TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

We take the following telegraphic news from dispatches to the Oregonian.

A Florence dispatch of the 25th says: When the news of Garibaldi's arrest became known, partisans in this city were greatly exasperated, appearing in the streets in crowds, and made turbulent demonstrations of sympathy for their leader. These manifestations developed into a riot. Garibaldi has written a letter, in which he says: "Romans have the right of all slaves to rise up against their oppressors. It is the duty of Italians to help them in the struggle for liberty. The hopes of her fellow patriots are not to be disconraged by the first reverse." He exhorts them to reorganize and march again for the liberation of Rome. The letter concludes with an appeal to the liberal party of Italy, declaring that the eyes of the world are turned on them.
