An affectionate but playful wife in Springfield, Mass., sent a note to her husband, recently, written in a disguised hand, signed with a fictitious name, stating that she had often seen and admired him, and if he would inform her of a place of meeting she would become better acquainted. Husband answered note at once, appointing time and place of meeting. Both parties met at the appointed time and place, the lady heavily veiled, and proceeded to the rooms, where the veil was removed, and a grand tableaux not set down in the bills ensued.
