TOWN AND COUNTY.

-It is not generally known that we of Oregon City have any sort of roads upon which to take a drive in the afternoon, before breakfast, or at dusk, but having twice accepted of invitations from friends within the past ten days to ride over the hills east of the city, we learn that in point of fact our county can boast of its drives. The first ride was with Mr. W. B. Partlow.

who has for seventeen years kept livery stable on Main street, and is now about to settle down on a farm, just as any man eight to do, if he wants to be independent and live to a good old age. We rolled out through a shady grove all the way for go again and again, as often as we can afford it.

-----There are hundreds of people living in Portland who never visited this citythey never get beyond the sound of dravs and backs, milk carts, and bakers' wagons. Let them come up here and treat their ears to the sound of our rushing waters, the spindles and looms in our manufactories, the music of our forest birds, and breathe the breath of fresh air. It will do them good. Passage is cheap, and transportation often. Fare 25 cents, 50 cents, or $1 00-take your choice, to go at 9 o'clock by the Senator, 10 o'clock by the Wenat, 1 o'clock r.
