THE COW.

O ! the cow, the beautiful cow,
Nibbling the hay from the fragrant mow,
Into the thistles and clover so fresh,
Poking your nose with a sweet relish,
Munching—
Munching—
All in a mash ;
Beautiful cow, you will one day be hash.

Oh, the cow, the playful cow,
Meeting the pail with a playful bow,
Giving it generously all of your milk,
Winking and blinking your lashes of silk,
As it
Streams in a splash,
With frolicsome dash.
A failure to give it soon settles your hash.

SHEEP AS WEEDERS.—We are well acquainted with a pasture near the sea coast which many years ago was an exceedingly foul piece of land—abounding with a great variety of bushes, among which were the barberry and many climbing plants, and so closely laced and intertwined by the wild rose, that they formed an almost impenetrable jungle. Three years afterwards we saw the same pasture with a flock of sheep on it, grazing upon a close, compact turf, covered with short, sweet grasses, and without a weed or bush of any kind upon it.

"How has this reclamation been accomplished?" we inquired as we stood looking upon it.

"By the sheep," said our informant.

"Without plowing and seeding?" we asked.

"Yes, by the sheep alone," was the reply.

The pasture was quite uneven and rocky, but the sheep had exterminated every vestige of wild plants, and clothed the surface with fresh, rich, perpetual herbage.

CROPS IN NAPA.—The Reporter of the 13th says: "Haying is nearly over. The wheat crop promises but half in some places, while in others it shows signs of a good return. We noticed a field of Mr. Woodward, adjacent to the public road, that looks free and will turn off as good a crop this year as ever it did. The corn looks fine and there appears to be more in this year than has been planted for some years. Men are still busily engaged cultivating it.

CANADA THISTLES.—The great question of interest to the whole country is the spread or suppression of the Canada thistle. Men will spend their time and money at all kinds of shows and exhibitions, and stand or sleep, and let this curse from Heaven spread over the whole land. If it is not checked in its progress it will be but a short time before the producers of wheat will be driven from the great wheat fields of the West, as Adam was driven from the garden in the East.

A CONVENIENT TABLE.—The following statement is given by an exchange as a guide for estimating the quantity and cost of nails for a given definite piece of work :

3-penny	1 inch	557 nails P. lb.
4-penny	1½ inches	358 nails "
5-penny	1¾ inches	232 nails "
6-penny	2 inches	167 nails "
7-penny	2¼ inches	141 nails "
8-penny	2½ inches	101 nails "
10-penny	2¾ inches	68 nails "
12-penny	3 inches	54 nails "
20-penny	3½ inches	34 nails "
Spikes	4 inches	16 nails "
Spikes	4½ inches	12 nails "
Spikes	5 inches	10 nails "
Spikes	6 inches	7 nails "
Spikes	7 inches	5 nails "

CAMPHOR.—If small shavings of camphor are thrown on the surface of perfectly clean water, in a large basin, the pieces immediately begin to move rapidly, some around on their centers, others from place to place. The cause of these motions is unknown.

RATS.—An army of rats made a raid on the hog pen of a farmer at Summer Hill, N. Y., a few weeks ago, and killed and nearly devoured a hog weighing two hundred pounds.

PAINT.—Oil paint applied to houses and barns, out-buildings and fences, will last much longer and harder better if put on as late as the middle of autumn, instead of during the heat of summer.

SHIPMENT OF GRAIN.—It is a very fortunate thing for our Grain-growers says the California Farmer that there is so much shipping in port, and so many persons ready to buy and ship. We trust that every Grain-grower will expedite the sale and shipment of his crops as fast as possible. Every cargo that leaves our State is just so much capital brought into our State for the benefit of the people. We therefore again urge our Grain-growers to change their grain for gold, free themselves from debt, make make such improvements as their Farms and Homes may demand, and carefully invest their surplus profits. It is better to sell at the present rates than to risk all for higher rates, for, from reports received from other States, the crops will be very large all over the Union, and the prospect for an Eastern market this coming year is not flattering.

Scientific Miscellany.

The presence of copper in the yolk of eggs, has been determined by a French professor.

The chemical action of a grain of water upon four grains of zinc, will evolve electricity equal in quantity to that of a powerful thunder-storm.

