图 0 OREGON CITY, OREGON. 230" Will attend to all business entrusted to our care in any of the Courts of the State, JAMES W. MOOBE, Justice of the Peace & City Recorder.

Office-In the Court House and City Conneil Room, Oregon City. Will attend to the acknowledgment of the office of Justice of the Peace.

Dr. F. Barelay, M. R. C. L.

(Formgrly Surgeon to the Hon, H. B. Co.)

OFFICE: -At Residence, Main Street (52) Oregon City,

Dr. H. Saffarrans, PHYSICIAN and SURGEON

OFFICE-In J. Fleming's Book Store.

Main street, Oregon City. . a (52

H. W. ROSS, M. D., PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON (Office over Charman Bros., Main st.,)@

Oregon City. ly

John Fleming. DEALER in BOOKS and STATIONERY.

Thankful for the patronage herstofere re of the favors of a generous public.

His store is between Jacobs' and Ackerman's bricks, on the west side of Main street. Oregon City, October 27th, '66.

Professer A. J. Rutjes,

TEACHER OF MUSIC.

W II.I. be glad to receive a number of Pupils at his Music Room, at the private residence of Mr. Charles Logus. He will also continue to give instructions at private residences. No charge for the use of the piano. My pupils will please give me notice when ready to commence. S:ty

W. H. MARSHALLO DAVID SMITH SMITH & MARSHALL. Black Smiths and Boiler Makers Corner of Main and Third streets, Oregon City Oregon.

Blacksmithing in all its branches. Boiler making and repairing. All work warranted to give satisfaction.

BARLOW HOUSE, Main Street, one door north of the Woolen Factory, Oregon City Oregon. Wm. Bariow, P. oprictor.

.The proprietor, thankful for the continued patronage be has received, would inform the public that he will continue his efforts to pleast his guests.

William Broughton, CONTRACTOR and BUILDER Main street, Oregon City.

.Will attend to all work in his line, consisting in part of Carpenter and Joiner work -framing, building, etc. Jobbing promptly

Fashion Billiard Saloon Main street, between Second and Third, Oregon City.

J. C. Mann, Proprietor. THE above long established and popular Saloon is yet a favorite resort, and as only the choicest brands of Wines, Liquors and Cigars are dispensed to customers a share of the public patronage is solicited.
(1v) J. C. MANN,

SHADES SALOON.

West Side Main Street, between Second and Third, Oregon City.

GEORGE A. HAAS ---- Proprietor.

The proprietor begs leave to inform his friends and the public generally that the above named popular saloon is open for their ccommodation, with a new and well assorted supply of the finest brands of wines, iquors and cigars.

THE GEM.

Main Street, opposite the Post Office, Oregon City. E. PAYNE Proprietor. The undersigned tabes this method of informing the public that he has purchased the above saloon, and now offers a envice and well selected stock of foreign and domestic wines, liquors, etc., which cannot fail to please those who may extend their patron

W. A. ALDRICH. J. C. MERRILL. JOHN M'CRAKEN. M'CRAKEN, MERRILL & CO. SHIPPING, COMMISSION AND

Forwarding Merchants,

A GENTS OF THE CALIFORNIA, Hawaiian and Oregon Packet Lines. Importers of San Quentin and Carmen Island Salt, Sandwich Island Sugars, Coffee, Rice and Pula Agents for Provost's & Co.'s Preserved Fruits, Vegetables, Pickles and Vinegar.

Dealers in Flour, Grain, Bacon, Lard & Fruit, Lime, Cement and Plaster. Will attend to the Purchase, Sale or Shipment of Merchandise or Produce in New York, San Francisco, Honolulu, or Portland. ALDRICH, MERRILL & CO., Nos 204 and 206 California Street.

M'CRAKEN, MERRILL & CO., 16 North Front Street, Portland.

. H. MITCHELL. J. N. DOLPH. A SMITH Mitchell, Dolph & Smith. Attorneys and Counsellors at Law. Solicitors in Chancery, and Proctors in Admiralty. Office over the old Post Office, Front street, Portland, Oregon.

