Never let another fellow Steal a march on you in this; Never let a laughing maiden See you spoiling for a kiss. There's a royal way to kissing, And the jolly ones who make it Have a motto that is winning-If you want a kiss, why-take it.

Any fool may face a cannon, Anybody wear a crown; But a man must win a woman, If he'd have her for his own. Would you have golden apple, You must find the tree and shake it : If the thing is worth the having, And you want a kiss, why-take it.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM Adopted at Salem March 24th 1868,

> 1. Resolved. That it is the highest duty of every American citizen to maintain against all their enemies the integrity of the Union and the paramount authority of the Constitution and laws of the United States, and to preserve at the ballot-box the fruits of the late war.

2. Resolved. That the work of reconstruction of the Southern States belongs to the legislative department of the government and that we endorse the thirteenth and fourteenth amendments to the Constitution and the acts of Congress commonly called the reconstruction acts, as the best plan yet proposed for the restoration of the States lately in rebellion to their former relations to the Federal Gov-

3. Resolved, That we are in favor of admitting the rebel States to representation in Congress at the earliest practicable moment which the public safety will permit. 4. Resolved. That the national debt was necessarily contracted to save the national life and ought to be honestly paid, and we condemn every scheme devised for the repudiation of the whole or any part of the debt as disgraceful to the Republic and unjust to its citizens, and that the proposition to pay in legal tender notes those debts contracted to be paid in specie, is only a milder term for repudiation.

Resolved, That, under the Constitution, the Federal Government has no right examination of the muster-rolls in said to interfere with the elective franchise in any State having representation in Congress and where civil government is not overthrown by rebellion.
