"THE MELODIES OF MOTHER Goose."-When Rev. P. S. Knight announced the subject of the lecture as above given in this city on Monday evening last for the benefit of the building fund of Oregon Lodge No. 3, we were at a loss to conjecture the train he would be likely to follow. but trusted to his own good judgment for the solution, hence when the evening came, and with it the lecture, we were gratified at hearing a most excellent discourse. The speaker said, at the outset, that when he agreed to deliver this lecture he resolved to do it with just as little work as possible, and began to look about him for a subject -he asked himsel "shall I take philosophy?" "No because I am not a philosopher. Nor history because he was no historian, nor politics because he was no politician-considering then that he race of men," he took criticism, and in this sought for the lowest round in the ladder, and selected the subject named, which he treated in a manner highly satisfactory to the large audience of ladies and gentleman who had assembled to greet him. " Mothrlymes, composed to amuse children, but Mr. Knight placed it alongside of the works of Shakespeare, and other celebrated authors "in the brave days of old" showing that the object for which it was written had been accomplished-and, holding that as Shakespeare wrote to amuse grown up children, and Mother Goose to amuse those who were not grown up -he was " willing both should live as long as men and children live, and go down through the ages side by side, toilers in the same field." His illustrations of the Grammar of other the work, showed his partiality to it, which was finally rounded off at the close by a generous appeal to parents for sympathy for the children. He dealt kindly with the subject, and while he did not "lay bare its bones" por "tear apart its muscles"-assured his audience that there was more real pleasure in only touching the surface " picking off a few feath ers," then in searching for the bare bones of luckless authors. It is useless to say that none were benefit ed by attendance at this lecture. All who were present, we feel certain, will testify that the first lecture of the course was a decided success. The second lecture will be given on Tuesday evening next, at 71 o'clock at the Court House, by Rev. C. C. Stratton of Portland, upon the subject of-" Eye to Eye." We hope and trust that the interest manifested on last Monday evening will increase as the times for the lectures approach. The object is a most worthy one, devised in which to spend an evening. -At the Council meeting on Monday evening last nothing definite was done with regard to the water works. We propose giving a history of water works in Oregon City soon, which if not quite so ancient as the history of the dam spoken of by Billy Shakespeare, will no doubt be fully as interesting, and no more profitable way can be

-Since the departure of Mr. J. T. Wortley from the Oregon City Woolen Mills, Messrs, Jacobs take charge of the Superintendency, and with the assistance of their skilled boss workmen, as well as other experienced hands in the mill, are now turning out better goods than was ever turn ed out before, which will stand equal with any made on the coast. Our attention has been called to some nice cassamiers and beavers which are now being turned out, which are superior to any article ever heretofore produced in Oregon,

-En route to their future homes on Monday's boat, came 21 families who left the cold and forbidding re gions of Minnesota and Wisconsin, last May, for Oregon. We welcome all such, and hope our people will be generous toward them.

-The best furniture in Oregon is that made by Levy & Co., of this city. Anything from a fine parlor set, to a common bed room set, can be had on short notice. The work will bear inspection.

-If you want any wagon lumber or carriage material, such as Hubs Spokes, Felloes, etc. You can find them at the stores of Robt. H. Law, or E. J. Northrup, advertised in this paper.

-The city Recorder has been instructed to let the contract for the improvement of the alley petitioned for by Messrs. Pope, Good, and others.

-A Christmas party will be given by L. Diller Esq., at the Court House in this city, on the evening of the 12th, was postponed to the 19th. to order,

-The Secremento Daily Record, AUCTION AND COMMISSION neat appearing, well conducted paper, claims an old acquaintance with us. Its scrap of our history is nearly correct, we were a devil in the office of Schuyler Colfax, and did establish the Enterprise at Mishawaka, but it was not that Enterprise which gave us a stake to get out here. -We were among the fortunate mortals who fell in with the good Samaritans, and other Odds at Portland, on last Thursday evening. We return to our tast with a lighter heart, more encouraged for the pattles before us, and feeling every way a better man for having paid the Brotherhood this visit, and regret that time forbids better notice of the events this week.

-Jack Alphin, everybody must know Jack, paid us a visit yesterday. Jack is about the only true blue Democrat in the county of Multnomah, and as such is entitled to distinction by his party, yet he would not accept of any office, from alderman up to President-wherein he differs authors when compared with Mother | with Andrew Johnson-preferring to sell Goose; as also, his general defence of whiskey and oysters, which is Jack's forte,

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITers.-The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits, and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its centrol and invigorating properties, and t is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best remedy they can probably use. In all the crists of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants. Essence of Jamaica Ginger.

REDINGTON & CO.'S COLUMN.

THIS Valuable preparation, containing in a highly concentrated form all the properties of the Jamaica Ginger, has become one of the most popular domestic remedies for all lisenses of the stomach and digestive organs, As a tonic it will be found invaluable to all persons recovering from debility, whether produced by fever or otherwise, for whilst imparts to the system all the glow and vigor that can be produced by wine or brandy, it entirely free from the reactionary effects follow the use of spirits of any kind.

It is also an excellent remedy for females who suffer from difficult menstruction, giving almost immediate reflet to the spasms that so frequently accompany that period.

It gives immediate relief to nausea, eaused by sea-sickness, etc. It is also valuable as an external application for Gout, Rhenmatism,
