Because Love's sigh is but a sigh, Doth it the less Love's heart disclose? Because the rose must fade and die, Is it the less the lovely rose? Because black night must shroud the day, O Shall the brave sun no more be gay?

Because chill autumn frights the birds, Shall we distrust that spring will come? Because sweet words are only words, Shall Love forevermore be dumb? Because our bliss is fleeting bliss, Shall we who love forbear to kiss?

Because those eyes of gentle mirth Must sometime cease my heart to thrill; Because the sweetest voice on earth Sooner or later must be still; Because its idol is unsure, Shall my strong love the less endure?

Ah no! let lovers breathe their sighs, And roses bloom, and music sound, And passion burn on lips and eyes, And Pleasure's merry world go round; Let golden sunshine flood the sky, And let me love, or let me die!

ETTE.—A scheme is on foot in this city struct a draw-bridge across the Willamette, connecting this shore with the high land at East Portland. We were, yesterday shown a draft of the proposed structure, together with a profile view of the river bottom, surveyed from the foot of Stark street. The survey was made by Mr. T. R. Brook, Civil Engineer, San Francisco. The drawings show a length of 1,464 feet, with six spans, including the pivot draw. The estimates and specifications are, for cubic yards of masonry. 5 464; cubic yards of stone filling. 20,-©880; 400 piles; 1.917,888 feet of lumber, board measure; cost, $149.042 88.
