THE ENTERPRISE.—Last week the Occi-den City Enterprise was enlarged by the addition of one column to each page, and the lengthening of all columns in a corresponding measure. Now we are giving to our readers a weekly paper in every respect equal to any in Oregon except those which are compiled from daily editions in Portland. To enlarge at this time may seem to some extra hazardous, but we carefully considered the matter before and if our patrons do not fail to keep their faith with us shall go on as the paper now appears, promising other additions as we are enabled to make them. Otherwise the paper will be reduced to the original size.

We have determined to let it be said that distinction with its advantages, has a paper equal to the times, if not in advance of other matters about us—and while we are not given to grandiose must urge those in arrears for their subscription, and job work especially, to come forward and settle the accounts. As the time of this volume, three months hence, we wish to have old books fully and finally closed; all accounts square, and advance payments for volume two. We know that we render a fair equivalent to all our patrons for their patronage, and feel that we are deserving of the support of every citizen of this county, at least, yet there are hundreds of men who have not yet subscribed for the Enterprise. Men who are taking weekly into their families, Eastern publications that are worse than trash; papers which are full of lies, and which are full of children, and which ought not to be read by the support of enlightened people, when there are plenty of papers published which are full of truth and which are full of such good general news as that they may know so many papers they cannot afford to read any other. It never seems to occur to another class of people, who take the paper, that there are a great many other papers of local interest which the county paper makes known, and which could reach the public in no other way.

The influence of the press, of the courts, of public meetings, of local societies, etc., are all of general interest, and are