HILL & MULKEY, ATTORNEYS and COUNSELLORS

AT LAW. WILL both be found hereafter at their Office on the corner of Front and Alder Streets, Portland, Oregon. [1yr. collect money, negotiate loans, sell real es-

> FERRY & FOSTER, BROKERS! Real Estate and Collecting A CENTRES

PORTLAND, OREGON. G OVERNMENT SECURITIES, STOCKS, Bonds, and Real Estate bought and

Portland, Oct. 1866. E. G. RANDALL, IMPORTER AND DEALER IN

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS, Sheet Music, and Musical Merchandise all kinds. Sole Agent in Oregon for Mason & Hamlin's

CELEBRATED CABINET ORGAN: Steinway & Sen's GOLD MEDAL PIANO FORTES:

First street, next door to the Post Office.

Removed!

Removed!

The old and well known Portland Eounder. D. MONNASTES, Proprieter, delved, respectfully solicits a continuance PORTLAND OREGON, between Alder and Morrison streets, where business will be conducted on as large a scale as in Cears past.

GLASS-WARE Queens- Ware, Lamps, etc.

Importer of articles in the above line would invite the attention of purchasers to he left his brother to recover the fainting his large stock now on hand, 94 Front street. Portland, Oregon.

L. T. SCHULTZ, --- Importer and dealer in----

NEW MUSIC

PIANOS, MELODEONS,

Firney Goods, etc. 106 Front street Portland, Oregon Pianos and all other Musical Instruments earefully tuned and repaired. 2:1y

LINCOLN HOUSE, Corner of Washington and Front sts., Portland, Oregon.

N. C. MATTHIEUSEN. Of the St. NICHOLAS HOTEL, Victoria, accommodate quests in a satisfactory manner. Nothing will be left undone, which is in the power of the proprietor to do, to render guests

JOHN NESTOR.

ARCHITECT, BUILDER, AND DRAUGHTSMAN. Front Street, Portland, Oregon. Plans, Specifications, and accurate working drawings prepared on short notic after the latest approved style.

A. G. BRADFORD, 39 Front Street, Portland, Oregon,

IMPORTER AND DEALER IN Wines and Liquors. - ALSO : -

Sole Agent in Oregon, and Washington Territory, for the Golden State Champaign, from California grapes.

R. HENDRIE, Importer and Wholesale Dealer in FINE WINES! BRANDIES AND LIQUORS.

51 Front Street. PORTLAND, OREGON.

MARBLE AND STONE YARD

WILLIAM YOUNG.

No. 38 Front street, Portland Oregon | dear?" "I dreamed I saw you carried up Mantle and building stone, suitable for every ed by angels clothed in white and purple. re. The best Lager Beer, Ale and Porter description of work. Mantles, Tomb stones the State, always on draught. description of work. Mantles, Tomb stones What is that a sign of, dear " "It is a

Palo Santo.

In the deep woods of Mexico, Where screams the 'painted paroquet,' And mocking birds flit to and fro, With borrowed notes they half forget; Where brilliant flowers and poisonous vines Are rungled in a firm embrace, And the same gaudy plant entwines Some reptile of a poisonous race;

Where spreads the Itos' icy shade Benumbing even in summer's heat The thoughtless traveler who hath laid Himself to noonday slumbers sweet ;-Where skulks unseen the beast of prey-The native robber glares and hides,-And treacherous death keeps watch alway

In these deep tropic woods there grows A tree, whose tall and silvery bole Above the dusky forest shows, As shining as a saintly soul Among the souls of sinful men;-Lifting its milk-white flowers to heaven,

On him who flies, or he who bides.

And breathing incense out, as when The passing saints of earth are shriven. The skulking robber drops his eyes, And signs himself with hely cross, If, far between him and the skies,

He sees its pearly blossoms toss.

