The Weekly Enterprise.

Oregon City, Oregon:

P. C. IRELAND, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Saturday, January 18th, 1868.

OUR AGENTS.

L. P. FISHER & Co., Rooms 20 and 21 New Merchants' Exchange, Sacramento street, are our only authorized Agents in San Francisco.

DALY & STEVENS, cor. Front and Morrison streets, (up stairs,) are our authorized Agents in Portland.

B. C. LEWIS, Esq., will continue to act for us as General Traveling Agent.

APOLOGETIC.—We have no intention of writing anything in vindication of ourself for the half sheet presented to our city readers this week. One who now offers an apology, in the language of Crabb, admits himself to have been at least apparently, in the wrong. Circumstances have combined to prevent us from accomplishing any great thing during this freeze up. There is always some palliating circumstances in the worst disasters—we know of no business in our midst which is not a little behind times now. We beg: "Not guilty" of neglect, but by way of extenuating our faults, promise by our usual faithfulness in the future full reparation for present damages.

—Dr. Wythe did not lecture as expected on Tuesday evening last, as there was no communication between this place and Salem. On Tuesday evening next, beyond a doubt, Hon. J. N. Dolph will lecture to our people upon the subject of "The shores of the Mediterranean."

STEAM ON.—Yesterday about 1½ o'clock p. m., we heard the familiar sound of a steamer whistle, the first since our trip to Milwaukie last Saturday. By Monday it is thought the river will be open to Salem, so that boats can run.

FROZEN UP.—Cal. and Shep, the indefatigable drivers on this route between Portland and Salem, keep the mails traveling on time—but all other means of transportation are at a stand still.

ARRIVED.—The steamer Enterprise arrived at Canemah from Salem at 1½ o'clock P. M. yesterday. We have no official memoranda of the trip, but suppose the river to be open, or nearly so.

TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS AND PRECINCT DELEGATES TO THE CLACKAMAS COUNTY CONVENTION.—The undersigned through the solicitation of a few friends and I hope the approval of many, is a candidate before the Republican Convention for nomination to run for County Clerk at the next June election, entirely subject to your action. I take this method of advertising in order that any who do not know me personally may have every opportunity to find out for themselves how I am and have been morally and politically.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES M. FRAZER.
Oregon City, Jan. 18th, 1868.

SUPERIOR FACILITIES FOR EDUCATION.—Mr. C. Ross having taken charge of the select school under the direction of Miss Harvey begs leave to inform the People of Oregon City that he will continue teaching, adding to the course already established the thorough knowledge of Latin and Italian languages, ancient, modern, sacred and profane history, moral, metaphysic, and divine science. He hopes he will meet with good success, which he had always while professor in two different Universities of Italy, and in one of the best Seminaries of Pennsylvania. He is desirous also to give private lessons at home, for the accommodation of those who do not like to go to a daily school. He will teach on moderate terms. 13. 1mo.

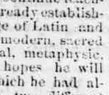
By order of W. M.

EVENING BULLETIN.—We have received the first and succeeding numbers of this new daily, from Portland, this week. It is well gotten up, and appears to be well supported. We quote from it as follows:

"With the first issue of this flourishing paper, you will readily perceive the good qualities of another addition to the printing skill, and I take notice, too, that even it acknowledges that Kohn & Fishel, No. 93 Front street, keep the best selection of the Finest Clothing, Gents' Furnishing Goods, Dry Goods, etc., at prices that defy competition.

TWO STEAMERS DAILY.—The steamer Senator, of the Peoples' Transportation Company, now leaves Oregon City on the morning of each day, Sundays excepted, and returns in the afternoon from Portland. This gives the people of Oregon City a fine opportunity to visit the celebrated establishment of Barman Bros., corner of Front and Morrison streets, where all kinds, sizes, and qualities of Gents' Furnishing Goods, Clothing, etc., in endless variety, are constantly on exhibition, and for sale at the most moderate prices.

