

ORIGINAL DEFECTIVE

The Weekly Enterprise.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

—L. P. Fisher, 99 and 21 New Merchants Exchange, is our only authorized agent in San Francisco. For Eastern Advertising, Mr. Fisher is represented by S. M. Pettigill & Co. of New York and Boston.

—The Enterprise is now printed upon paper made at home.

—Rev. T. A. Hyland, of Astoria, will preach at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in this city this evening, and on to-morrow morning at the usual hours of service.

—A new mill is being erected on the corner above the brick paper mill in this city. It will be called Barry's Exchange, we understand.

—A blast of powder was put into the rocks above the Canemah saw mill, last Saturday. The hole drilled for the blast was 23 feet deep by 2 1/2 inches in diameter. A vast pile of rocks were removed to make room for the C. R. R. Co.'s cars.

—All Life Insurance Co.'s should make provisions in their policies not to pay in cases of suicide. Life Insurance, without this provision, would be an inducement to some men to dispose of themselves.

—A train of immigrants from Colorado, passed through this city on the 23rd, and were en route to Boise, and have made a remarkably quick trip. Their stock looks well. The same day a train headed for Missouri, passed our office door.

—Messrs. Smith, Walker & Fuller, blind musicians, paid this city a visit on Thursday, and gave our citizens two of the best vocal and instrumental entertainments ever given in the place. We recommend them to the press and the public everywhere.

—An exhibition consisting of tableaux, etc., will be given in this city on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings next, Sept. 8th and 9th, under supervision of the ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, the proceeds of which are to be devoted toward the purchase of an organ for the Church. Admission 50 cents. Children half price. The place of the exhibition will be made known by posters on Monday.

—Messrs. Lewis & Wolgamot of Oregon City, can now supply 30 to 40 plows, on demand. They have commenced a large lot, and when these are finished no more need be imported. The Piel Plow, and the Web-foot, are the finest patterns made. They expect to have agents for the sale of these plows in every city in Oregon.

—Rev. P. S. Knight, Pastor of the Congregational Church at Salem, and whose ministrations have been so successful and acceptable in this place, preached in his old pulpit on the 30th, morning and evening. His health has greatly improved this year, consequent upon greater facility for and practice of, outdoor exercises. He came and returned on horseback.

—We have a "Paris letter" from France, puffing dentistry, etc., written "for the Enterprise only," which may appear in at least 40 of our exchanges. We decline to take it, as that letter, in our judgment, Messrs. "Rue de Chablais, No. 10, Paris," Newspaper publishers, "where may be seen, but don't take us for one, laying wide all over this occasion."

—Ever since we established in business at this place our private office has been a sort of hall for the exhibition of choice specimens of the agricultural and mineral productions of Clackamas county. We have grain and the grasses from five to eight feet high, green corn, vegetables, etc., besides silver and gold quartz specimens, copper, iron, coal, diamonds, etc. This collection is often materially increased by the addition of choice varieties of fruit—but these do not keep. The limb upon which a cluster of fine apples grew in the orchard of Mr. Wm. Holmes, still hangs over the doorway, but the fruit has disappeared. Our devil says he can account for the disappearance. On Tuesday Mr. Bartlett left with us a basket full of elegant Bartlett Peaches, and a dozen of the celebrated Crawford Peaches. These will not keep; it is not expected that they will; but they show, while here, that our country is capable of producing. These peaches weigh four pounds (less 21 ounces), three of the largest weighed one pound.

—Since the above was placed in type, Mr. D. D. Thompson has left with us one dozen peaches weighing 6 pounds. Any one who wishes to know whether peaches made here now can have an affirmative answer from us.

—Since the above last paragraph we find ourselves owner of a sack-full of choice fruit, from the orchard of Mr. Nelson Anderson—consisting of Peaches, Apples and Apples. Thank you, gentlemen.

