DEDICATED TO-

[Published by Request.]

Oh, sister dear, were you but here, These beautiful sights to see, Where the grass is green, and flowers seen',

· And young leaves on the trees.

And then to see those sparkling rills, Come leaping from the snow capped hills Laughing, leaping, skipping, playing, Never stopping on its way, Until it reaches Columbia Bay

And mingles in the Ocean, But before it changes from a rill It strikes the wheels of these noble mills And sets all their gear in motion.

All the streams that are running here, Are sweet and cold, and pure and clear. Through winter's blast, and summer sun

They never cease their course to run Through the entire year. And then to see that mountain high. Its tree tops pointing towards the sky,

Three hundred feet or more. And the beautiful cedar, standing by, Its peaked top almost as high As the majestic yellow fir. And from this lofty mountain height

To view the Valley, dotted o'er With house and farm, and church and school,

And commerce at the door. The trees, all bending down with fruit, And grapes upon the vines;

And as the seasons roll around They all come in their time. This is the place where now I dwell, Far from my former home, And for your sake, my pen I take,

And write this little poem. Jan. 23d, 1867. Water Willow. AARON PAYNE. Apple Valley, Yamhill Co., Oregon.

THE GREETING. A Collection of Glees, Quartetts, Choruses, Part Songs, &c.; By L. O. Emerson, author of "The Jubilee." Harp of Judah, Golden Wreath, Merry Chimes, etc.

Upwards of half a million copies of Mr. Emerson's music books have been sold, a fact proving a popularity which has rewarded no other author of the same class of books, and which cannot fail to insure for this new volume an immense sale. The contentsof this work are, for the most part, new. A large number of valuable pieces have been con-tributed by Mr. L. H. Southard, whose name is a sufficient guarantee of the excellence.

The marked features of the collection are: Originality, Brilliancy and variety, and it will be found, upon careful examination, that there is no glee book before the public that in every particular will prove so completely satisfactory to musical societies, and conventions, conservatories, clubs and amateur singers. Price $1.38; $12 per doz., mailed post paid. OLIVER DITSON & Co.,