MACK & HATCH,



DENTISTS,

The patronage of those desiring First Class Operations, is respectfully solicited.

Satisfaction in all cases guaranteed.

N. B.—Nitrous Oxide administered for the Painless Extraction of Teeth. Also: the Rhigolene Spray used for those who prefer it.

OFFICES—Corner of Washington and Front streets, Portland. Entrance on Washington street. 42.tf

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits, and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best remedy they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants. Sold by the druggists and dealers everywhere.

If you wish the very best CABINET PHOTOGRAPHS, you must call on BRADLEY & RULOFSON, 429 Montgomery street, San Francisco.

CAUTION.—All persons are cautioned not to buy or negotiate a certain check of the value of $50, upon a bank in Iowa, drawn in favor of Francis Lebold, and endorsed by him—as the same was lost in Oregon City, on the 26th, and payment has been stopped. The finder would confer a favor by leaving it with Capt. J. T. Apperson, of the steamer Union.

BUCHTEL'S PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY is the only establishment in Oregon that is thoroughly prepared to do all the different styles of work in the art. Photographs from card to life size. The new Cabinet Cards, &c., &c. Small pictures enlarged (retouched in India ink—painted in water colors or oil, by Mrs. S. J. Rumsey.) All negatives taken in this gallery will be carefully preserved, that additional copies may be had. Mr. B. has now on hand a very large collection of negatives, the names of which are recorded alphabetically in a book for that purpose, which may be seen in the reception room.

A TRUE STORY.—Tripping down the stairway once, long ago, we fell, shattering a large, lighted fluid lamp. In a moment the blaze wrapped us around like a fiery serpent. Every tragedy has a come side: Bridget tossed the baby on the bed, and ran for water; aunt Mary seized the spread to extinguish the flames, and pulled baby down on the floor; Jane came up from the kitchen and put out every light then burning, 'cause the house was afire, and Bridget, returning with a tub of water, tumbled down, upset the water and bumped her nose. Meanwhile we rolled over and over on the floor, till the flame was extinguished, when one arm was found to be terribly burned. Then how quickly Davis' Pain Killer soothed the pain, and to-day, with a hand and arm unmarred by any scar, we write the praises of Pain Killer, valuable for many an ill and ache.—Manchester, N. H., Every Month.

ALLENS' LUNG BALSAM—The remedy for curing consumption, asthma, croup, diseases of the throat, bronchitis, pains and oppressions of the chest or lungs, difficult breathing, and all diseases of the pulmonary organs. Its action is expectorant, alterative sudorific, sedative, diaphoretic, and diuretic which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known, for the cure of diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm—changes the secretions, and purifies the blood, heals the irritated parts, gives strength to the digestive organs—brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. It is warranted to give entire satisfaction, even in the most confirmed cases of consumption, and not to produce costiveness, as do most remedies, or effect the head, as it contains no opium in any form. It is perfectly harmless to the most delicate child, although an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. There is no necessity for so many deaths by consumption, when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it, if only taken in time. Sold by all druggists. Price $1 per bottle. 14.1y

THE GREETING.

A Collection of Glees, Quartetts, Choruses, Part Songs, &c.: By L. O. Emerson, author of "The Jubilee," Harp of Judah, Golden Wreath, Merry Chimes, etc.

Upwards of half a million copies of Mr. Emerson's music books have been sold, a fact proving a popularity which has rewarded no other author of the same class of books, and which cannot fail to insure for this new volume an immense sale. The contents of this work are, for the most part, new. A large number of valuable pieces have been contributed by Mr. L. H. Southard, whose name is a sufficient guarantee of the excellence.

The marked features of the collection are: Originality, Brilliancy and variety, and it will be found, upon careful examination, that there is no glee book before the public that in every particular will prove so completely satisfactory to musical societies, and conventions, conservatories, clubs and amateur singers. Price $1.50; $12 per doz.; mailed post paid. OLIVER DITSON & Co.,