The wanderer halts to gaze upon The lonely vision, far or near, And smiles and sighs to think of one He wishes for the moment here. The Mexic native fears not fang Of posonous serpent, vine, nor bee, If he may soothe the baleful pang

With juices of this "holy tree." How do we all, in life's wild ways, Which oft we traverse lost and lone, Need that which heavenward draws the gaze, Some Palo Santo of our own! FRANCES FULLER VICTOR

Sr. Helens, Dec. 8, 1866. A JUDGE IN A "FIX."-An awkward af fair, which once occurred to one of the judges on the Western Circuit, has been the subject of such mirth. It appears that the pious judicial, having finished his labors, and having east of his forensic wig at his lodgings, had retired into the next room to wait for his brother judge, whom he was about to accompany to some of the local aristocracy to dinner. The female servant of the house had entered the bedchamber by a side door, and not knowing the judge was in the next room, in a frolic arrayed herself in the judge's wig. Just the moment when the fair Monsy was admiring herself in the looking-glass, the judge unexpectedly entered the room; and poor Mospy catching a sight of the stern countenance looking over her shoulder in the glass, was so alarmed that she fainted and would have fallen to the floor, if the learned judge, impelled by HAS NOT DISCONTINUED WORK! humanity, had not caught her in his but has been removed to Second street, arms. At this critical moment his brother judge arrived, and opening the dressingroom door, with a view to see if he was ready, discovered his learned brother with the fainting maid in his arms. Not wishing to interrupt what he thought to be an

> Bench and the Bar. the sudden breaking of a tender attach-

A gentleman having occasion to call upon an author, found him in his study, writing. He remarked the great heat of the apartment, and said: "It is as hot as an oven." So it ought to be," replied having taken the above house, wishes to an-nounce to the public that he is now prepared to bread."

> A man exclaimed in a tavern, "I'll bet a sovereign I have got the hardest name in the company." "Done," said one of the number; "what's your name?" "Stone," cried the first. "Hand me the money," said the other, "my name is

> "If you ever marry." said a Roman contougue when she has nothing to sav."

An apprentice sailor-boy fell from the "round top" to the deck, stunned, but little hurt. The captain exclaimed in surprise: manufactured by Hoffman, Finke & Co., "Why, where did you come from!" "From the north of Ireland. sir," was the prompt reply, as the poor fellow gathered himself up.

An aged Quakeress, the other afternoon was seen intently gazing upon a piece of richly embroidered satin, displayed in a linen-draper's show-window. An Irishman, passing, smiled as he saw the fascination of the dame, "Ah," said he, "that's Satin tempting Eve."

My dear Horatio, I had a very mysterious dream about you." "What was it. Keep constantly on hand a good stock of to heaven in a golden chariot, surround-2.3m sign of a foul tomach, my love."

HINTS TO YOUNG MOTHERS.

FOR THE ENTERPRISE : BY A LADY READER. With regard to the control of children, ful and contented within themselves.

parents as perfection in all things, and and content, or, if need be, of endurance. deprive them of protection and support. woe to that parent who discovers to the Let no mother trust the education of little confiding mind so palpable a deform- her children entirely to others, if possibly ity, as to be perceived by it. There can she can avoid it. If she feels disqualified be no greater humiliation on one side, or for teaching by any deficiencies of her own grief and disappointment on the other. If | education, she ought, by all means, to use you have forbidden a child to do an ac- what leisure she may have in qualifying tion, no matter how insignificant, be care- herself in those branches which her childful that it does not find you doing the same | ren are pursuing. This, perhaps, is equally thing, and thereby have its sense of justice | the duty of both parents : for children are outraged, except, of course, in such cases | always far more deeply interested in that as where the reason of the difference can which seems to interest their parents, than