—Wm. Hill, better known as "Buckskin Bill," came up to Oregon City on the 28th, after having served out a sentence in the jail of Multnomah county, not having funds enough to liquidate the fine. His mind was in a terrible state. He sought our office, and desired us to say that he was not passing the city jail strength, and that he was not a convict, and that he had been released from jail, and that he had been in the world as long; that he did not wish to live any longer; that Portland was such a bad place that it had ruined his health, and he would go up to Eugene City where he could die in peace. When Bill told us all these things he seemed perfectly sober, and his manner excited our sympathy—we bade him good-bye, and wished him success in his efforts to reform. On Sunday evening as we were passing the city jail strength, we contracted our attention. It soon became known that Bill was inside, chinking to death! The keys were procured, and deputy Sheriff Callard opened the doors of the prison to reveal a horrid sight. There lay Bill, his head a mass of clotting blood; and his wind pipe nearly closed, with a strong cord made of a blanket-sheet, tied about his throat. Dr. Barclay was sent for before the jail was open, and immediately administered restoratives, so that within an hour the unfortunate man's pulse was gaining strength. He was watched closely that night, and next day Sheriff Myers took him to Portland where the authorities looked out for him. Hill seemed determined to commit suicide—and we learn, incidentally, that his addition to poor whiskey there is a man mixed with his cup of woe. We say any poor being whose life is like that of "Buckskin Bill's."

A SMOKEY WEATHER.

Several of our oldest inhabitants aver that they have never seen in this country, such dense smoke as now prevails. They are, however, slightly in error, as the summer of 1857 was an example of smoke, dense and long continued, beside which the present pales into comparative insignificance. We remember very well that in that summer, says the Oregonian, the atmosphere was so thoroughly loaded with smoke from vast fires in the Coast and Cascade ranges of mountains as to create a sort of dispenser among the people throughout almost the entire valley. The disease resulted from inflammation of the respiratory organs, superinduced by inhalations of smoke, and somewhat resembled influenza. The persons affected were troubled with labored breathing, slight cough and mucous expectoration. We have heard more rather large stories told about the effects of the smoke that season. One person in Yamhill county declared that he actually had a bad toothache cured by breathing the creosote floating about in the air. Another declared that his cough, became so tanned like buckskin that he has never been able since to distinguish by taste between whisky and spring water. It is no secret, however, that he has tried the latter within the last twenty years, and there is a bare possibility that he is mistaken as to the present intelligent sensibility of his youth for the truth of either story, but they will serve to illustrate the deep impression made upon the people's minds by the almost thick darkness which prevailed. Since 1867 there has certainly been nothing to equal the present smoky term. The forests on both banks of the river below and on the Coast range both north and south of the Columbia, are on fire, the conflagration being furious and widespread, and we may therefore expect the smoke to become still more dense, and it may possibly become as troublesome as in 1857.

THE COMMANDMENTS.

4. Thou shalt not walk the streets, unless thy Boots and Shoes are bought at Kohn & Fisher's store.
5. Thou shalt not be allowed to visit ladies unless they come from Kohn & Fisher's store.
6. Thou shalt have no corseting for thy head, unless thy hats are bought at Kohn & Fisher's store.
7. Thou shalt not allow thy female household to go walking, unless their shawls, cloths or silk cloaks, sashes, basques, furs, parasols, fans, ballroom skirts, embroidery, and all sorts of trimmings, are purchased at Kohn & Fisher's store.
8. Thou shalt not buy goods of any one but Kohn & Fisher.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Dr. E. Cooper's Universal Magnetic BALM—a great Family Medicine. It is a sovereign remedy for:
Diphtheria
And kindred diseases of the throat, and unequalled in the cure of (Scarlet, Diphtheria, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, and Fever and Ague,
Neuritis, Rheumatism, Colds, Toothache, Burns, Scalds, Bruises, &c., &c., are at once relieved by its timely use.

Truly a Vegetable Preparation,
It remains without signature of
W. R. STRONG, REDINGTON & CO., Sole Agents, 318-320.

STAR OF THE UNION STOMACH BITTERS.

