POSTAL MATTERS .- Some time last fall Hon, W. C. Johnson forwarded to Senator Corbett a memorial of the citizens of our county living in the vicinity of Howard's mills, asking for the establishment of an office there. By the last steamer, Mr. Johnson received a communication from Senator Corbett, enclosing a letter from the Postoffice department, declining to establish the office, for the reason that the route from clothing, ladies' dress goods, gents' farnishing goods, etc., it is believed that Kohn & The papers have been forwarded to Postal Agent Brooks. We hope our friends at Howard's mills may be accommodated in some way.