Be careful about showing irritation of temper, for there is no habit so catching. If the mother of a family is a scold, or fault-finder, ten chances to one if every child she has does not turn out a scold and fault-finder; not only making themselves miserable, but sending out ever-widening circles of misery into the families they shall raise, and they after them. Women have a good excuse for irritability in their amour, he quickly attempted to withdraw, sensitive organization, and strength so when his brother judge vociferated, "For often over-taxed; but when the injury heaven's sake, stop and hear this matter done by indulgence is so great, it is worth explained." "Never mind, my dear brother; the matter explains itself"-and while to try the length of your endurance. Beware of making uncharitable remarks maid as best he could .- Anecdetes of the about your friends or neighbors in the presence of children. It is a peculiarity of these little folks to like gossip about A railway accident lately occurred by their elders, and I have seen children sit the axle of a tender giving way, which | hours in the house to listen to the converdetained the train several hours. A lady sation of their parents and neighbors when inquired of a gentlemen passenger why it | it was of a personal character, who would was so delayed; he gravely replied: otherwise have been happily at play. The Musical Instruments, Stationery, Cuttery, "Madam, it was occasioned by what is effect of such conversations on their inexoften followed by serious consequences- perienced minds is to give them very incorrect and unhappy notions of persons and things, and an anecdote treasured up in this way has often been of great injury, not only to the child who judged wrongly, but through the child to others whom it influenced, as well as the person judged.

Do not suffer a child to be made afraid sul to his son, "let it be to a woman who promises without intending to keep them; this exploring, you will be deeply delighthas sense enough to superintend the setting | thereby learning them to place no confi- | ed, and your child led insensibly to an unof meal of victuals, taste enough to dress | dence in what you say, and teaching them | derstanding of and confidence in his own herself, pride enough to wash before a lesson of equal untruthfulness. Neither, powers in some particular sphere of acbreakfast, and sense enough to hold her when you command a child, use a great tion. In doing this for him or her, you doubt its instant obedience. Such a man- and student-life.

to cultivate in them such tempers, motives, erto your child has depended upon you butterfly," suggested the nobleman.

habits, and principles as shall secure that | for every thing-maintenance, instruction, in their offspring, and although it may be little bump it has received, you affect to mind that he is ready to take upon himnecessary to punish those faults, the neces- pity the floor, or the table, or whatever it self a man's duties. Through all kinds of sity might be avoided by a proper self- has come into collision with. Its mirthful- errors will be struggle, and if he fall not, control in the majority of cases. Qualities ness is excited by the ludicrousness of the it will be by virtue of an inherent manligo by inheritance it is true; but many idea, which it quickly perceives, and the ness that may defy temptation and trial of more are gained by household education. trouble is forgotten. Never forget the any kind; and even by his success you do If you wish to have sons and daughters | real good of the child in the pleasure you | not stand acquitted of neglect excellent in every characteristic, exhibit | yourself experience in lavishing pity and | Your daughters you are training up for that excellence in your own conduct daily. tenderness upon it : but mix up with these | what? To get married? But they may Children are very apt to look upon their | endearments wholesome lessons of patience | be unfortunate in marriage, or death may

