TOWN AND COUNTY.

THE OREGON CITY FACTORY .- While at the Factory a few days ago we were invited to the upper story where our eyes feasted upon a sight which made us proud. The sight was a lot of new family blankets, just turned out by Mr. Wortley. In size the pair is 90 by 80 inches. The "nap" i long, and soft, like the finest wool, and the finishing equal to that on the best Mission blanket. The stripes at the ends are a beautiful combination of crimson, blue, orange, canary and searlet mixed with We should prize such Llankets and no doubt people generally will, when they are offered in the market. We do think that Mr. Wortley is a scientific gentleman, and understands his business common styles of goods which he is making, are certainly unequalled on the coast. and we may well claim that his blankets are ahead. Orders from abroad are now pressing the factory to its fullest extent.

individual was again arrested and lodged in jail. On Monday he had a hearing before Recorder Moore on a charge of rioton and disorderly conduct, and being drunk apon the streets, and he was committed for Birty days, and fixed $20 and costs the full penalty provided by ordi nance. Without particularizing, the evi Duce, together with the actions of the man, show him to be dangerous to the thies on the occasion of his late imprisonthat he ought not to have been set at liberty so soon, as really it is to be feared he may perpetrate some injury to person or prop erty, before he is provided with a place at regrets among the people at large.

FINE SHEEP. On Saturday last Mr. John G. Porter of this city, received from the farm of Mr. Geer, in Marion county. the fine three year old Coatswold ram which took the first repulium last year at cross bred Southdown and Coatswold buck | gists and dealers everywhere lamb, six months old, which is a perfect storp. These will be added to the flocks of the gentlemen named, in this county. who seem disposed to produce only the best grades of wool al hough there is not that there should be.

Rolling In. A stream of wealth must have set in the direction of Oregon last sorium the right high of wealth; as Gon war w Unsurpassed for acting surely but was reinforced yesterday, by the arrival of fisteen or eighteen families, in as many wagens, drawn by sleek looking mules and oxen. The train passed through this city the welcoming admiration of our citizens J. G. Frisch, Proprietor, Taylor & Bennet who saw them. They must have had a pleasan trip, judging by their appearance but no doubt feel exceedingly grateful as having reached their journey's end.

Lord Woot.-We were shown at the Factory last Tuesday, samples of " bister wool," from an imported Lincolnshire buck, which measured sixteen inches in length. The buck is of the Contswold stock. We were also shown a sample of Saxony wood, produced in Massachusetts which for fineness we could only liken to with. Such wool is used in making broad cloth, and commands from seven bits to $1.00 per pound in England, by the cargo, but here there is no profit in producing the quality, as the sheep are generall small, the florces light, and labor too high

KICKER.-A little girl was seriously injured in this city on Thursday last by the kick of a borse, which was standing near he side walk where she was passing. We del not learn the particulars, but it is time the Council passed a stringent regulation forbidding the hitching of animals in places where they can do damages like FRIGHTI U. A CIDENT .- Mr. David Leedy of Liun county, was terribly burt at Asteria on Saturday morning last, while In his berth on board the steamship Sierra scala, that steamer having collided at wharf with the revenue cutter Jo Lane. was brought to Portland, where he reained antil Thursday, then was taken to his home. It is thought he will recover.

RETURNED.-Major Thomas Charman made his appearance in the city early on Monday morning-and he informs us that the fruits of his visit are following him | DRY GOODS! The Oriflumme brought him, to Chether with about 175 packages of his chases. The banks Sam Merritt and Live Truskee bring much more.

CLOSED. Studies at the Seminary closed yesterday for one week, in order to allow needed remains to the building. We learn fom Mr. Pope that the school is progress satisfactorily now, and that calls parents and others interested are ite frequent. 6