These delicious Stomach Bitters are entirely Vegetable, and free from alcohol and every harmful ingredient. They are the most powerful and reliable remedy for all diseases of the stomach and bowels, and are especially adapted to the treatment of all cases of indigestion, dyspepsia, biliousness, flatulency, and all other ailments of the digestive system. They are sold at all wholesale and retail drug stores, and by the proprietors, Dr. H. H. Hurland & Co., 318-320.

There have been for the lines of both the east and west side Companies this week, influential men from all parts of the valley. And so far as the real work of the Gaston Company is concerned, it is nothing to compare with what has been done on the East side, as we are assured by men who were over both lines. There is not nearly two consecutive miles of grade near ready for ties on the West side; on the East side about fourteen miles are ready for ties; and this, too, without shipping over land places, as it has been charged was done. All the East Side Company ask, is that their work may be compared with that of West side.

—The Union Mills of the Clackamas Paper Mills could have been running for the past three months only that the Company was compelled to send to New York for a piece of machinery, the value of which was about twenty-five dollars. It was essential, and the mill was unable to run without it. This is news to us, and will undoubtedly be to the proprietors of the mill. Guess you're mistaken about that, Brother Huntington.

—The firm of Holmes & Sunderland has been dissolved. Mr. E. G. Randall is now a partner of Mr. Sunderland, and hereafter the business will be conducted at the old stand by Randall & Sunderland, who respectfully solicit a share of public patronage, and announce that they will sell goods at cost price, from date, ten days, in order to make room for an extensive new stock.

—The Western Hotel will hereafter be conducted under the management of Messrs. Dorsey & Holmes, the old firm of Sewall & Dorsey having been dissolved. Mr. Sewall leaves soon on a visit to the Eastern States. The latter gentlemen have kept a good house, and it is asserted that the present proprietorship, none of the "pleasantness and peace" heretofore enjoyed in this house will be abated, but rather increased. See the Commercial.

—The Oregonian of the day, mentions that Messrs. W. R. Sewall and Geo. B. Cook have purchased the Hotel, corner of S. N. Arrington's Hotel, corner of S. N. Arrington's Hotel, corner of S. N. Arrington's Hotel. The new landlords are young men who will be disposed to do the right thing, and one of them we know, has had experience and flattering success in hotel keeping.

—Mr. Prindle, the popular proprietor of the Delmonico, sets a most excellent table, and basty travelers will always find it profitable to drop in there about meal time. Mr. Prindle will be prepared, on the Fair Grounds at Salem, to feed the million.

—Heuston, Hastings & Co. have a name throughout the State as the most extensive dealers in clothing on this coast. Their facilities are very ample for supplying the very best articles at the lowest rates. See advertisement.

—The magnificent family carriage which was presented by citizens to the late President Lincoln, about five years ago, is now owned in San Francisco by Mr. F. W. McCue.

—Jones & Howell of Stockton, have engaged freight for 1000 tons of wheat per Ecuador for New York.

—New York, Sept. 4, 1868.
Wheat—Dull; prices nominal at $2.60 @ $2.75.
Flour—Irregular at $9.75 @ $11.75. Liverpool—140 sacks new at $2.20; 800 sacks extra at $2.20; 4000 sacks good shipping at $1.90; 1500 sacks Paper Haze at $1.90; also, about 50,000 sacks good shipping prior to arrival. We quote good to choice samples to-day at $1.90 @ $1.95; at the close, 6,000 sacks good shipping at $1.90; 1,100 sacks Santa Clara at $1.95; 140 sacks new at $2.20; 800 sacks extra at $2.20; 4,000 sacks good shipping choice, $2.35, an extreme figure.
Oats—Sales of 300 sacks good at $2.25; 2500 sacks fair to range of the market is $2.35 @ $2.60.

—DYE COLORS.—One of the most useful and economical productions of the present age is Howe & Stevens' system of dyeing, comprising all the staple colors and the most exquisite shades, and so simple that any one can use them with perfect success.