The writer was once teaching a little | to show a sympathy in the pursuit of the fellow to feed himself at table. Childlike, earlier elementary branches, in order to he put in his food as fast as he could, and fix their attention sufficiently upon them. in very large mouthfuls. I took great it is even more important when the pupil see that they excel. It is true that men pains to show him the proper size of a becomes farther advanced to be able not have hitherto jealously guarded the avemouthful, such as he should take, using only to assist your children in their studies. nues of trade from the encroachments of the expression "do not stuff your mouth." but to be competent to judge of the pro- your sex; but when you have become Happening to have him at table with my- priety of the course of instruction they really fitted to compete with them in the self one day, not long afterwards, I was are following, as well as of the merits of knowledge of and capacity for any busisurprised to see him watching me with an authors, and the perfection of theories, ness within your desires, it will be in vain expression of outraged confidence on his Those children who are handed over to for them to resist you. The time is combaby face, and laying down my knife and | teachers, no matter how able, who have | ing when women may be truly independfork, I smiled and asked him what was the no special sympathy with their pupils, al- ent, in the way perfectly compatible with matter. "Ee stuff ee mouf!" replied the most invariably learn by rote, instead of delicacy and feminine dignity. little fellow in so grieved a voice that I having that thorough understanding of In these few hints which I have given could not refrain from laughing; for I in- their subjects which familiar instruction concerning the treatment of children from stantly comprehended that he had been and conversation imparts to the confiding, infancy to maturity, I have arrived at concomparing the size of my mouthfuls with youthful mind. It frequently happens in densing instruction into a small space, bethose I had instructed him to take. So this way that a very expensive and appalieving that if you value my suggestions soon do children begin to criticise and rently thorough education is nearly lost the subject will continue in your minds, upon a son or daughter, who, after going and you will elaborate it in your own through all the text books, and having all thoughts. And let me here again remind led" prayer meeting somewhere down in really ignorant person; the fault having knowledge, as well for yourselves as your shocked at seeing one of the "fair sect" been that no one ever engaged his or her | children. It is imperative upon you, that | get up and deliver a discourse. His feelattention by sympathy—the most sure before you assume the responsibilities of lings were still further wrought upon as struct your child in these mysteries-to teach them what you have learned, and teach him the exquisite and harmonious council them to continue the study. relations of things-to explore with him Neither excuse your sons; but be especithe intricate but delightful paths of science, ally faithful with your daughters, for with and to make of him a chemist, botanist, reologist, or naturalist, or to explore with him the great and wonderful truths of astronomy, you give him one of the most surest means of happiness as well as o usefulness; and you make of him the noblest of whatever he is capable of being. Admitting that you are not able to go far with him in these pursuits : only then go as far as you can, and give him a taste for the study or studies. This course, too, will develop not only of anything. Fear is not only undignified. his highest morality, but will show to you but a source of the greatest discomfort to | and to him the peculiar bent of his mind, the possessor; and do not teach children | for he will be sure to have a preference for to doubt your word by promising them some one thing over another, and thereby anything which you do not perform, you can decide upon his future profession whether it be a favor or a punishment. Supposing that he does not find his pecul-Their minds are not so occupied with busi- | iar talent in the natural sciences, the acness that they forget it, whatever it may quisition of this knowledge is a help to be. They are, on the contrary, expecting | him in the attainment of any other kind of many words, but remember to speak renew your own youth and experience

ner will nearly always insure obedience ; After thus becoming acquainted with but if, for some peculiar reason, it fails, the capacities of your children, by joining insist upon being obeyed promptly, in the in their studies, and having perfected their same calm, kind, and firm manner. Al- knowledge by furnishing them the best most the whole secret of securing the re- books on their favorite subject, decide for spect and cheerful obedience of children them, or with them, upon a profession. lies in that one neglect of parents, arising | Every child, male or female, should have from carelessness. They imagine it easier a profession, trade, or handicraft of to have an occasional battle with a child some sort. The origin of looferism is to subdue its temper when it has got be- the want of this, in nine cases out of yond the bounds of reasonable endurance, ten. The want of this among women rethan every day, and all the time to require | sults still more deplorably. How, let me just the same respect of authority, which ask any kind father and tender mother, in time becomes a habit, and the child is can you reconcile yourself to the righteousinsensible to any restraint, and of course ness of bringing children into the world happier than when half the time indulged to turn them off, as soon as they arrive at happiness, not only by making them be- sympathy and, all at once, either by beloved and respected by others, but peace- coming of a proper age, or by your death, he or she is cast upon his or her inexperithere can be no rule by which all can be To preserve their health is the first duty, ence to contend not for bread only, but governed alike. Health, temperament, and after that to teach them usefulness, for position, consequence, character, every disposition, each affect the behavior of the virtue, self-respect, and cheerfulness. The thing desirable, unarmed with a knowlchild, and should be considered in its latter is of much greater value than most edge of any occupation that could secure management. Children of excitable tem- parents perceive. A cheerful self-reliant the one, and too timid and desparing to perament (and this is now by far the larg- disposition is a greater gift than a fortune, know how to make sure of the other. est class), require greater wisdom in their and it is never too early to begin to incul- For the sins, suffering, and shame which training than others. Their over-active cate it in the infant mind. Do not allow a too frequently falls to the lot of these minds and delicate bodies, are truly a child to dwell upon a hurt or grievance of weaponless ones set in the front rank of serious care to those who have the rearing any kind, but by lively, hopeful, or play- the battle of life, not themselves, but their of them. Example is the best of teachers, ful remark teach it to regard the accident parents are too often responsible. Beas the infant is purely imitative in its na- as of no serious importance. A child will cause, a son has come to maturity physiture : and here, let me impress it upon par- frequently laugh instead of crying, if, in- cally, is no reason he should be considerents, that faults of their own are reflected stead of making a great ado over some ed a man, unless you have so formed his