Magnesium light is introduced into the human mouth in dentistry, with great advantage, enabling the operator to perform at all hours better than by the light of day.

Last March, a co-operative company for the manufacture of furniture was formed in Cincinnati, with a capital of $2,000,000, in shares of $100.

A chimney at Thompsonville, Conn., 100 feet high, and containing 100,000 bricks, was moved recently a distance of seventy feet without damage.

A hundred million dollars, it is said, is annually sent to Europe from this country, for the single item of steel—an article which can be made in Oregon equally as well as in England.

Dr. Richardson states that iodine placed in a small box with a perforated lid destroys organic poissons in rooms. In cases of smallpox he has seen this method used with great benefit.

Flame is one of the most beautiful things in the world. Not a sunset sky in the summer, not a blown tropic-flower, is more brilliant than flame ; flame is the flower of fire. The ivy has no splendor like the mantling flame ; it reddens like the thyrus of the god.

The whole number of sewing machines manufactured in the United States, up to the close of 1866, was 750,000. The present annual production is about 200,000. A site in Oregon City for a manufactory, equal to any in the world, could be obtained readily, and the Oregon machines would find a market in Asia.

The discovery that plaster of paris was a non-conductor of heat was made by a man who, while making plaster images, frequently washed his hands in a tin pan, the bottom of which soon became incrusted. Soon after, when it was put on the fire to heat water, it was found that the water could not be heated. This discovery was put to a practical use in the making of iron safes.

A member of the American Institute, suggests as the best scarecrow to keep birds from cherry trees, strawberry beds, etc., the stuffed skin of a cat, with big glass eyes. The position of the effigy should be changed every day, or the birds will find out that it is a dummy. As the material for its construction is plentiful, would it not be well for our gardeners and orchardists to bear the fact in mind.

An obvious improvement has been introduced by a Birmingham manufacturer, which consists in making silver forks whole and hollowed or fluted for about two-thirds the present length, leaving the prongs of the sufficient length of half or three-quarters of an inch, the implement becoming thus partially a "split spoon," convenient for small particles, liquid or semi-liquid ingredients, pears, and the like.

A recent English patent presents a very simple and efficient application of the endless hoist principle, commonly used for grain and flour for building and general purposes. Two parallel endless chains pass over parallel pulleys widely enough apart for the hoisting boxes or cages to swing clear between them, and are connected at proper intervals by iron bars, from the centres of which the iron cages are suspended. Four of these pulleys being arranged equi distant, like the four wheels of a car truck, as each end of the hoist, permit a constant succession of cages to pass each other going up and down, remaining always right side up.

An Australian paper says: "A discovery has just been brought under our notice which may eventually be productive of important results. A man named Bright was traveling overland from Adelaide to Majorca, when, leaving the usual route to look after some sheep, he came across numerous springs of what at first appeared to be water, but on closer inspection proved to be a kind of liquid gum or oil, which, on exposure to the air, becomes solidified, at first to the consistency of jelly, and afterwards to that of India-rubber—in which form we have now a piece in our possession. The peculiarity of this gum, or whatever it may be termed, is that it burns freely with a bright flame, but accompanied with a thick smoke and smell as of old grease, such as would be emitted from machinery oil while in a state of combustion. The substance is light, and floats easily on water.

Platinum has been discovered in large quantities in New Zealand.

REPARATOR CAPILL.
Throw away your false frizzes, your switches your wigs—
Destructive of comfort, and not worth a fig;
Come again, some youthful, come ugly and fair
And restore in your own luxuriant hair.

REPARATOR CAPILLI: For restoring Hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out,) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal.
It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. The Reparator consists of 20 ingredients, and we have thousands living witnesses (from their own pens) to whom we can refer. But surely will any here see we be challenged, the question from the sceptical? It certainly is difficult, as ninetenths of the different preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in worthless. To those we would say, try the Reparator Capilli it will not cost much, and it will surely come up to our representations. If your druggist does not keep it, send us one dollar and we will forward it, postpaid, together with a receipt for the same, which will be returned you on application, providing entire satisfaction is not given. Madame H. A. PERRIGO.
She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. Restores to happiness those wives, from dolorful events, catastrophies, crosses in love, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness, and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers, unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Call and consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness, and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price as above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them.
Write plainly the day of the month and the year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair. Address,
