City Election.

Editor Enterprise: In your issue of the 20th inst., I notice a short article on the coming city election, in which there is a suggestion that it might be well to disregard politics and fill the political parties concurring therein. Allow me to say that I heartily endorse the

I am a Union man, and have voted the Republican ticket ever since the organization of the party, and expect to vote it in all political contests that may arise, so long as the party adheres to its true prinlong as the party adheres to its true principles. But city officers cannot, by means John W. Lewis, of such offices, exert a political influence beyond that which they possess as private individuals. No action that they may take can or will have any influence on county, State or National politics. But the city election is and should be more like a family | Takes this opportunity to inform his arrangement than a field for political contest, and the officers elected should be chosen with a view to the general good of the entire mass of the town.

If this view of the situation is correct, and meets with approbation of a majority of our citizens, why not call a meeting may desire for that purpose.