> What then? They are ignorant, helpless, and despairing. To keep a cheap boarding-house, to wash gentlemen's shirts, to sew for a few cents a day, to drudge at the most menial and unprofitable employments, unable to educate or even comfortably clothe their children-this is the fate awaiting them in case of any accident to their prosperity. Let me consul and entreat you to do what you can to prevent it. Educate your daughters not only in books and every accomplishment you can afford but also in some one particular branch of industry which would afford a maintenance if necessary, and in that one branch lowing them to take up with any absurd | Physiology and Medicine, and by an un- most mastering his power of utterance : or superstitious explanations which may derstanding of the first, endeavor to avoid have descended through generations of the necessity of the latter. And now go uneducated and credulous persons. There | over these imperfect suggestions from first

SARDINES .- The lovers of the "little ishes biled in ite" should know that the fish which furnishes them with such a delicious repast belongs to the herring family. The popular name was given to it by Cuv- the hight of the mosquito time, her mother ier, who was the first to assign it to a dis- said to her : "Ettie, you must always be a tinct place in the finny tribe. He called good girl and then at night, when you are it sardinia, from which it is known as the asleep, the angels will come and sing and sardine. Sardines are caught principally watch around your bed." "Oh, yes, ma," extent, in Portugal. The fisheries employ singing around my bed last night, and a large number of men and women. The fishing vessels-of eight or ten tuns each, and carrying a crew of from six to ten-go out two or three leagues from the land. and watch for shoals of fish. When they monument: "He has gone where his musee them, they spread their gill-nets for sic can only be excelled." The widow of them, and scatter on the water the bait that | a pyrotechnist saw this, and had inscribed you to keep your word, unless you show knowledge. Try him then on mathematics has been prepared, and which consists of upon her husband's tomb; "He has gone them by your conduct that you make and mechanics, or on logic. During all the eggs and flesh of fish; especially of cod where his fire-works can only be excelled." and mackerel, and sometimes of salted taken in this way. Some are salted on board and others are carried on shore, and either sold fresh or prepared for shipment. For the latter purpose, they are salted and pleasantly though firmly, as if you did not over again in the enthusiasm of school-days packed away in tin cans, with melted butter and olive oil, which is poured upon. them in almost a boiling state. The cans are sealed up to prevent the air reaching the fish, and are then ready for shipment.

them rests the welfare of future genera-

A clergyman of a country village desired his clerk to give notice that there would be no service in the afternoon, as he was "going to officiate for another clergymen." The clerk, as soon as the sermon was ended, rose up, with all due solemnity and called out: "I am desired to give notice, that there will be no service this afternoon, as Mr. L. is going a fishing with another clergyman." Mr. L., of course, corrected the awkward, yet and half the time restricted in proportion. the estate of men and women, to depend | Lord Buckingham was once at a dinner Let no mother forget that she is respon- upon mere chance? There is no doubt as where a Mr. Grubb was requested to sing. sible for the happiness of the children she to the unkindness, not to say, wickedness He begged to be excused, urging that he brings into the world. Let her endeavor of such a desertion of your duties. Hith- knew not what to sing. "Sing 'I'd be a

"The Diligent Woman."

She riseth in the morning betimes, and as the lark singeth to his mate, so she maketh a joyful noise in all her house.

She shaketh up her bed, and beateth the pillows thereof, and like as an eagle stirreth up her nest, so she stirreth up the feathers, and spreadeth out the sheets, and layeth the blankets apart. She layeth her hands to the wash-tab, and rubbeth upon the board, making clean the fine linen; her hands take fast hold of the wringer, and by turning the crank the water thereof is pressed out. She clotheth her family with pure garments, when she has made them smooth with a hot iron, and by reason thereof her husband is made comely when he sitteth among the chief men, or walketh in the market places. She kneadeth up her dough, and baketh goodly cake for her household, and to every one she giveth a piece of bread, and butter of kine. She provideth her dinner in due season, and supper faileth not, when the good man returneth at the end of the day, weary with his labors and the strife of men. She looketh well to the ways of her household, and scorneth the idle woman, and calleth a servant. She keepeth safely the heart of her husband, and suffereth not his feet to wander in forbidden paths, by reason of her direction. Yea, he loveth her, and like coong doves they walk together the way of

with her delicate hands, who lieth in bed

Like the busy bee, she continueth diligent all the day long, and by reason of hard work her bones do ache, vet he complaineth not, because she doth it willingly.

She is modest in her apparel, and bringeth no shame to her husband by reason of annaid bills for costly feathers, or mantau stuffing, or frizzly waterfalls of dog's hair. She obeyeth the voice of nature in the circumference of her waist, and maketh but a moderate spread about her nether imbs. She is good mannered in the cars a rare accomplishment! She tucketh up her dress betimes, giving the street to men's feet, without molestation. She is a keeper at home, not gadding about, revealing the secrets she ought not, but ready always to labor in kindness and charity and good works. Many housewives have done nobly, but she excelleth them all .- Boston Daily Ad-

The following scene occurred at a "culthe usual masters, turns out a dull and you of the importance of physiological Massachusetts. A sable attendant was and universal mode of instructing suc- motherhood you should knew with what one after another of the sisters affected by a terrible and wonderful, as well as beau- the contageous influence got up and Teach your children to inquire into tiful, being you are gifting your offspring. "freed dar minds." At last he sprang to causes when they see effects, instead of al- Gather about you the best authors on his feet, excitement and indignation al-

"Feller sinners," said he, "ef I'd spose dat de ladies would be p'mitted to take part in dis yer discussion-(sensation)-ef is no training of the human mind more to last, and begin to think upon the sub- I'd a none dat de ladies cud jine in dis yer ennobling than that which comes by a close | ject. Follow up thinking with reading, | debate-(all eyes turned on the speaker) observance of, and inquiry into the mys- and reading again with thinking; and as | of I'd bleebe for one moment, feller cititeries of Nature. If you are able to in- fast as your daughters are old enough, zens, dat de female sect would dare to raise dar voices in dis yer meetin,' I'dfeller citizens'-"Wot-wot would you've a did, ef

> the sisters, as the whites of their eyes flashed on the speaker. "I (scratching his wool)-I'd a brung you'd a none it ?" shouted two or three of my wife along wid me!" BITING ANGELS .- When Ettie, about five years old, was being put to bed, during along the coasts of Brittany and, to a less | said Ettie, "I know that; I heard them some of them bit me, too." NOT TO BE OUTDONE. - The widow of a > celebrated musician had inscribed on his Theodore Hook was walking, in the days of Warren's blacking, where one of the emissaries of that shining character had written on the wall "Try Warren's

B-." but he had been frightened from his work and fled. "The rest is 'lacking," said the Wit. A young lady having promised her grandma that she would never marry a certain fellow, "on the face of this earth -there now ?" repaired with him, after the old lady's death, to the Mammoth Cave, in Kentucky, and was married underground. ARIZONA. - Governor McCormick, of Arizona Territory, in his late message says, "there is not a single stage coach running in the territory, although it has been organized nearly three years. A man lately inquired for letters at a country post office, was told there was none, upon which he asked if there was not another post office in the place.

Where is paper money first mentioned in the Bible? When the dove brought the green back to Noah.

Twic.- This line fills out the column."-Jacksomille Reneweet